The Depon. of Henry Morgan aged 33 years &c:
That sometime in Octob. last Mrs Cox sent for him to her house, shee being dangerously sick, he heard her say to ye Calfe yt caused her Husbands head to bee broke, Mr Bradnoxs Horse had kick'd, as her Husband told her. Before wch he gave ye Calfe to Mr Bradnox before. & yt shee would performe his mind. & further the Deponent saith not. Jurat. Coram Phil: Corker.

Henry Morgan

The Depon. of Philip Andrey taken 23 Novemb. 1674.
This Depon. saith yt on ye last sickness of Mrs Cox shee secretly deceased shee being Dr. shee gave an yearling heifer to Mr Bradnox for ye cure & payment shee had ye Ken on their sickness above her, & her child: wch shee appointed to bee out of her own stock of cattle. & further the Deponent saith not.
Jurat Coram Philip Corker.

The Depon. of Philip Corker aged 32 years &c:
That about ye time of Mrs Cox went downe to St. Maries he heard ye Ld Cox say that he gave Mrs Bradnox ye calfe wch caused him to cute his hand. & &c:
Jurat. Coram Phil. Vaughan. Corker.

Philip Corker

The Depon. of Margarett Winchester &c:
Saith that some 2 dayes before Mrs Cox dyed this Depon. heard Mrs Cox say ye words give to Mrs Bradnox an yearling heifer of ye cleare stock, for ye cure & payment shee broke about her. & further &c:
Jurat. Coram. Philip Corker.

Sig. ye
Marg.: Winchester

The Depon. of Wm. Ebbs &c:
This Depon. saith yt ye calfe wch caused a Cut his hand to bee taken in Cox Vineyard, after ye Ld & Capt. Brace carried away ye calfe. & was seen, unto ye 24th of Decemb. & further he deposeth not. Only the Calfe was unmarked w. a little white under ye flank. Being ye Cow Calfe. further &c.
Jurat. Coram. Phil: Corker.

Sig. ye
Wm Ebbs

Charles R.

Whereas Thomas Copley Gent. an Alien borne is a Recusant, & may be liable to be troubled for his Religion. And forasmuch as wee are well satisfied of ye Loyalty & quality of ye said Thomas Copley, & of his Loyalty & Obedience towards Vs. Wee doe hereby will & require you & every of you, when in any concerne to permitt & further ye said Thomas Copley freely & quietly to abide in any place, & to goe about & follow his occasions without molestinge or troublinge him, by any means whatsoever for matter of Religion; or the place or persons of those with whom he shall report. And this shall be yr warr. in this behalfe. Given under the Signet at Sd Hall of Westminster ye Fourth day of Decemb. in ye Fourth yeare of our Reign.

To all Judges, Justices of Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, Headboroughs, Messengers, Pursuivants & to all other Officers & Ministers whom it doth or may concerne.

Charles R.

Sigill.