The bill, entitled, "An act for the benefit of [illegible] Fleming, Margaret Gibbs, and [illegible] Harding," was read the second time and [illegible] with the proposed amendment.

The amendment proposed, in the [illegible] page, near the word "county," in the [illegible] line from the bottom, insert "upon the relinquishment of [illegible] and other conveyances being made in writing by the said Flower, Harding, and [illegible] the trustees of the western shore."

The bill, entitled, "An act for [illegible] and other carriages," was read the second time, amended, and [illegible] with the proposed amendment.

The resolution respecting George Gray, was read and [illegible].

The bill, entitled, "An act for the relief of the widows of such officers of this state who died in the continental service," was read the second time, [illegible] with the proposed amendment, and, with the above resolution, [illegible] general register of wills, the bill to declare and ascertain the right of [illegible] and the bill for affirming the [illegible] by William Perry, Esq.

The amendment proposed, in the [illegible] page, near the bottom, after "years," insert "provided, that [illegible] the payment of the half pay [illegible] to the widows and children of such officers who have died in the service of the United States, and have already, under pretence [illegible] received, [illegible] half pay [illegible] the said particular provision [illegible] the said act, from such deficiency shall be paid as aforesaid, to the widows and children [illegible]."

Mr. Goldsborough, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following message:

By the HOUSE OF DELEGATES, March 1, 1786.

Mr. President and gentlemen,

THE house have agreed to the report from the conference, except that the amendment of fifteen shillings in the [illegible] appropriation for next year be reduced to the sum of ten shillings, and have [illegible] the sum to be reduced to seven shillings and six-pence, and we request that the bill may be returned to us for amendment accordingly.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

The following resolution was prepared, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by Mr. George Gale, Esq.

By the SENATE, March 1, 1786.

Whereas much of inconvenience has arisen from the bridge, or ferry, to grant to Gabriel Peterson Vanhorn, an exclusive right of keeping the ferry on the middle road from the river Susquehanna to the river Patapsco, Resolved, That the governor and council be requested to make the said Gabriel Peterson Vanhorn some compensation, in the land mentioned in the act.

By order, J. DORSEY, clk.

Mr. Graham, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the above resolution, and informs, "By the house of delegates, March 1, 1786. Read and assented to.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

The following message was prepared and agreed to.

By the SENATE, March 1, 1786.

Gentlemen,

We return you the bill, entitled, "An act for [illegible] for the purpose mentioned in the message of this day by Mr. Goldsborough, and we [illegible] you would separate, at the same time, the same bill, the bill and property within the [illegible] of it which concerns merely for the purpose of letting and rate. We cannot refrain from expressing, that the report of the committee has been duly agreed to. We are sensible that for the present year would be heavy, but timely exertions will probably relieve us from [illegible] increase of more high rates.

By order, J. DORSEY, clk.

The house adjourned till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY, March 2, 1786.

[illegible] yesterday. The proceedings of [illegible]