QUEEN ANNE.

Queen Anne, Nov. 26th. Messrs. George C. Moore, Jr., Mr. Oscar Briscoe and Master George S. Lightner are on the sick list. Mr. Briscoe and George Lightner have diphtheria, the latter a malignant case, and the little boy, who is a favorite with every one, is extremely ill.

Miss Emma I. Brindell, of Baltimore, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. George C. Moore.

Mrs. Francis Clark, of Wilmington, has returned to her home after a visit of a few days to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes.

Miss Laura Knotts has returned home from Baltimore, where she spent a part of last week.

Mrs. Mrs. Hart Freeman entertained [illegible] last week.

Miss Clar. Price spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Baltimore, the guest of Miss Mary [illegible].

Miss Minnie Caldwell returned home from Salisbury on Saturday, where she was the guest of Mrs. M. H. W[illegible].

[illegible]

CHIEF JUDGE OF ORPHANS' COURT

[illegible] W. HOFFEL GIBSON, [illegible] was appointed as chief judge of the orphans court on Monday. He was designated [illegible]

BARCLAY

PONDTOWN

HAYDEN

PRICE

MADE ATTORNEY TO LEVY COURT

ROG

TEMPLEVILLE

CHURCH HILL

Church Hill, Nov. 26. Mrs. Mary Dean, of Federalsburg, returned to her home Tuesday after visiting her mother, Mrs. W. T. Sparks.

Mr. W. T. Spark attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. G. Elmer Walls, in Wilmington, last Saturday.

Mr. Henry G. Palmatary and wife spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones, of Portsmouth, Va.

Members of the local P. O. S. of A. are collecting vegetables for the Orphans Home in Baltimore. Messrs. John M. C. Rochester, W. H. Temple and Medford Walls are in charge of the work.

Mr. Wesley DeFord and wife of Massachusetts are visiting friends in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sides, of Chestertown, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallace [illegible]

MILLINGTON

Millington, Nov. 26th.—Miss Julia Cacy returned Thursday of last week after spending several months at the Exposition, at San Francisco.

Mr. Leon F. Lyons, son of Sergeant George W. Lyons, of the Police Department of Wilmington, and Miss Nellie E. Davis, also of Wilmington, but formerly of this place, were married Nov. 11th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George B. Jones, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Elkton. The couple will make their home in Wilmington.

Miss Mabel Price, of Middletown, spent the week-end with Miss Mattie Hazell.

Mr. W. E. Graham, of Northfield, N. J., is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. S. R. Stevens.

Mr. J. E. Feldmeier and Mrs. W. [illegible] Collins visited friends in Baltimore this week.

Miss Hope Alford spent several days this week with Chester[illegible] friends.

[illegible]

STEVENSVILLE

BRYANTOWN

HOSPITAL DEDICATED

SEN. ATOR-ELECT [illegible] OF QUEEN ANNES COUNTY A SPEAKER AT EASTON

Thanksgiving Day was observed in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Bryantown, with a sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. E. White, followed by the Holy Communion. The church was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and fruit. The Sunday school gave a fine program in the afternoon, which was well attended. The Sunday school is doing good work under the direction of its superintendent, Mr. [illegible]

Miss Anna [illegible] and Mrs. W. [illegible] Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. W. [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. W. [illegible] spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. John [illegible] are the happy parents of a fine baby boy.

Miss Julia West has returned to her home in Centreville after visiting Miss Elen Thomas.

Miss Emma Hunter and Miss [illegible] are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. [illegible] are the happy parents of a fine baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. John [illegible] are the happy parents of a fine baby boy.

Mrs. Julia West has returned to her home in Centreville after visiting Miss Ell