THE LIFE OF

SAMUEL JOHNSON, L.L. D.

Comprehending an account of his studies and numerous works, in chronological order; a series of his Epistolary Correspondence and Conversations with many eminent persons & various original pieces of his composition never before published. The whole exhibiting a view of literature and literary men in Great Britain, for near half a century, during which he flourished.

By JAMES BOSWELL, Esq.

—— —— Quo fit ut omnis
Votiva pateat veluti descripta tabella
Vita senis —— Horat.

. The Third Volume, which will complete the work, will be published in about 3 weeks, when the price will be raised.

Extract from the advertisement prefixed to the 4th London edition by EDM. MALONE.

"Of a work which has been before the public for thirteen years with increasing approbation, and of which near four thousand copies have been dispersed, it is not necessary to say more; yet I cannot refrain from adding, that highly as it is now estimated, it was, I am confident, be still more valued by posterity a century hence, when all the actors in the scene shall be numbered with the dead; when the excellent and extraordinary men whose wit and wisdom are here recorded, shall be viewed at a still greater distance; and the instruction and entertainment they afford, will all at once produce reverential gratitude, admiration and delight."

"I am not fit to paint his character; nor is there need of it; Etiam mortuus loquitur; every man who can buy a book, has bought a Boswell; Johnson is known to all the reading world.
