CERTIFICATE

OF CHARLES CECIL, Bell-Hanger, Walnut-street, Philadelphia.

About a fortnight since, I fell from a ladder and bruised my leg and shin bone so severely, that by the extreme pain and soreness occasioned therefrom, I was almost incapacitated from any occupation, and was fearful a mortification might ensue; being advised to apply Dr. Tilfot's Gout and Rheumatic Drops—I found in a very few rubbings all the pain was removed, and in three or four days the blackness and sore entirely cured; I am desirous that this may be made known to the public as the most efficacious remedy I have ever known or heard of.

Signed, CHARLES CECIL.

Philadelphia, March 19, 1807.
