SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 21, 1914

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

Hush-money does more talking than any other kind.

When you see an over-dressed woman escorting a man who looks like a door mat, you know who is boss in that house.

A girl can put in ten years acquiring culture. But that won't keep her from snoring when she is asleep.

The man who beats his wife isn't a bit worse than the man who robs his family by spending his money on his friends.

The old fashioned man who used to paddle his own canoe now has a son who owns a motor boat named "Ishkabibble."

It is funny what a difference a few years make. The girl who used to let you chew her waist a good while before you took a whirl at her, nowadays sucks a cow has a daughter who arrives home individually intoxicated, so she won't get any getters in her mouth.

POLITICAL PREACHERS

Peter Radford, who has just been re-appointed lecturer of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union of America, sounds a note of warning to the growing number of preachers who are mixing in politics.

Those who put on clerical garments, says Prof. Radford, take on a measure free to unlock every door of the human heart and enter the secret chambers of reason and every person should submit their actions to them and look for orders of the appointed messengers of God, but the moment the minister comes into politics and spoils the law he becomes a menace to society.
