COLDS

An up-to-date remedy for colds. That is what Peruna is. In successful use over 50 years.

Colds are caught in many ways: Illy ventilated rooms; rooms that have direct draughts; crowded rooms; damp houses; stuffy school rooms; offices illy heated.

A dose of Peruna at the right time, at the first symptom of cold, before the bones begin to ache, before the sore throat manifests itself, or the cough, or the discharge from the nose, just a dose or two of Peruna before these symptoms begin is generally sufficient. But after the cold is once established with the above symptoms prominent, a bottle of Peruna, or maybe two, will be necessary.

Cultivating Plump Hands

The appearance of the hands is an index to the general health, and a physician looks them over when he examines the pulse.

One of the best ways of retaining or acquiring fresh, plump looking hands is by means of oil baths.

Almond oil or, lacking this, olive oil is the best. This is warmed and applied after the hands have been thoroughly washed, are rubbed, rinsed in clear water and the moisture removed.

A little cologne may be added to make the work somewhat more agreeable. Go over the hands and wrists and receive round the nails, over the entire surface. Exercise mildly of course, for a short time. The more the juices bounds for the hands, the more this will do good. Do this every night for two weeks, or until the hands are plump and soft.

Economy in Furs

A note of fur fashions which is sure to bring joy to the heart of the woman who has only a small dress allowance is that, while a good deal of fur is used as a trimming, no large pieces are in vogue. For instance, from a last year's muff it will be quite possible this season to make a muff and a "choker," the name given to the small round piece of fur which encircles the throat, ties tightly in a smart ribbon bow or ends in a big velvet flower. Muffs are smaller—in fact, many are so small that they hardly cover the hands. A small, round muff and a tiny "choker" are considered the acme of smartness.

Strengthening the Eyebrows

The following method will encourage growth and improve the shape of the eyebrows. Boil castor oil two ounces, tincture of cantharides one-eighth of an ounce, oil of rosemary fifteen drops and oil of rosemary fifteen drops. Mix thoroughly. Apply to the eyebrows with a small brush once a day. Be careful that none gets into the eyes, as it will inflame them, as a little do.

The Sleep That Counts

When you go to bed—if you are looking for beauty sleep—you should fall asleep right away. The beauty sleeper, the one who wakes up looking refreshed, will fall asleep the minute her head touches the pillow. She will fall into a slumber heavy and dreamless and she will waken in the morning of her own accord.

HOW 10-YEAR-OLD LASS MADE MONEY

CANNING CLUB MEMBER

On One Tenth of an Acre of Land This Little Country Girl Cleared $37.50 From Canned Tomatoes. The Story of Her Work as Written by Miss Fields.

Every Queen Anne's county girl should be interested in the work of the Girls' Canning Club during the last year. Recently the Superintendent of the State Canning Club Department sent a card to Jim Cheshire, a boy living near Templeville, who was best in the county exhibit. This sketch was written by the little girl to show how she produced her prize tomatoes and how she cared for them.

[illegible] years I had joined the canning club I made all good [illegible] the third that Mr. [illegible] State agent and the [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Robinson to a county demonstration given by Miss Burnite and Mrs. Robinson. We used tomatoes in our home, fried, baked, stewed, sauce and tomato bisque.

Expenses

Cans	$11.00
Labels	1.00
Incidentals	.50
	$15.00

$52.50 for tomatoes sold
15.00 expenses

$37.50 profit off 1 acre.

This work has taught me how to can different kinds of fruit and vegetables in many ways. If all of our canned goods were put up as our club does, because we sterilize everything and it is done up of doors, away from flies and dust.

We all know that flies carry disease. We are trying to carry out our motto, "Live to make the best better."
