

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY

the Delaware County Medical Society for three years; Vice-President, State Medical Society of Pennsylvania; Editor, New Jersey Medical and Surgical Reporter, 1848, The Sanitary Commission Bulletin, Transactions of the Association for the Cure of Inebriates, and Quarterly Journal of Inebriety. Last entry in Polk's Directory, 1890.

✓ PATON, STEWART. 1897. Born at New York, 1865. A.D., Princeton, 1886; A.M., 1889; M.D., College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, 1889; Visiting Physician, Bayview Asylum; Assistant in Neurology, Johns Hopkins Dispensary; Associate in Psychiatry, Johns Hopkins University; Director of Laboratory, Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital. 213 West Monument Street, Baltimore.

PATTERSON, FRANCIS W. 1877. Born at Saulsbury, Conn., February 4, 1835; removed to Lorain County, Northern Ohio, 1837. Educated at Elyria High School, 1848-52; later, at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O.; pupil in Medicine of his uncle (Dr. R. J. Patterson, Columbus, O.); attended Starling Medical College for two years; third course at the Medical College of Ohio, Cincinnati, where he took M.D., 1859; began practice at Elyria, O.; Assistant Physician, Mississippi State Lunatic Asylum, Jackson, Miss., 1859; Private, C. S. A., 1861; Assistant Surgeon and Surgeon, C. S. A., 1861-65; settled in Baltimore County, Md., 1865, where he practiced for several years; gradually withdrew, devoting himself to farming and stock raising; United States Inspector, Contagious Diseases of Animals, 1886-90; extensive investigations of bovine tuberculosis, etc.; resides at Catonsville, Md.

✓ *PATTERSON, JOHN H. Born in 1817. M.D., University of Maryland, 1837; partner of Dr. A. Alexander. Died at Baltimore, May 25, 1893.

*PATTERSON, WILLIAM. 1828. Born in 1802. M.D., University of Maryland, 1826. Died in Frederick County, Md., 1876 (Q.). See list of 1848.

✓ *PATTISON, GRANVILLE SHARP. Born near Glasgow, Scotland, 1791. Educated at the private school of Dr. Allan Burns; Demonstrator of Anatomy, Andersonian Institution, Glasgow, 1810; Professor of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery, Andersonian Institution, 1812; emigrated to Philadelphia, 1818, and opened an anatomical school there; Professor of Surgery, University of Maryland, 1820-