A Valuable Tract of Land

For Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale, a valuable tract of land, in Allegany county, known on the general plat of the lands westward of Cumberland by the name of Shawney War. It was taken up in 1774 and is allowed to be among the first rate lands in that county, the Potomac bottoms excepted, it is situated in the fork of the river Little Crossing, about two miles south of Tomlinson's Tavern and not far from the new road that leads from Virginia to Pittsburg. The south branch of the Little Crossing runs through part of it, which is a bold, never failing stream, capable of driving any kind of water-works. This land is particularly valuable to a man that understand the culture of Hemp and Flax, as the land is rich enough to raise large crops and water-works may be erected to manufacture it, and at a small expense can be transported down the Potomac to George-town where persons taking up lands, in that neighbourhood had their choice. Also lots No. 80, 125, 3127, 4034, 4094, in the same neighbourhood, of 50 acres each, called Soldiers Lots.

The subscriber is also authorised to sell 1500 acres of good patented land in Green Eriar county, state of Virginia. Persons inclined to purchase any of the above mentioned property, may know the terms, (which will be low and accommodating,) by applying to George Mackubin, Esq. attorney at law, in the city of Annapolis, Mr. A. Coyle, at the general post-office, City of Washington, or the subscriber on Rhode river, about eight miles from Annapolis.

On the confirmation of the sale by the chancellor, and on the payment of the purchase money, the land will be duly conveyed to the purchaser or purchasers in fee, by

WILSON WATERS, Trustee.
