[illegible] of this Petcon be referred to ye Lower House
[illegible] to consider thereof. John [illegible].

Upon Resumption of ye Petcon [illegible]
Upper House. It Put to ye Vote. That [illegible]
Judges, if they ought not to allow ye [illegible]
Ordered ye Mr. Wm Curtis pt [illegible]
Wm Calvert Esqr come from ye [illegible]
Blue is from under ye Clerks hand [illegible]
Mr. Speaker empowered him [illegible] ye [illegible]
[illegible] warrt for him. But he [illegible]

The Speaker appointed [illegible]
[illegible], willing them to proceed [illegible]
If Wm Calvert Esqr would [illegible] will take notice of his [illegible] [illegible], of their allow.

Who returnes It Certifyes [illegible] Committee his attendance finished ye Business, upon which [illegible].

Upon Debate againe of ye Ordinarys Acct. This House willing to allow Wm Smyth his Acct, wch he hath charged the Burgesses this Assembly for Liquors: As Wine, Rummes Brandy, Punch, & Limonade made wth Wine. But ye wch he makes Limonade wthout strong drinke they will allow only [illegible] ye gallon. And as to their Dyett & Lodging they will allow what they justly may be charged wth [illegible], & noe more.

The House adjournes for an hour.

The House mett againe.

The Committee came into ye House to make report That they thinke good to allow the Ordinary Acts, as they are charged.
only [illegible] wch they have not bill, they will not allow. And ye Bill of Ly House being read to ye Committee, right before ye [illegible] They agree thereto. As to ye Limonade. The Com= mittees report agreeing therewth only in ye Limonade aforesd.

Wm Smyth being sent for into ye House. The Speaker

Minutes in the Burgesses

Original House Journal Original State Papers.

1726. November 1.