

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY

Vienna, 1844; resided at Vienna for eight years; Assistant Vienna Allgemeines Krankenhaus; settled at Baltimore, 1849, and practiced there till his death. Died at Baltimore, October 26, 1892.

- *MORGAN, GERARD EDWIN. 1853. Born at Harrisonburg, Va., January 7, 1828; son of Rev. Gerard Morgan. Removed to Baltimore; pupil of Dr. G. C. M. Roberts; M.D., Washington University, Baltimore, 1852; Vaccine Physician, 1853-54 and 1859-60; Assistant Surgeon, U. S. Volunteers, 1861; Assistant Health Commissioner, Baltimore, 1862-65; Commissioner, 1865-67; a Founder of Baltimore Medical Association, 1866, and the first President, 1866-67; Vice-President. Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, 1874. Died at Baltimore, December 1, 1874.
- MORGAN, WILBUR PHELPS. Born in Jefferson County, W. Va., February 25, 1841; son of Rev. Nicholas John Brown Morgan, D.D. M.D., University of Maryland, 1862; Acting Assistant Surgeon, U. S. A., 1862-63; Surgeon, Ninth Maryland Regiment, 1863; Assistant Surgeon, Board of Enrollment, Third and Fifth Districts, 1864. 315 West Monument Street, Baltimore.
- MORGAN, WILLIAM T. 1833. M.D., University of Maryland, 1833. Of Leonardtown, St. Mary's County, Md. See lists of 1848 and 1853.
- *MORISON, ROBERT BROWN. 1875. Born at Baltimore, March 13, 1853; son of Nathaniel Morison, Provost of the Peabody Institute. M.D., University of Maryland, 1874; studied at Vienna; Lecturer in the Spring Course, University of Maryland, 1877; Physician to the Union Protestant Infirmary, 1882; Physician to St. George's Society, 1883; Lecturer on Dermatology, Woman's Medical College, Baltimore; Professor of Dermatology and Syphilis, Baltimore Polyclinic, 1884; Dermatologist, Johns Hopkins Hospital and Dispensary, 1889-93; President, American Dermatological Association, 1893; Specialist in Dermatology. Died September 30, 1897.
- MORRIS, JOHN. 1845. Born in Lancaster County, Pa., February 6, 1824. Educated at Lancaster Academy; settled at Baltimore, 1841; pupil of Drs. F. E. B. Hintze and S. Annan; one course at Washington College, Baltimore, 1845-46; Licentiate Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland (by examination), 1845; L.M., Rotunda Hospital, Dublin, Ireland; Member of the Legislature of Maryland, 1852-56; Member of the School Board of Baltimore, 1856-57; Orator, Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, 1854; Postmaster of Baltimore, 1857-61; Member of the City Council, 1867;