Twenty Dollars

WILL be given for apprehending and securing in any jail, and all reasonable charge if delivered to the subscriber living in Dorchester county, 6 miles below Cambridge, NEW SALL CHAPLAIN——She absconded about the 1st June last, and took her child Hager (aged about 2 years) with her. She is about 26 or 28 years old—slim made and tolerable handsome—her cloathing are not recollected. She has been seen in Baltimore some time since; but it is expected she has left there and has gone towards Philadelphia in company with a free black man, her husband, named JOHN CHAPLAIN—he is a stout made fellow about 6 feet 2 or 3 inches high—has a blemish in one of his eyes—and has rather a down look when spoken to—for apprehending whom the above reward will also be given.

JOHN OZMAN.

N. B. All persons are forewarned from harboring her at their peril, as the law in such case provided will be put in force against them.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 430
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed in Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higinbotham, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

Cashier of the Bank of Columbia
