FROM THE PORT FOLIO.

SANG FROID.

MYRTLE unsheath'd his shining blade
And fix'd its point against his breast;
Then gaz'd upon the wond'ring maid,
And thus his dire resolve express'd,

"Since cruel fair, with cold disdain,
"You still return my raging love;
"Thought is but madness, life but pain,
"And thus—at once—I both remove."

"O stay one moment"—Chloe said,
And trembling hasted to the door;
"Here Betty, quick:—a pail, dear maid,
"This madman else, will stain the floor."

NEW YORK, June 4.

Our summer weather may be considered as having commenced yesterday. At the warmest time of the day the mercury stood about 80.—It is a fact perhaps worth mentioning, that when the Thermometer is plunged in the water of the ocean under the line the Mercury stands at the same height.

FROM FRANCE.

By a passenger in the brig Alliance from Nantz, the editors of the New York Gazette have received the following interesting information:

"His Majesty the Emperor of France and King of Italy left Paris the 28th March for Milan, there to be crowned King: the 25th of May was appointed for the Coronation. Previous to his leaving Paris he was pleased to order the long pending American claims to be closed, reserving three millions of livres to be applied to any unsubstantiated claims that remained behind—the American Minister had given notice to the several American claimants, that he was ready to draw on the American Government for the amounts of their respective awards, in such sums as they should chuse, and in francs.

"Mr. Livingston, our late Minister to the French Court, had returned to Paris from Italy, and with his family was expected at Nantz, in order to embark for N. York in the ship Mississippi, capt. H. Skidmore, to sail the tenth or fifteenth of May.

"The Pope left Paris the third of April.

"General Murat has been created a Prince, and appointed Grand Admiral of France.

"The Toulon Fleet had been out 19 days, when the Alliance sailed.

"Business was extremely dull at Nantz, there was a total stagnation, colonial produce pouring in from all parts of America and Lisbon, Coffee was 43 sous, Cotton dull.

"Some warm notes had passed between Mr. Armstrong the American minister, and M. Talleyrand, respecting the conduct of the American Government towards Spain. Dispatches respecting which are brought by the Alliance to the Secretary of state. Imperial Napoleon has told Mr. Armstrong, that the Spanish Government cannot nor shall not pay the demands of America at present.

"It was reported that Lucien Bonaparte was arrested in Italy, by order of Napoleon. Some said he was in the Temple at Paris.

"Admiral Bruix, commander of the Imperial Flotilla at Boulogne, and inspector of the coasts of the Ocean, died in Paris the 20th of March of grief—In consequence of a blow in the face from the Emperor, during a private audience at the Thuilleries!"

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.

The Whitney, captain Hand, on Saturday last, off Cape Hatteras, fell in with the privateer Flying Fish, then standing to the southward with a ship in company. After the examination of captain Hand's papers—let him pass. This is supposed to be the privateer that lay off Sandy Hook a few days ago, and the ship in company, supposed her prize, taken off New York, as mentioned in our paper of yesterday.

Capt. Turner, of the Resolution, from the city of St. Domingo, 28 days ago, left the sch'r Fly, of and for this port, to sail the next day after him.

On Monday afternoon the Editor of the Freeman's Journal was arrested by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of Matthew Lawler, mayor of this city, on the oath of Thomas Passmore, charging him with publishing a malicious, false, and scandalous libel against his character and reputation, in the Journal of Monday, May 27th, 1805. The editor accordingly entered into a recognizance of 500 dolls. with two sureties in 250 dolls. each to appear at the next mayor's court, (June 27th) to keep the peace and be of good behaviour during the said time, &c &c.

COMUNICATION.

Messrs. PECHIN & FRAILEY,

The ensuing election for Directors of the Union Bank of Maryland, is in my opinion, of the greatest importance, both as it relates to the interest of the merchant or stockholder; and it therefore becomes the duty of every voter, to exert his influence, to put the Union Bank of Maryland, under the direction of men of information and integrity. And thereby prevent this as yet our most useful Bank, from giving its discounts in that partial manner which we have sometimes witnessed, and ought at all times to fear; for it is by this means that Banks attain a dangerous influence in society. I would therefore recommend the undernamed gentlemen to the stockholders as proper persons for Directors.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND.

The bill to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to abolish such parts of the constitution as relate to the general court and court of appeals, having been promulgated in the body of laws of last session, & published in several newspapers for the consideration of the people, in conformity to the constitution, it may be deemed not unseasonable at this time to enter upon a free and candid investigation and discussion of the subject.

The bill contemplates an alteration in one of the prominent features of the constitution; its object is the new modeling of the courts of law in the state, and is in its nature, necessarily, of high importance. The expediency or inexpediency of adopting the measure, is a question of state policy: general politics ought not to be blended with it; they have, or ought to have, no bearing upon it; it is a question which ought to be tried by cool deliberate and dispassionate reason, and be decided upon its own merits. In the examination the appeals should be made to the judgment and understanding and to experience whether the grievances are real or imaginary, which are clamoured against under the present establishment; and if real, whether they are so serious and oppressive as to require a remedy; whether the remedy proposed and contemplated will be co-extensive to the redress of the existing evil, & whether the contemplated system will be an improvement, or otherwise, of the existing plan, are questions arising out of the measure now submitted to the opinion of the people, and merit earnest & deliberate consideration. In the inquiry, the decision is not to be controuled by the effects of the measure on any small and partial sections of the state the great interest and convenience of the whole are to be taken into view, and if preponderating, those of an inconsiderable portion must bend, particularly in a matter of such general moment and concern. Individual feelings too, ought not to influence, because it is levelled against no particular individual; but seems bottomed upon the broad and proper basis of public economy, general convenience, and the express letter and genuine spirit of the bill of rights, that great index within the circle of our constitutional liberties, which emphatically points out to civilized man, "THAT THE TRIAL OF FACTS, "WHERE THEY ARISE, IS ONE OF THE "GREATEST SECURITIES TO THE LIVES, "LIBERTIES AND ESTATES OF THE PEO-"PLE." Neither ought this measure to be decryed, as its opponents have idly done on the floor of the Legislature, as being an innovation, novel and visionary. The people inherit by the constitution, the immensely valuable and salutary power of altering as circumstances may from time to time demand, the whole, or any prominent, or minute feature of the government: the framers of the instrument, by ingrafting into it the principle of alteration, have themselves recognized, and in my mind wisely too, that a change of circumstances, great inconvenience, manifest oppression, enormous expence, and a variety of other causes, might and would exist to justify and require a change in the constitution and form of the government; and the people, in the majesty and plenitude of this constitutional corrective power, have, in repeated instances, cured existing evils, modelled the form of government to suit existing circumstances, and abolished entirely where the reasons for particular parts of the charter ceased longer to exist. So in the instance of the bill under consideration, if the state hath felt and experienced, that the general court, as now constructed and conducted, is oppressive and impoverishing, productive of delay, burthensome, expensive and inconvenient to the people of Maryland, and that the present appellate court, in the event of the general court being abolished, will be useless and supernumary. It will be idle and nugatory to denounce the remedy to these evils, novel
