QUEEN ANNES COUNTY

EXTRA!

Fred Spencer, a Sudlersville negro, is in a hospital at Chester, Pa., seriously and perhaps fatally wounded as the result of a shooting affray at Sedgefield, a negro settlement near Sudlersville, Thursday night. Hennie Sudler, a negro woman, is alleged to have done the shooting with a 32 calibre revolvor. A bullet entered Spencer's breast about two inches above the heart, and Dr. Foster Sudler extracted the lead from the man's back. The cause of the shooting is not known. The woman has disappeared and late yesterday afternoon she had not been apprehended. R. Oscar Roe, of Sudlersville, took the wounded negro to Chester in an automobile. His condition is uncertain.

Cox Memorial Hall, Sudlersville, was the scene of an enjoyable banquet Thanksgiving Day evening. The affair was held under the auspices of Sudlersville M. E. Commissioners Meet Next Tuesday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of County School Commissioners will be held in the Court House, Centreville, next Tuesday. Superintendent B. J. Grimes, of Centreville, and School Commissioner John R. Benton, of Stevensville, attended the annual meeting of the Superintendents and Commissioners Association in Baltimore last week.

Marriage Licenses.

Dan Cupid got on the job with a real vengeance for Thanksgiving Day. The day before the great national holiday just four marriage licenses were issued from the Clerk's Office, Centreville. They were as follows: White—William Thomas Sparks and Ida May McMullen, of Wye Mills; Joel C. Fallowfield and Adella G. Lipp, of Sudlersville. Colored—Charles Harden and Lizzie Dorum, of Centreville; Robert George Dunn Potts and Ida May Henry, of Barclay.

Successful Revival at Barclay.

Since Wednesday of last week the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Barclay, has been the scene of one of the largest revival services ever witnessed in that community. After the revival had been in progress one week, just forty persons had professed conversion. The church is thronged nightly, and has proven too small to accommodate the crowds. The services are being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Homer Welch, assisted by the Singing Mezicks and other ministers of the M. E. Church and M. E. Church South. Evangelist Mezick has issued an invitation to the Junior Order American Mechanics to attend divine service tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock.

Evergreen Season Draws Near.

Holly, mistletoe, crow-foot and other evergreens will soon be in great demand in local and city markets. Hundreds of tons of evergreens are used annually in Christmas decorations and those who gather the material from the woods ofttimes reap a rich harvest. Holly with bright, red berries is especially in demand and will bring top-notch prices in the city markets.

Rabbits Unusually Scarce.

Early reports to the effect that rabbits are unusually scarce in Queen Anne county, this season, have been confirmed this week. Hunters assert that in places where they have abounded in great numbers in the past, are now completely devoid of rabbits. Partridges, to the contrary, are believed to be, if anything, slightly more plentiful. Good bags of birds have been made by several county sportsmen during the last few weeks and old hunters assert that rabbit hunting will improve as the weather grows colder.

Paramount Pictures Please.

The first installment of Paramount pictures at the Centreville Opera House were shown last Monday evening and the audience was delighted with the clean-cut acting, the clearness of the films and the general get-up and arrangement of the plays. Paramount pictures will be on the schedule next week also. They include: Monday evening, "The Only Son;" Tuesday evening, "Call of the North;" Wednesday evening, "Such a Little Queen." Mary Pickford, the high salaried movie actress, will feature in this play. Thursday evening, "Lost Paradise;" Friday evening, "Typhoon;" Saturday evening, "Odessa of the North." This evening (Saturday) "The Master Mind" will be on the screen.

Bank to Receive Payments.

District Manager H. M. Thompson, of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, has effected a collection agreement with the Queen Annes National Bank of Centreville, whereby all the subscribers of the Queenstown and Centreville exchanges may settle their telephone accounts each month, thus saving postage and other troubles incidental to mailing checks to the office at Hillsboro. All that is necessary under the new bank arrangement is to call at the bank. The cashier will receive your money and report payment of the account to the Hillsboro cashier. The arrangement will become effective December 1st, at which time all the subscribers will receive their telephone bills.

Sudlersville Organization to Meet.

Members of the Five Million Enrollment Club, an organization looking to the enactment of legislation for national prohibition, a branch of which was organized at Sudlersville some time ago by Prof. Burton L. Lockwood, will meet in the High School Building, Sudlersville, next Monday evening. All persons interested in the success of the movement are earnestly invited to attend. The Sudlersville organization expects to take an active part in helping the national association realize its ambition to enroll five million voters who will agree to vote only of such candidates and political parties as stand committed by state and national platforms for a complete overthrow of the liquor traffic. The meeting next Monday evening will probably be a very interesting one.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hazel, of Dover, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eva L. Hazel, to Mr. John Wallace Woodford, of San Jose, California, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Woodford, of Centreville. Mr. Woodford has been associated for several years with the well-known firm of Richardson & Robbins Company, of Dover. Mr. Woodford was assistant manager of their Delaware plant for several years and last spring was sent to their mammoth California plant to assume the managership. Senator Richardson, of Delaware, is the head of the concern. Mr. Woodford has been especially successful and now occupels one of the most important positions of the company. His Centreville friends are delighted to know that connubial happiness is to be added to the pleasure of his business success.

Progressive Farming.

That this is the era of power, other than horse, on the farm is being rapidly demonstrated these days. In all the progressive communities of the country horse power is giving way to power tractors and other machines of this sort. This week Mr. R. W. Thomas purchased through Mr. Charles H. Burgess, representative of the International Harvester Company, a Mogul tractor used for plowing and various other kinds of farm work. The Mogul tractor is an 8x16 horse power machine and wide-awake farmers are beginning to realize the tremendous advantage to be dervied from owning one. Mr. Burgess, who resides in Centreville, is very optimistic over the farming outlook throughout the country. Farmers are beginning to realize that to make a success of their profession they must equip themselves with up-to-date machinery, and agricultural experts are expecting that the next ten years will develop the most successful era in the farm business.

Is Quality Or Price Your Attraction.

Many dealers in the business world offer standard and popular articles at cut prices to attract customers. The most successful and the real business men build their business by rendering satisfying service to their customers, featuring more especially the highest quality of merchandise at reasonable prices, and rendering such service as will please and satisfy, knowing that a satisfied customer is the best kind of an advertising medium. If these are the "high points" in business you are seeking, you are directed to Holland & Thompson's Pharmacy, when in need of anything in the drug store line. They promise to give you "what you want, when you want it, and at the price you can afford to pay." This week they are featuring the "Sterno" heating outfits. See their window display. It will demonstrate some of the many uses. Or write for particulars.

MRS. JULIA M. COLE.

Mrs. Julia M. Cole departed this life suddenly on Monday, Nov. 22nd, at her late residence near Bridgetown.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leager, of Queen Annes county, and was born in 1883. She was a member of Roe Methodist Episcopal Church for a number of years.

On December 20, 1904, she was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. H. Cole, a son of the late Amandus Cole, also of Queen Annes county.

Funeral services were held at her late home Wednesday morning, by Rev. A. M. Rahn, of Ridgely, assisted by Rev. S. J. Fogwell, of Roe. Interment in Sudlersville cemetery.

Besides her husband and a daughter, Annie, she is survived by her parents, a sister, Mrs. Scott Clough, of near Centreville, and a brother, Mr. Granville Leager, of Roe, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The following deeds were recorded in the Clerk's Office, Centreville, this week, for property sold or otherwise transferred:

Charles E. Bishop to Samuel Newton Smith and James Smith, lot of land near Wye Mills. Consideration $1800.

Waddel Brown to Phillip Grollman, small tract of land on Kent Island. Consideration $26.

MAY BUY SWEEPER

LEAGUE OFFERS TO PRESENT CENTREVILLE WITH VALUABLE STREET MACHINE.

Within the next few weeks the town of Centreville will probably own an up-to-date and greatly needed combination street sprinkler and street sweeper. With the completion of the new permanent streets, a way will have to be provided to keep the thoroughfares neat and clean. With this end in view, realizing that the town Treasury could not bear the expense of purchasing the machine, the Civic Betterment League of Centreville has volunteered to make the purchase and present it to the town.

A meeting of the Town Commissioners and the Executive Committee of the League was called for four o'clock yesterday afternoon. At the hour of going to press it was impossible to learn just what the outcome was. Prior to the meeting, however, it was understood that the League was willing to buy the machine, which costs about $400, and present it to the town. It was further understood that the Commissioners realized the need of a sprinkler and sweeper, and, in behalf of the town, would gladly accept the gift from the League.

