Queen Annes County

H. W. Chambers advertises a new assortment of rugs of all sizes, large and small.

Don't forget the motion picture entertainment at the Opera House this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Harvest Home services will be held at Ebenezer Methodist Episcopal Church, Ruthsburg, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Dr. George R. Sledge will be at Queenstown, Monday, October 12th and at Centreville Tuesday, October 13th, for the treatment of eye and ear diseases. See advt. in this issue for particulars.

Mrs. Thomas H. Howell, Camden, Delaware, advertises for a competent woman, white or colored, for general housework. Home with all city conveniences. See advt.

The Ladies Aid Society of Union M. E. Church, Rich Neck, will hold an oyster and meat supper and ice cream festival at Union school house, Saturday, October 14th. Proceeds for benefit of church. Public invited.

Members of the Christian Endeavor organization in all parts of Queen Annes county will celebrate tomorrow as Maryland Day. It will mark the anniversary of the organization of the Christian Endeavor in this state.

A meeting of the hose No. 1 fire company of Centreville will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Department room in the Opera House. All members are requested to attend, as important business must be transacted.

Don't forget the movies this afternoon and tonight. The regular week's matinee will be held this afternoon. Tonight an especially fine program has been prepared. Next week a fine assortment of pictures will be shown. Don't miss them.

The Epworth League of the Easton District will meet in convention at Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church on October 10th, 20th and 21st. About one hundred delegates will be in attendance. A special program is now being arranged.

Lewis R. Carr has filed his legal notice that he will sell at Centreville next Monday, October 12th, for the purpose of tuning, repairing and regulating pianos and organs. Reasonable prices. Persons desiring work done may notify Ten Oaks P. O.

Mr. Harry Morris of Centreville is recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent at Maryland General Hospital last week. Mr. Morris had been suffering from gallstones for several months. He will be able to return home in a short time, it is said.

Manager J. L. Cahill of the Opera House motion picture parlor has secured the splendid drama attraction "Thou Love." The first installment will be shown next Monday night. Next Friday night is scheduled three reel drama entitled "Washington at Valley Forge." This will be shown.

Rally Day services were held in the Sunday schools of Centreville Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning. Sunday at 11 A. M. an interesting program was arranged. Candidates were baptized and received into the church. Special music by the choir.

Watermelons are now being sold on the streets of Centreville. A fine specimen was left at this office Saturday morning. It weighed 45 pounds. Country and city folks are enjoying country sausage and spareribs. Apples are the highest cash price for country produce, such as butter, eggs, etc. Apples are selling at from 60 cents to $1 per bushel.

Howard Wainwright, colored, of Centreville, was arrested on a state's warrant and Monday charged with assault and battery on Kercal Berryman, colored, of Centreville. He was tried before Justice Wilson. The case was dismissed by the defendant paying the costs. The assault was committed on Saturday night.

Lewis Hopkins, colored, of Centreville, was given a hearing before Justice Wilson on Monday last on the charge of having in his possession a quantity of chickens, ducks and other poultry, which he is said to have stolen from Mr. Thomas Hopper, near Centreville. The case was dismissed by the defendant paying the costs.

Mr. J. Oscar Faulkner, of Burrisville, suffered a painful accident Thursday evening. He was carrying a lantern in one hand and a small can of gasoline in the other, when the gasoline can suddenly slipped from his hand and poured the gasoline directly into the lantern. In a moment the lantern was enveloped in flames and before he could extinguish it his right hand was painfully burned. Dr. H. F. McPherson dressed the burns.

The Ford automobile continues to maintain its popularity in Queen Annes county. One day last week Messrs. Wright and Lowe sold three machines. There are dozens of satisfied users in all sections of Queen Annes, and the local agents look forward to a big sale of them during the next twelve months. The reduction in price, and offer to rebate, in the event so many cars are sold, together with the Ford's reputation as a strong commodition.

The bowling alleys which have been used at the Centre Alleys for more than five years were removed this week to Winchester, where they are being installed by Mr. Roland C. Parks. Mr. Parks has erected an up-to-date bowling and pool emporium. The alleys have been placed in first class shape, new pool tables installed and Winchester now has one of the best amusement parlors on the Eastern Shore. The alleys will be ready for use some time after the 20th of the week.

General Thomas J. Shryock, Grand Master of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Maryland, will be the guest of Centreville Masonic Masonic Hall, Opera House, Centreville, Tuesday afternoon, October 6th, between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock. The Maryland Grand Master will make a tour of all the lodges of the state. He will come to Centreville from Chestertown and upon leaving Centreville will visit the lodge at Easton. This will be the Grand Master's first visit to the local lodge.

