

At Annapolis, where the Honorable the Chancellor of Maryland presided, assisted by Gen. John Cassaway.

The day we celebrate.—Washington's March.

The President of the United States—He has been tried and found faithful.—Madison's March.

The Militia.—When well commanded they are their country's bulwark.—Jackson's March.

The State of Maryland.—A center star of the Constellation, for three years eclipsed—May she burst forth at the ensuing elections with renovated lustre.—March.

The Memory of Washington.—Those who regard him, emulate his deeds and respect what he taught. May the light of truth unveil the hypocrites who attempt to mantle their crimes with the sanctity of his name.—Washington's March.

The party which attempted by the blue-light conspiracy to rob the republican voters of their rights—May they never be forgotten or forgiven by an indignant community.

VOLUNTEERS,

By Wm. Kilty—Peace & unanimity—since the war is ended let the Blue Lights be put out.

By Gen. Cassaway—Bribery adrift and the Blue Lights ashore.

By J. Chandler—Maryland federalism—Its weapons, perjury and bribery—Its motto, rule or ruin.

By J. Brewer—May all Blue Lights be extinguished by Republican snuffers.

At a meeting of gentlemen at Mr Rue's tavern in Easton, on the 4th inst for the purpose of celebrating the day that gave birth to American Independence, Mr Alexander C Bullitt presided, assisted by Mr H M K Lambdin as Vice President—After partaking of a sumptuous dinner, prepared for the occasion; the cloth being removed, after prefatory remarks were made by the President, and the following toasts were drank.

1 The day we celebrate. An annual festival in the calendar of freedom 3 cheers. Song—Now we're free from College Rules.

2 The Union Let us, like the youthful Hannibal, advance to the altar, and swear eternal enmity to those who would dissolve it. 3 cheers Song—Liberty Tree

3. The Congress of the U States Individually appointed by a part, they collectively legislate for the whole 3 cheers—Jim Lee, Doodle.

4 Washington. We cannot, we dare not, attempt to add to the name. 3 cheers Song—Hail to the Chief

5 The President of the U States. 3 cheers.

6. The Press The index of the people's will—the panacea to the wrongs of a nation abused by its servants 3 cheers

7 The Heroes of the Revolution. Their names have passed the limits of time, and taken hold on eternity. 3 cheers.

8. The Navy. The infant Hercules—it anticipated all the efforts of majesty to destroy it. 3 cheers. Song—America's Rights on the Ocean.

9 The Army Defeated in the onset, like the offspring of Earth, it gathered strength from every overthrown 3 cheers.

10. The U States. A constellation of 13 stars, they rise to the view of wandering Europe. 3 cheers. Song—Hail Columbia.

11 The State of our ground If was here the religion immediately found shelter in the protecting arms of civil liberty. 3 cheers. Song—Star Spangled Banner.

12 The memory of those who fell in the late struggle Their monumental inscription shall be—
" 'Tis great, 'tis God like thrones usurped to shake,
" And sweet to die for our dear country's sake "

3 cheers. Song—Laurence the Mare.

13 National virtue The point that concentrates the rays of political wisdom. 3 cheers.

14. The American Eagle The bird of Jove—it de-erited his thunders above, to wield our thunder below. 6 cheers.

15 Party Spirit. May it be known only in the memory of days that are past. 3 cheers.

16. The Arts and Sciences Nursed in the bosom of liberty they expand; touched by the hand of despotism, they languish and die. 3 cheers.

17. Agriculture and Commerce The first serves the good of a nation, the last the general interests of man. 9 cheers. Song—Decker's best whistle.

18 The American Fair. Where one sex are so fair, the other must bend to their charm. — Chivalry shall no longer be branded with the name of Quixotism. 12 cheers. Song—Tell her I love her.

VOLUNTEERS.

By the President. Our steps of the late—The flash of their cannon will dispel the mists of error which have concealed from Europe the resources of our country. 3 cheers.

By the Vice-President. The Immortal Wash- ington—We are his disciples. 3 cheers.

By Mr. J. C. Morse. The Executive of Maryland. 3 cheers.

By Mr. Wm. H. Groome. The Hon. Robert H. Goldborough, our Representative in the Senate of the U. States—The zealous advocate for universal suffrage. 3 cheers.

By Mr. James M. Lambdin. Our country—May she be as firm for peace and unanimity as she has been for war and political broils. 3 cheers.

By Mr. G. Tibbutt. Our gallant Navy—The pride of the Ocean and scourge of proud Albion's boasted armada, recommended by the illustrious Washington, the father of his country.

After the President and Vice President had retired—

By Mr. Saml. T. Kennard. The President of the day, 3 cheers.

By Mr. Severn Teale. The Vice-President of the day, 3 cheers.