Circuit Court,

District of Columbia, for the County of Washington, to wit. Term, 1807.

IN CHANCERY,

John Threlkeld, complainant, versus Henry Fisher, and Cæsar Lowry, defendants.

The bill states that the complainant was seized in fee simple of a certain lot of Ground in Georgetown, that he sold the same to the said Henry Fisher, one of the defendants, for a valuable consideration, on the payment of which, the said complainant by his bond of conveyance, agreed to convey the same to the said Fisher—that said bond was executed in November seventeen hundred and ninety seven; that the said Fisher passed his bond to the said complainant, for the payment of one hundred pounds, being the consideration of the said property—that the said Fisher has never paid any part, either principal or interest, and has assigned his interest in the said bond of conveyance to Cæsar Lowry, the other defendant—that neither Fisher nor Lowry hath paid any part of the same, altho the said complainant has offered to convey the same to the said Lowry, on payment of the purchase money aforesaid which the said Lowry refused to do. The object of the bill is, to compel a compliance with the contract aforesaid on the said Fisher. It is represented by the said complainant that the said Fisher has absconded from the District of Columbia, to some distant part of the United States, out of the jurisdiction of any process of this court. It is therefore ordered that the complainant procure a copy of this order to be inserted in the American, in Baltimore, for six successive weeks, requiring the appearance of the defendant, Fisher, in this Court on the fourth Monday in December next.

By order,
