French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light street and Charles-street; not to promise wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have only—it suffices to tell them that the language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation: the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with their attendance, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

This day is finished,

AN ADDITION OF

6000 Spelling Books,

From the 4th and last English edition.

BY LINDLEY MURRAY.

Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in different sections, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, according to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, broad or broad.

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of dictations, exercises, &c. &c. to give the learner a more extensive knowledge, and a diversified view of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short and easy reading lessons. The orthography, pronunciation, and pauses, have been attended to in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

Also just received,

2000 copies of a New-Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILWORTH'S SPELLING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present work is on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.

On Hand,

A general assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS and STATIONARY—which will be sold on accommodating terms to those who buy for retail.

THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Copartnership, in settling, keeping, examining and unravelling books of accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman: particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undigested and unsettled.

Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it to their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their leaving port, settled to their employers.
