

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY

burgh and Paris; began practice at Snow Hill, 1860; Physician to County Almshouse; Health Officer, Worcester County, 1896-97; author of work on "Chemical Analysis," 1878; Vice-President, Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, 1900-01. Of Snow Hill, Md.

*PURNELL, JAMES R. S. 1831. Son of G. W. Purnell, Founder. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1830; Member of the Legislature, 1848. Of Worcester County, Md. Died of typhoid fever, 1848.

*PURNELL, JOHN. Founder. 1799. Born at "New Fairfield," Worcester County, Md., September 24, 1765; son of Major William Purnell. Practiced for a time in Virginia, moving later to Maryland; M.D., probably at the College of Medicine of Philadelphia. "Mr. John Purnell of Maryland" read before the American Medical Society of Philadelphia, January 27, 1787, "Two Cases of Hepatitis" (Packard, p. 374). "A very cultivated gentleman." Died at Snow Hill, December, 1800. (A son, John Robins Purnell, became a physician and moved to Alabama, where he died without descendants. John Purnell Moore, Mayor of Snow Hill, is a great-grandson of this Founder.)

*PURNELL, JOHN G. 1816. Brother of Chesed Purnell. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1815; practiced in Worcester County, Md.; left there about 1825 and settled in Texas. Archives.

*PURNELL, JOHN ROBINS. 1831-32. Born in Worcester County, Md.; son of the Founder, John Purnell. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1819; practiced in Worcester County, Md., and Accomac County, Va.; about 1839 removed to Selma, Ala., where he died, without descendants, about 1860-65.

*PURNELL, ROBERT JENKINS HENRY. 1816. Born in Worcester County, Md., December 14, 1786; son of William Purnell. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1811; practiced in Worcester County and died there, August 13, 1825.

*PURNELL, WILLIAM. 1816. M.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1811. Archives.

*QUEEN, WILLIAM. 1816. Born at Bladensburg, Md., 1793. Educated at Georgetown College; said to have graduated in medicine "at the Baltimore School;" Censor, Charles County, Md., 1831 and 1840. "A man of eminence and learning." Died at Bryantown, Md., March 1, 1869, æt. 76.