QUEEN ANNES COUNTY

EXTRA!

Fred Spencer, a Sudlersville negro, is in a hospital at Chester, Pa., seriously and perhaps fatally wounded as the result of a shooting affray at Sedgefield, a negro settlement near Sudlersville, Thursday night. Hennie Sudler, a negro woman, is alleged to have done the shooting with a 32 calibre revolver. A bullet entered Spencer's breast about two inches above the heart and Dr. Foster Sudler extracted the ball from the man's back. The cause of the shooting is not known. The woman has disappeared and at yesterday afternoon she had not been apprehended. R. Vernal Roe of Sudlersville, went to the scene of the negro's trouble in an auto and brought him to Chester in an ambulance. His condition is critical.

Purchases Ford Touring Car

Mr. R. Frank Eaton of Centreville has purchased from Messrs. Wright & Lowe, Centreville, a Ford touring car.

How to Save Money

A visit to the store of Harry Morris, Centreville, will convince you that you can save money by trading there. Read his advertisement in this issue.

Reductions in Millinery

In order to make room for a large assortment of Christmas toys I will dispose of my line of winter millinery at greatly reduced prices. Mrs. S. T. Coston, Water Street, Centreville.

Services at Mother of Sorrows

Forty Hours Devotion were conducted at Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church, Centreville, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Rev. John Walsh, of Cambridge, assisted the local rector, Rev. C. E. McGoldrick, with the special services.

Fell And Broke Nose

While playing Thursday afternoon with a number of other boys and girls about her age, Miss Mary Earle Footeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Earle Footeman, of Centreville, tripped over a playmate and fell, breaking three bones in her nose. Dr. W. H. Fisher rendered medical assistance.

Next Wednesday, Fruit Cake Day

R. Frank Eaton, Centreville, gives notice that in accordance with his usual custom he will bake fruit cakes free of charge for all persons who purchase their ingredients from him. Next Wednesday, December 2nd, will be fruit cake day. Cakes must be left at his store before noon of that day.

Fine Banquet At Sudlersville

Cox Memorial Hall, Sudlersville, was the scene of an enjoyable banquet Thanksgiving Day evening. The affair was held under the auspices of Sudlersville M. E. Church, and 200 persons were seated at the tables. Mr. Charles B. Chase was toastmaster and addresses were made by Rev. [illegible] and Dr. A. D. Sutton.

Line of Christmas Toys

Mrs. Millard Stewart, Centreville, announces that she has arrived after her line of Christmas goods, a complete display of Christmas toys, trees, decorations, etc. Her goods will be found in every way up to the last word. Don't wait until the last few days before Christmas to make your selections. Look over the window display.

Commissioners Meet Next Tuesday

The regular monthly meeting of the County Commissioners will be held next Tuesday, December 2nd, when the following members will be present: President B. Lee Grimes, Commissioners [illegible] and Secretary [illegible]. Business of importance will be transacted.

Marriage Licenses

The following marriage licenses were issued by Clerk of the Court Wm. H. Wright last week: [illegible]

Successful Revival at Barclay

Since Mr. [illegible] began his revival at Barclay, there have been 75 conversions, the largest revival in the history of the church. After the revival had been in progress one week, just 50 persons had professed conversion. The church is thronged nightly and has proved too small to accommodate the crowds. The services are being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Homer Welch, assisted by the Singing Meziks and other ministers of the M. E. Church and M. E. Church South. Evangelist Mezick has issued an invitation to the Junior Order American Mechanics to attend divine service tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Evergreen Season Draws Near.

Holly, mistletoe, crow foot and other evergreens will soon be in great demand in local and city markets. Hundreds of tons of evergreens are used annually in Christmas decorations and those who gather the material from the woods ofttimes reap a rich harvest. Holly with bright red berries is especially in demand and will bring top-notch prices in the city markets.

Rabbits Unusually Scarce

Early reports to the effect that rabbits are unusually scarce in Queen Anne's county this season have been confirmed this week. Hunters assert that in places where they have abounded in great numbers in the past, are now completely devoid of rabbits. Partridges, on the contrary, are believed to be in anything shy of [illegible] bags of bird[illegible] have been made by several county sportsmen during the last few weeks and [illegible] assert that rabbit [illegible] will improve as the weather grows colder.

Paramount Pictures Please

The crowd in attendance at Parson and [illegible] at the Centreville Opera House were [illegible] and Mr. Parson's [illegible] and the audience was delighted with the [illegible]. The [illegible] Sine and the [illegible] of the place [illegible] Monday evening. The [illegible] Tuesday evening, "Call of the North." Wednesday evening, "Such a Little Queen." Mary Pickford, the [illegible] star, in a [illegible] will feature in this play. Thursday evening, "East Lynne." Friday evening, "[illegible]." Saturday evening, "Opera of the Sea." This evening (Saturday) "The Master Mind" will be [illegible].

Bank to Receive Payments

District Manager H. M. Thompson of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company has effected a collection agreement with the Queen Anne's National Bank of Centreville, whereby all the subscribers of the Queenstown and Centreville exchanges may settle their telephone bills at the bank, thus saving postage and other troubles incidental to mailing checks to the office at Hillsboro. All that is necessary under the new arrangement is to call at the bank. The cashier will receive your money and report payment to the company at Hillsboro. The arrangement will become effective December 1st, at which time all the subscribers will receive their telephone bills.

Sudlersville Organization to Meet

Members of the Five Mile Improvement club, an organization looking to the enactment of legislation for rural prohibition, a branch of which has been started at Sudlersville, some time ago, by Dr. J. Burton [illegible], will meet in the High School Building, Sudlersville, next Monday evening. All persons interested in the success of the movement are earnestly invited to attend. The Sudlersville [illegible] will be there in force and will take an active part in helping the rural areas. It is hoped to enroll the [illegible] members who will agree to vote for no candidates and to support a platform of [illegible] state and local [illegible] platform [illegible] Monday evening [illegible] Mr. [illegible] will be [illegible] and [illegible] Mr. [illegible] Sudlersville [illegible] Mr. [illegible] Sudlersville [illegible] Mr. [illegible] Sudlersville