Just Received

And placed for sale at the bookstore of Messrs. Warner and Hanna, (S. E. intersection of Baltimore and Gay streets,) twenty four sets of "Clark's defence of the doctrine of Baptism Sweden[illegible]," in two pamphlets, together with the occasional remarks of the "Christian Observer" on the former of these defensive pamphlets.

Price per set $1 25.

[N. B. It may not be improper, while the appearance of the above advertisement, to remark, that the learned and pious defender of Swedenborgianism, there alluded to, is no other than the present rector of St. John's parish, Manchester, Great Britain, who has just republished the aforesaid pamphlets (per the ship Canton) to the number of the New Jerusalem Church in Manchester, accompanied by the following monthly and interesting letter:—The insertion of which, which I may circulate some pleasing intelligence to the friends of the New Jerusalem throughout the world, will not, it is presumed, offend any of the liberal and pious members or members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.]

MANCHESTER, May 16, 1827.

My very dear sir,

Though labouring under such a bodily indisposition, which renders [illegible] of the pen burdensome, I cannot forego the opportunity of inclosing a few lines to you, in the packet of books which our Society herewith sends you, because I wish to acknowledge, thankfully, the receipt of your two last favours, the earlier bearing date June 1st, 1826, the latter Nov. 18, 1826. You must however excuse my replying to the questions contained in them, until I acquire more strength, when, I hope, the time arrives, I shall be happy to resume my pen, and give you the real sentiments of my mind. You will perceive, from the contents of the packet, that I have been again using the weapons of controversy, in replying to the remarks of the "Christian Observer" on the "Plain Answers," &c. Of this last work you expressed a wish to have 50 copies sent you, but, on mentioning the business to our society they thought it would be best to send you 25 copies of the "Plain Answers," and 25 of the answer to the Christian Observer. From the copy of our report, which is also inclosed in the packet, you will perceive what liberty we have taken with your letters, and how we have endeavoured to give circulation to the important information which they contain. This, I trust, will be a motive with you for continuing your interesting communications.

It will give you pleasure to hear that the new doctrines are making their way, gradually, in this country, through all orders and ranks of people, and this, I trust, not only by an illumination of the understanding through the knowledge of the truth, but by the more efficacious sanctification of the will and life from all defiled affections, through the influence of a heavenly love and charity. We already reckon up between 50 and 60 of the regular clergy, who are become devout receivers.

You have perhaps been informed of the general conference of the ministers of the New Church, which was held at London last week: Nothing has yet come down to the society here respecting what was done on that occasion, but we expect their report will be shortly published.

I have now exhausted all my strength, and must therefore conclude with my best prayers for yourself, and the society over which you preside, that you may be enriched with every blessing from the Father of mercies, and attain unto all the peace of the New Jerusalem. In these sentiments of this prayer, I remain, dear sir, more than words can express, your affectionate friend and brother.