Miss Annie M. Thompson, who has been spending the summer as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Roloff, Roberts street, left Baltimore last Saturday for New York city. The first of the week she sailed for Cadiz, Spain, where she will continue her duties as teacher in the Interpreters Institute of that city. Miss Thompson was formerly a member of the faculty of Queen Annes county teachers. Miss Anna also has won prominent positions as a teacher of languages.

Mr. David E. Smith, of Centreville, a member of the graduating class of the Centreville High School, has entered Johns Hopkins University. In entering Hopkins Mr. Smith was allowed to join the classes without an examination in view of the splendid marks he made while at the local high school. The together with the excellent reputation of the institution enabled him to do so, which is a distinction something that has not been accomplished by any other student in the history of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson entertained a number of friends at their home near Centreville last Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dulany, Hazel and Arthur Dulany, Misses Mildred and Norman Wilson, Alice and Peter Casalanga of Wye Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhodes, Edward and Estelle Rhodes of Winoughby, Misses Gertrude Annie and Margaret Ewinger, Clara Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Casalanga, Florence and Estelle Casalanga, Florence and Mrs. Roland Potter of Baltimore.

The American Agriculturist, a most readable farm journal published in this state, issue a very fine and flattering account of the skills and work of the Rich Neck Farmers Club of Queen Annes, the article being accompanied by cuts illustrating farm methods on the farms of Messrs. H. L. Kipper, W. Irving Wake and Charles Micklem. Mr. Josiah Massey gave a splendid talk on poultry, which aroused interest. Mr. James T. Anthony talked on practical farming. Preparations for the fall work were made. The action was in every respect satisfactory to the Rich Neck Club.

While attempting to take a ride on a touring car in Centreville last Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. William Jr. Price, Dr. of Centreville, suffered a broken wheel. The engine took fire and caused the accident. Three children were in the car and a crowd was taking no end of pit. Mr. Price succeeded in extinguishing the fire by starting the car. Fortunately the spark had not ignited the car. As the first revolution resulted in a strong crack from which snapped one of the bones of the lady's wrist and dislocated another bone. Dr. H. F. McPherson set the bones and Mr. Price is doing as well as could be expected.

Officials of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company have been in Centreville during the last week making maps and plans of the town pole line preparatory to removing all open wires and having them placed in cables. This will be one of the greatest steps toward beautifying the town accomplished in years. The placing of the wires in cables will make it possible to remove many of the unsightly cross arms, and only at a few points will wires be exposed at all. The old exchange, which has been used for years, will be abandoned and the new exchange will be in the McKenney building, adjoining the store of West and Ryland, on Commerce street.

Rev. J. R. Bicking, pastor of Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church, left yesterday for Wilmington to attend a convention of the Epworth League of that city. Yesterday afternoon he addressed the convention on "The Junior Epworth League."

It was announced yesterday from Maryland Campaign Headquarters that Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall has signified his willingness to stump Maryland in behalf of the Democratic nominees. It is possible that the Vice-President may address the mass meeting to be held in Centreville some time this month.

Madison Brown and Thomas J. Keating, Trustees, sold at public auction in Centreville last Tuesday, the splendid farm in the Fifth Election District known as "Walsey." The purchaser was Mr. Walter T. Wright, of Centreville, the purchase price being $9,500. This farm is one of the finest water locations on the Eastern Shore and contains 332 acres of land.

Langrall's Cannery, Centreville, closed last Monday night, and Tuesday afternoon the workmen boarded the steamer "Kitty Knight" at Centreville Landing, and were taken back to Baltimore. The pack, while not as large as in former years, was a very satisfactory one. Many tomatoes are still being picked and Langrall Brothers are receiving them and shipping them to their factory in Baltimore. The majority of other factories will close some time during the coming week.

Several Queen Annes county postmasters have been in Washington this week attending the parcels post exhibit shown by the Post Office Department. After the convention of postmasters from Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Delaware, fifty examples of parcels post shipments prepared under the direction of Postmaster Otto Praeger of Washington were shipped to New York. The exhibit showed samples of packages that should be refused as being improperly packed, and others that illustrate how fruit, poultry, eggs and farm produce should be prepared to insure safe delivery. Those present thought the exhibit showed the parcels post to be a success, but that improvements in packing should be made. The postmasters were urged to advertise the advantages of the parcels post as a means of exchange between the farm and city consumer.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Mary [illegible] of Philadelphia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Margaret [illegible] Brown, on Liberty street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher Roloff and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Keating motored to Cambridge last Sunday and spent the day as guests of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Sprigg.

Miss Lucie Mitchell, Centreville, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Carrie Owens, Cowarts, Md.

Miss Frances Watson is being entertained by friends in Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Davis were in Baltimore last week.

Misses Lillian Hopper and Lucie Hopper are visiting friends in Baltimore every day at their home on Broadway.

