

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY

- *HAMILTON, THOMAS. 1801 (?). Born in 1764. Surgeon, Twenty-seventh Regiment of Maryland Militia, 1814; resided at Baltimore. Died 1824 (Q.). See lists of 1807 and 1848; marked dead in the latter. (A Dr. Hamilton was Deputy Health Officer of Baltimore, January, 1822—American Medical Recorder, April, 1822.)
- *HAMILTON, WILLIAM AUGUSTUS. 1875. Born at Baltimore, April 15, 1848. Pupil of Dr. N. R. Smith; M.D., University of Maryland, 1869; studied in hospitals of Berlin and Paris for two years; practiced at Camden, N. J., for five years; settled at Baltimore, 1886. Died at Baltimore, May 10, 1888.
- HAMMETT, S. B. 1891. (This was probably intended for Charles Maddox Hammett, who was educated in Maryland and practiced there for a time; M.D., Georgetown University, 1854; Health Officer of Washington, D. C., 1891-94; died at Washington, November 22, 1898, aged 63. His son, Dr. C. M. Hammett, of Washington, D. C., writes that there was never any other Hammett in Maryland.)
- HAMMOND, JOHN T. 1898. Born near Berlin, Worcester County, Md., April 24, 1831. Educated at Princeton College; M.D., Jefferson Medical College, 1852; in constant practice since; resides at Berlin, Md.
- *HAMMOND, THOMAS LLOYD. 1800. Born August 11, 1779. A.B., St. John's, 1796 (Q.); said to have graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, 1799 (name not in Catalogue); Censor, Anne Arundel County, Md., 1840 (Maryland Medical and Surgical Journal, vol. i). Died May 12, 1838. See lists of 1807, 1848 and 1853.
- *HAMMOND, MATTHIAS. 1808. Of Anne Arundel County, Md. See Medical and Physical Recorder and list of 1848; marked dead in the latter.
- *HAMMOND, NICHOLAS. 1824. Born at Easton, Md., 1795. Married Annie Caroline Goldsborough, 1823; M.D., University of Maryland, 1823. "A man of ability. No man on the Eastern Shore so universally esteemed. Had an immense funeral." Died at Easton, Md., 1831.
- *HAMMOND, THOMAS. 1823. M.D., University of Maryland, 1823. See Treasurer's Book and MS. Archives.
- *HAMMOND, WILLIAM. 1811. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1811.