SEED CORN SHOULD ALWAYS BE TESTED

WILL INSURE THE BEST CROPS

MARYLAND AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE EXPERT INSISTS THAT FARMERS SHOULD TAKE THIS VERY NECESSARY PRECAUTION

More Queen Annes county farmers than ever before, perhaps, will select and test their seed corn this year. The fact that much higher yields of corn can be secured from the careful selection of seed has become general is recognized throughout the state, and the work of the boys in the county corn club has proven conclusively that the testing of seed is the safest course to pursue to get a bumper crop. County Demonstrator [illegible] Which is especially optimistic over the outlook for a big crop this year, and believes that many farmers will profit by the lesson this year which have never attempted it in the past. ASKS AUTOISTS TO DIM HEAD-LIGHTS

GOVERNOR MAKES AN APPEAL

NO LAW AT COMMAND OF AUTOMOBILE COMMISSIONER TO FORCE DRIVERS TO DO THIS. GOVERNOR HARRINGTON BEGS FOR CO-OPERATION

Governor Harrington has issued an appeal to motorists using the State Roads to dim their lights at night when passing others and in the event they have not dimmers now to purchase and use them. He said that he had received a number of letters about the failure of motorists to use dimmers.

Many automobile accidents are caused by the glare from oncoming lights on cars and the Governor said that it seems to be the road of a fair [illegible] from this cause.