Miss Dorothy Brown left Monday for Boston, Mass., where she will spend two weeks as the guest of friends.

Miss Hope Biggs is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. [illegible] Hopper, Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKenney and Messrs. Graham Watson and J. Kent Jacobs motored to the Institute Point Depot last Saturday and spent the week end.

Miss Isabel Turpin is being entertained by friends in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Harlow of Baltimore is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Corkran, on Liberty street.

Mrs. E. L. Schnepfe left yesterday for Hagerstown, where she will be the guest of her mother.

Mr. William McKeen, Jr., of the Baltimore bar, spent several days as the guest of Judge and Mrs. T. H. Hopper on Church avenue this week.

Mr. Donaugh W. Dorringer, of Stanger, Pa., is spending several days as a guest at the home of Mrs. George W. Andrews.

Mrs. T. E. Hopper and Miss Ethel Pastorfield, of Baltimore, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Smith, on Church avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer C. Newnam are spending a couple of weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. Marion Green is spending several days in Baltimore.

Mrs. Edward Smith, of Baltimore, is being entertained at the home of Mrs. Nannie Harper, near Centreville.

Mr. Harry Howser, of Washington, is spending several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kenton.

Mr. James H. Coston will leave for Wilmington tomorrow, where he will enter Beacom's Business College.

Mrs. Harry Legg and daughter, of near Chesterlown, have been spending the last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holton, Queenstown.

Hopeless Lung Trouble Cured.

Many recoveries from Lung Troubles are due to Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It strengthens the Lungs, checks the Cough and gives relief at once. Mr. W. S. Wilkins, Gates, N. C., writes: "I used Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey in a case given up as hopeless and it effected a complete cure." Get a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. If your cough is dry and hacking let it trickle down the throat; you will surely get relief. Only 25c at your druggist.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

MARRIAGE LICENSE RECORD

The following marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk this week:

John Thomas Wilson, aged 53, and Katie Deedor, aged 39, both colored, of Centreville.

Thomas Clark, aged 40, and Florence Robinson, aged 26, both colored, of Centreville.

Elrie Nathaniel Sudler, aged 21, of Barclay, and Mary Madaline Tolson, aged 21, of Ingleside, both colored.

P. O. S. OF A. NOTES

Washington Camp, No. 8, Centreville, has several applications for membership. There will probably be an initiation next Tuesday night.

The local camp is in receipt of a letter from the School Commissioners, in reply to its offer to place a large flag at a Centreville High School. The Commissioners have granted the camp permission to place a large flag at the Centreville High school. The Commissioners have granted the camp permission to place a flagpole on the campus, and it is more than likely that it will be raised with appropriate exercises during the state fair. It is believed that this will be an occasion of joyous festivity, inasmuch as many members have never had an opportunity to attend a flag raising with the ceremonies attending the same.

W. Hubert Hopper, of Church Hill, is proving himself to be one of the best Masters of Forms the State camp has ever had. He is a hustler and is giving hearty cooperation to the members of the state Executive Committee.

Victim of Heart Failure

Miss Sarah A. Carter, daughter of James H. Carter, died at her home in this city last Tuesday morning. It was believed that she was a victim of heart trouble. She was 47 years old. Miss Carter visited Tuesday morning and shortly after reaching her home died of heart failure. A brother was summoned to the bedside but death had taken place.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at Christ M. E. church, Rev. J. R. Bicking officiating. Interment was in the family burial place near Hayden. The brother, James H. Carter, and a sister survive.

Mrs. Anna Cahill.

Mr. Jerry Cahill, manager of the Centreville Opera House motion picture parlor, is in receipt of a telegram on Sunday morning informing him of the death of his mother, Mrs. Anna Cahill, at her home in Norwalk, Conn. Death followed a few weeks' illness from heart trouble.

Mr. Lester Cahill, Messrs. Jerry and John Cahill, of Centreville, the deceased is survived by two other sons, Jim and Jerry Cahill, and two sisters, Mary E. and Katie Cahill. The funeral was held last Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Frances Keating.

Mrs. Elizabeth Frances Keating, wife of the late William Keating, died at her home in Centreville last Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock after a short illness. The deceased had been ill and for a number of years she was bedfast. She was a native of Centreville, Queen Annes county, and was a daughter of the late William McKenney, one of the most prominent and influential men of his day, a pioneer of the county and a great landowner.

Although for years Mrs. Keating had been an invalid she had borne her sufferings with Christian fortitude and was a warm friend to much loved and loved.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at her late residence, Rev. J. R. Bicking officiating. Interment was in the family burial place at Christ church. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jerry Cahill, Lester Cahill, Jim Cahill, Jerry Cahill, Harry Howser and Lester Cahill.

Floral offerings were received from the following: Pillow, family; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cahill; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cahill; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cahill; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry