QUEEN ANNES COUNTY

To Close Thanksgiving Day.

The meat markets of C. H. Kenton, Jr., and E. E. Bramble, Centreville, will be closed all day Thanksgiving Day. N26tf

Revival At Starr.

Revival services will be held at Starr M. E. Church tomorrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. Rev. Henry Covington will conduct the services.

Bazaar At Bryantown.

The ladies of Perry's Corner M. E. Church will hold a bazaar and festival in Bryantown Hall the evenings of December 1st and 2nd. The public is cordially invited.

Thanksgiving Hours.

The three drug stores in Centreville will be closed as follows on Thanksgiving Day: From 10.30 A. M. to 12.30 P. M. From 1.30 P. M. to 4 P. M. All three of the stores will close for the day at 8 P. M.

An Error Corrected.

In the account of the death of Miss Agnes Richardson Skinner, published last week, the last name was inadvertently omitted and her name was published as Agnes Richardson. The error is hereby corrected.

Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

Next Thursday, November 30th, Thanksgiving Day, will be a legal holiday in Queen Annes county and all banks will be closed. The majority of business estabishments will also observe the great national holiday.

Christmas Toys Soon Shown.

Mrs. Mildred Seward Ewing, proprietress of the up-to-date millinery store and 5 and 10 cent establishment, Commerce street, announces that she will have a complete line of Christmas toys and novelties on display after December 1st. Public inspection invited. Advt. 1t.

Will Grind Your Sausage.

C. H. Kenton, Jr., the proprietor of Kenton's Meat Market, Centreville, announces that he is prepared to grind sausage for the public. Mr. Kenton has the latest electrically driven machinery for grinding sausage, and his terms are very reasonable. Read his advertisemnt this morning.

Fine Lot of Cattle.

We have twenty-five head of the finest cows that were ever seen in one lot in Queen Annes county. They are for sale. Twelve have calves by their sides and the balance are close-up springers. One 3-year old Holstein heifer with registered papers. For sale or deal. Hopkins and Coursey, Centreville. N26tf

To Preach Temperance Sermon.

Rev. T. Manly Sharpe, Ph. D., rector of St. Luke' Parish, Church Hill, will preach a special sermon on Temperance tomorrow morning at St. Luke's Church, Church Hill, at St. Andrew's Chapel, Sudlersville, at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and at 7.30 o'clock tomorrow evening at Hillsboro. All are invited.

Called To Preach Sermon.

Rev. J. R. Bicking, pastor of Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church, was called to Cowentown, Cecil County, Wednesday, to preach the funeral of J. Cecil Cresswell, a young Cecil countian, who was killed while hunting last Saturday. The deceased was a former member of the church served by Mr. Bicking several years ago.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at Centreville M. E. Church next Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock. It is the annual custom for the members of the two churches to meet at one or another of the churches for union services each year. Rev. G. J. Hill, pastor of Grace M. P. Church, will deliver a special Thanksgiving Day sermon.

Invited To Parish House.

The public is cordially invited to be present at the Parish House of St. Paul's Church, Centreville, Monday evening, November 27th, at 8 o'clock, where there will be pictures to please the eye,candy to please the palate and instruction for the ear. A collection will be taken to help the church educate the mountain boys of the country—the long neglected native Americans.

Fine Recital Next Monday Night.

Music lovers from all parts of this and Kent counties will probably go to Chestertown next Monday evening to hear a recital in Lyceum Theatre, at that place, by Miss Gertrude Rennyson, dramatic soprano of the Boston Opera Company. Miss Rennyson is one of the most popular and gifted operatic stars in the country and her recital at Chestertown should prove a rare treat for music lovers.

Eastern Sho' Dinners Go Up.

At a meeting of the hotel proprietors of the Eastern Shore at Snow Hill this week, the decision was reached to increase the price of dinners from fifty cents to seventy five cents. The Arlington Hotel, Centreville, is included in the large list of hotels that have found in necessary to increase the price of the noon-day meal, on account of the steady advance in the cost of all kinds of food stuffs.

Hand Badly Lacerated By Saw.

Mr. Clinton Cook, of near Burrisville, suffered a painful accident last Saturday, while sawing wood with a large buzz saw. In handling a log of wood his left hand came in contact with the swiftly revolving teeth of the saw, and his fore-finger was so badly cut that Dr. H. F. McPherson, of Centreville, found it necessary to amputate it. Several other fingers on his hand were badly lacerated.

Movie Program For The Week.

Following is the motion picture program for tonight and next week at the Centreville Opera House: Tonight—Hazel Dawn, in Under Cover; Monday—The Island of Surprise, a Vitagraph special; Tuesday—Mary Boland, in the Price of Happiness; Wednesday—The Hand of Peril; Thursday—Rita Jolivet, in the International Marriage; Friday—Alice Brady, in Stolen Voice; Saturday, December 2nd—Maris Dora, in Common Ground.

Chicken Farm In The County.