A representative of the company manufacturing sprinklers and sweepers was in Centreville Friday evening of last week. He conferred with the Town Commissioners and officials of the League. If it was decided yesterday to buy the machine, the order will probably be forwarded within the next few days.

POLITICS IS BOOMING

POSTOFFICE FIGHT IN CENTREVILLE IS ASSUMING INTERESTING PROPORTIONS.

Political wiseacres are busy, just now, doping out the probable winners of the various county plums to be given out during the next few months by the newly elected officials. By long odds the fight for the position of Postmaster of Centreville is attracting the greatest interest. The fight has about narrowed down to four contestants, and they are: Messrs. William J. Woodford, Edward B. Emory of B., Samuel T. Bouchelle and A. M. Keating. The friends of all the candidates are active in their behalf and, so far, the Democratic State Central Committee has shown no indication of letting the public know just whom they will endorse.

The newly elected Board of County Commissioners met Tuesday and organized by electing Mr. R. Bruce Massey President. The Commissioners will probably meet today and name a clerk. Those most prominently mentioned are: George I. Harrison, of Crumpton; Ralph Roe, of Chester; Sylvester Denny and J. Griffin Embert, of Queenstown; and C. Edgar Smith, of Church Hill.

In the Third District there are three reported candidates for positions at Annapolis. Rumor has it that Messrs. George Connolly, Thos. Massey and Harry Forman are candidates for legislative appointments.

SAMUEL SENEY.

Mr. Samuel Seney, one of Queen Annes county's most respected citizens, a successful farmer for a number of years and Clerk of the County Court from 1905 to 1911, died suddenly at his home adjoining Centreville Thanksgiving Day at 2 o'clock P. M. Death was caused by a hemorrhage.

Two weeks ago Mr. Seney suffered a hemorrhage, but he rallied and his physician and family believed that he was on the road to recovery. Thursday afternoon he suffered a second attack and lived only a few minutes.

Mr. Seney was born near Church Hill in January, 1839. In early life he began farming and for a number of years resided near Roe. He married Miss Annie Holland, of this county, who died six years ago. Four years ago he removed to his farm adjoining Centreville.

Mr. Seney was an honest and upright gentleman of the old school. His quiet unassuming manner and warm, loyal friendship surrounded him with admirers and all mourn his sad death.

In 1905 he was elected Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Annes county and served until Thanksgiving Day, 1911.

He was twice a tax-collector of the Sixth District.

The deceased is survived by two brothers, Saulsbury Seney, of Price, and Robert Seney, of Centreville. He also leaves eight children, as follows: Wm. J. Seney, of New York; Mrs. Emma Price, of near Ingleside; J. Frank Seney, of Brooklyn; Elmer B. Seney, teller in the Queen Annes National Bank of Centreville; Medford Seney, of the United States Navy, and Misses May H., Ruth and Virginia Seney, who lived at home.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at his late residence, Rev. J. R. Bicking officiating. Interment will be in Church Hill cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Albert C. Seney, John W. Seney, Samuel W. Seney, J. Carroll Seney, Fred M. Seney and Saulsbury Cahall, nephews of the deceased.

THANKSGIVING DAY

ANNUAL HOLIDAY OBSERVED BY FEASTING AND MERRY-MAKING IN QUEEN ANNES.

Thursday was Thanksgiving Day and in all sections of Queen Annes county the day was observed by feasting and merry-making. In many sections, however, the first event of the day was a religious service of Thanksgiving either about the family hearthstone or in one of the numerous county churches. This was followed by bustling preparation and eager anticipation for the annual feast of the noon hour, and county families were, in many instances, augmented by numerous city visitors.

Thanksgiving day is always a day of family reunions in Queen Anne county and last Thursday was no exception. From the schools and colleges girls and boys returned home for a few days respite from their studies; men and women who have gone up to the cities, returned home to spend a day in their old home town, village or at the farm. Scores of turkeys, ducks and chickens were slaughtered to make the annual feast a success, and luscious, brown-brimmed pumpkin pies were brought from pantry shelves to satisfy juvenile and grown up appetites.

In numerous churches of the county services were held Thursday morning when pastors delivered special Thanksgiving sermons and choirs rendered hymns of Thanksgiving. Practically all the the stores, banking institutions and other places of business were closed and Queen Annes gave herself up to the complete enjoyment of one of the year's greatest holidays.
