Mr. Editor,

I observed a piece in your paper of yesterday, signed "[illegible]," containing "a [illegible] statement of one of the most black & heard of prosecutions that any American citizen ever experienced. Whether he [illegible] I will not undertake to say, but [illegible] the said Stevenson's old enemy [illegible] reckoning at [illegible] dollars [illegible] refused to pay [illegible] brought before a magistrate [illegible] and now settled the [illegible]. Now I have it to the public to judge if the said Stevenson would take that method of cheating me out of that paltry sum, I believe the public will agree with me that he would not stick out to embezzle thousands instead of a thousand, if he had it in his power.

What I have here in circle in respect to the manner he served me for that sum, can be proved by a number as well as the person he served so, which is

For Sale on a credit of 7 years,

A very valuable MERCHANT MILL, with two hundred acres of Land adjoining. This mill is in complete order for manufacturing, and has annexed, a very valuable Saw Mill. It is situated near the mouth of Goose Creek, in the county of Loudon and State of Virginia: four miles from Leesburgh the county town, and only half a mile from the River Potomac, the water of which is high enough a considerable part of the year to admit the navigation of Boats from the mill to George-town, the City of Washington, and Alexandria. The country around is very fertile, and can supply it plentifully with wheat, corn, &c. for manufacture. A further description is unnecessary, as it is presumed any person wishing to purchase, will first view it. The terms will be a credit of seven years, the purchaser giving bond with approved security, and also a deed of trust upon the premises. Applications to be made to

GEORGE CARTER.
Oatlands, near Leesburg's, Virginia.

N. B. I have also for sale, 1000 acres of Land, situated upon the waters of Goose Creek, with a valuable mill seat thereon, the Land will be divided to suit purchasers. Apply as above.

In Baltimore County Court.

November 14th, 1807.

On application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John Lamb, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said Act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, annexed to his petition, and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Lamb has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passing of the said Act, and the said John Lamb at the time of preferring his petition was a prisoner, having produced to the Court, the oath in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said Act.

It is therefore adjudged and ordered, by the said Court, that the said John Lamb, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the City of Baltimore every other day for three months, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House in the City, at ten o'clock in the forenoon on the twenty ninth day of March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Lamb, and taking the oath by the said Act prescribed, mentioning in his petition.

Signed by order.

WM. GIBSON, Clk.

Strayed or Stolen

From the subscriber's lot, near Ridgely's Cove, on the night of the 6th instant, a small dark bay MARE, about 12 hands high, switch tail, cropped ears; has a white face, with some appearance of a sore on it, occasioned by feeding amongst weeds in a meadow, with two or more of the feet white. It is presumed the Mare got out of the inclosure and has strayed away—in which case five dollars will be paid for delivering her to the subscriber; or if stolen, and on conviction of the thief, ten dollars will be paid by