William H. Truslow, of Pennsylvania, has purchased fifty acres of Queen Annes county land on Chester River, near Chestertown, and will start an up-to-date poultry establishment. The property was purchased from H. P. Skipper. Work on the numerous buildings will be started within the next few weeks and Mr. Truslow expects to start with about four thousand chickens. He will probably be the largest poultry farm in Queen Annes county.

Fellowship Bible Class Meets

The members of Fellowship Bible Class, of Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church, were delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. West, Kidwell Avenue. After the business session, those present enjoyed refreshments. Last night's session was the regular monthly social and business meeting. The members of the class were supposed to kill enough rabbits yesterday for the supper last evening. Late yesterday supper was uncertain.

More Large Potatoes.

Last week mention was made of several fine crops of Irish potatoes. Last Saturday Mr. William A. McClyment, of near Queenstown, left at The Observer office one of the largest specimens of the red variety seen this year. Mr. McClyment planted a basket of potatoes, and a few weeks ago dug 42 tomato baskets of the red variety. On Monday Mr. Benjamin Melvin, of Wye Island, brought a bushel of potatoes to Centreville. There were just fifty in the bushel basket.

Blaze From Lighted Pipe.

Leaving a lighted pipe in one of the pockets of his overcoat caused what might have been a very disastrous fire at the home of Mr. Henry Cole, near the M. D. & V. Railroad Station, shortly before 1 o'clock Thursday morning. Many Centreville residents were awakened by the blowing of the railroad engine whistle, and a number hastened to the scene of the fire. The overcoat and other clothing were destroyed, and the fire burned the wall paper off of a part of one of the lower rooms. The total damage was less than $75.

Grammar School Bazaar.

Preparations are about completed for the supper and bazaar to be held in the Assembly room of the Grammar School on Friday evening, December 8th. The members of the faculty to be assigned to special work are: Mrs. Harley, to superintend the Parcel Post and Fancy Table, Mrs. Kinnamon, the ice cream tables, Misses Keating and Merrick, the candy and cake table and Misses Morgan and Rittenhouse will have charge of the supper. Preparations are being made for a large crowd and the entire assembly room will be used.

To Show "Island of Surprise."

Beginning next Monday evening Manager J. E. Cahill will have a special Vitagraph photoplay every Monday night at the Centreville Opera House. The first attraction is "The Island of Surprise." The picture tells the story of a man who was cast on a South Sea Island with his secretly married wife and a woman whom his father had chosen for him to marry. In an accident he forgets his marriage and both women claim him for their husband. The three are attacked by cannibals and an injury results in the man regaining his memory. It is a thrilling story, told in a well-filmed picture. See it.

Former Centrevillian Dead.

Mr. George Sydney Woolley, a brother of Mrs. S. E. Newnam, of Centreville, died last week at his home in Chesapeake City. He was well-known by many Queen Annes countians. Residents of Centreville more than a half century ago will recall a Civil War occurence which excited no little comment at that time, and which is now treasured among the historical incidents of the county. Mr. Woolley was one of the first to enlist when the grea war commenced and a year later he came home to visit his relatives. Local soldiers of the opposing army learned that he was home and determined to effect his capture. He would have been arrested but for the fact that his sister hid him beneath a bag of potatoes in the garret. After remaining home a week he escaped and made his way back to the army.

Evangelistic Campaign.

The members of the M. E. Churches, Church Hill, are engaged in earnest efforts to make the evangelistic campaign of the coming two weeks a marked success. Already several preparatory meetings have been held in town and country, which have resulted in blessings. The services will begin with a monster open-air meeting at 3.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, followed by the evening service at 7.30 o'clock each night next week, except Saturday, when services will begin at the same hour. During the services the merchants have agreed to close their stores at 7.30 P. M. The Rev. John Good, from the Old Country, will conduct the services.

Next Is Christmas.

Just the present you want to give to that relative, friend, acquaintance or sweetheart, can be found at Holland & Thompson's drug store in a few days when their large and varied line of holiday goods be on display. The line has been selected with especial care in order that the needs of all ages and conditions might be met. It will soon be time to arrange for the shopping trips, so begin now to make out the list, then for some timely sugestions read the advertisement from this drug firm, which will appear next week. Last, but not least,be sure to call at this store before you make any selections, for you will see just the item you want for the person in mind, and at a price you can well afford to pay.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE FORMED

Organized At Sudlersville Last Tuesday. Officers Elected.

At a meeting held in the High School, Sudlersville, last Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, a Community Betterment League, similar to the Civic Betterment League of Centreville, was formed. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one and was well attended. The officers elected were as follows:

President—Mrs. Aldred Walls.

Vice-President—Mrs. Austin F. Roberts.

Recording Secretary—Miss Madaline M. George.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Susie Sparks.

Treasurer—Mrs. James R. Merrick.

Mrs. J. Fletcher Rolph, President of the Civic Betterment League of Centreville, was invited to be present at the organization, and was requested to explain the purposes and accomplishments of the Centreville League. Mrs. Rolph congratulated the ladies of Sudlersville upon their public spiritedness, and assisted in the work of organization.

The Sudlersville Community Betterment League begins work under most favorable conditions and splendid results will, no doubt, be achieved.
