a Compliance with the Prayer of the Petitioner. I do hereby remit the forfeiture.

Tho. W. Veazey.

His Excellency the Governor granted a Pardon to Charles Jones, on account of a charge of Felony, to which he plead guilty before Baltimore City Court, at February Term Instant. (See Pardon Record.

Benjamin L. Gantt's and Charles M. Frazier's Bonds as Tobacco Inspectors at the State Warehouse in the City of Baltimore were examined and approved.

Tuesday February 20 1838

His Excellency the Governor granted the following Pardons and Nolle Prosequis Viz

To Bill Simson, negro, a Nolle Prosequi, on account of a charge pending against him by Committment of a Justice of the Peace of Harford County, of Stealing from Francis Anderson a large sum of money.

To Frederick Nelson and Josiah Dixon a Nolle Prosequi, on account of a charge pending against them by Committment of a Justice of the Peace of Harford County, of Larceny.

To James R. Amin a Nolle Prosequi, on account of a charge pending against him by Indictment in Washington County Court, of a Assault & Battery with intent to Kill.

To Charles Y. Downes, a Nolle Prosequi, on account of a charge pending against him by Indictment in Washington County Court, of a Assault & Battery with intent to Kill.

To Mary Connor alias Mary Holland, a Pardon, on account of Felony, of which she was convicted in Baltimore City Court at February Term 1838

To John Armstrong a Pardon, on account of Felony, of which he was convicted in Baltimore City Court at February Term 1838.

The following Bonds were examined and approved to wit: Samuel Stump's Bond as General Inspector of Flour, Jacob Meiseselb's and Jacob Beam's as assistant Inspectors of Flour, William Parson's Bond as Gauger, and Richard Middleton's as Tobacco Inspector.

Wednesday February 21 1838.