Child Burned To Death

With his clothing in flames and his body covered with terrible burns, Wright Bryan, the bright and interesting three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bryan, Winchester, was found by his parents last Saturday morning after they had been attracted to his cries. It seems that the little fellow had found a handful of matches and in playing with them one of them was lighted and ignited to his clothing. A physician was summoned and the child was removed to Emergency Hospital, Easton. The burns proved fatal however and the popular little Winchester tot expired shortly before midnight Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday.

Program Of The "Movies."

Manager J. E. Cahilll has arranged a splendid program of "Movies" for tonight and next week at the Centreville Opera House. The list of attractions follow. SAMUEL GOLT

[illegible] Thursday afternoon [illegible] for many months Mr. Golt had suffered with his affliction and for hearts a week he [illegible] had been expected daily. He had lived in Kent Island practically all of his life.

The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters, viz: Elmer and Harry Golt and Mrs. Mollie Bell and Mrs. Lemuel Kirwan. His wife died about ten years ago.

Funeral services will be held from his late home today at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Thomas of Stevensville M. E. church officiating. Interment will be in Stevensville cemetery.

GEORGE CHANEY HERE

BALTIMORE FEATHERWEIGHT IS TOURING ON THE EASTERN SHORE

George Chaney, the featherweight boxer of Baltimore, is spending a couple of weeks on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. The clever little fighter arrived in Centreville Wednesday afternoon in his Paige roadster accompanied by his wife and two of the Chaneys. Despite the fact that Chaney was put to sleep in the third round by Kilbane in their Cedar Point, Ohio, fight the Baltimore lad appears none the worse off for the encounter. There still remains just the slightest trace of a blackened right eye but other than this Chaney appears to be fit as a fiddle.

SOCIETY

[illegible] Jr. and J. Hall Earton left Monday morning for College Park where they have entered Maryland Agricultural college. Both Mr. Earton and Mr. Gadd are graduates of the Centreville High School class of 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Price, Jr. and son and daughter, William and Juliet, motored to Bel Air last Friday and spent the week-end as guests of Mrs. Price's father, Mr. Joseph M. Street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. [illegible] Roberts and Mrs. John M. Dulany of Baltimore [illegible] at the home of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Ralph.
