GENERAL SUMMARY.

MONDAY.

It seems that Weston acquitted himself very creditably in his recent attempt to walk 2,000 miles and deliver 50 lectures in 2,000 hours in England, and that he would undoubtedly have won if he had not met with extraordinary ill-luck. He was greatly hampered by crowds, and the roads were always in fearful condition, and yet he had twenty hours wherein to walk sixty-five miles at the finish. Victory was within his grasp when he was completely prostrated by excitement and nervousness.

General Bradley T. Johnson and J. Murray Forbes, Esq., of Fauquier county, Va., were arrested in Richmond, Friday, and placed under bonds on a charge of being about to engage in a breach of the peace. The difficulty originated in angry words between the two gentlemen in court during the trial of the case of the Commonwealth against Gen. Johnson, in which Mr. Forbes is assistant counsel on the part of the State.

Dr. John M. Woodworth, surgeon general of the United States marine hospital service, died yesterday, in Washington city, in his 42d year, of a combination of pneumonia, erysipelas and nervous prostration. It is understood that his successor will be appointed from the ranks of the surgeons in the marine hospital service, in accordance with the method of promotion adopted in such cases.

Competent persons estimate the total sugar crop of Cuba at 600,000 tons, an excess of 150,000 tons over the last crop. The quantity of the tobacco crop in the Vuelta Abajo region is difficult to estimate. The leaf is middling large and of fine quality. The Remedios crop has been secured, and amounts to about ninety thousand quintals.

Prof. Tyndall says that no fresh scientific discoveries are now needed to make electric light of general application to large places. It remains now for mechanical skill to carry out the work.

The suit of the proprietors of a paper called Our Country for $20,000 damages against the Utica (N. Y.) Observer for calling Our Country a swindle, resulted in a verdict for the Observer.

TUESDAY.

Victor Sanez, who murdered Luis Rascon in October, 1877, to obtain his wife and property, was hanged at Pueblo, Colorado, Friday. Several thousands of people were present. He declared his innocence to the last, and met his death with stolid indifference. His neck was broken instantly. This was the first execution under the laws of Colorado.

Lloyd Lowndes, Sr., father of Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, Jr., of Cumberland, died at his home, Clarksburg, West Va., Friday last, aged 79 years. He was a man of considerable wealth, including mineral lands in West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

The flood in Hungary is subsiding. Of 9,700 houses in Szegedin all except 261 were destroyed. It is variously estimated that from 2,000 to 4,000 persons were drowned during the inundation.

The garrison in British Burmah has been reinforced in view of impending danger to foreign residents.

Hussars and infantry are held at Blackburn, England, to suppress possible violence by striking weavers.

The French radicals say that the Waddington ministry must go. A Gambetta ministry is next in order.

The gossips are wondering why Gladstone was not invited to Prince Arthur's wedding.

The Spanish Cortes has been dissolved and a new election ordered.

WEDNESDAY.

Both branches of the Forty-sixth Congress convened in extra session at noon yesterday. In the Senate the newly elected Senators were sworn in. The credentials of Hon. Charles H. Bell recently, appointed United States Senator from New Hampshire, were laid on the table until to-day. After the appointment of a committee, to act with one from the House, to wait on the President and inform him of the organization of Congress, the Senate adjourned until to-day.

The House was promptly organized by the election of the Democratic caucus nominees Hon. Samuel J. Randall, speaker; George M. Adams, clerk; John G. Thompson, sergeant at arms; Chas. W. Field, doorkeeper; James E. Stewart, postmaster, and Rev. W. Harrison, chaplain. The vote for Speaker stood: S. J. Randall 141, J. A. Garfield 125, H. B. Wright 13, and W. D. Kelly 1. Mr. Randall was then sworn in and delivered an address, in which he expressed heartfelt thanks for this renewed evidence of approval and confidence. After the appointment of a committee to wait on the President, in conjunction with one from the Senate, the members drew for their seats and the House, at 4 o'clock, adjourned until to-day.

The second day's trial of the breach of promise suit at Washington, of Mrs. Oliver against ex-Senator Cameron, was taken up by a discussion of the admissibility of certain testimony, and by continued evidence of Mrs. Oliver. She related the story of her life and adventures, and a sensation was produced in court by General Butler confronting her with her long lost husband, Thos. M. Oliver. She recognized him, claimed that she lived with him as his wife he already had a wife, and consequently her "marriage" with him was not valid.

A scientific examination of the "sulphur" which fell in a shower Monday, over the Lehigh valley proves it to be simply the pollen from a species of pine caught up by the wind and carried from Southern New Jersey forests.

THURSDAY.

In the United States Senate yesterday bills were introduced to reimburse the several States for interest paid on loans; authorizing the local taxation of legal-tender treasury notes; to reorganize the army of the United States, and authorizing the President temporarily to transfer the control of certain Indian tribes from the Interior to the War Department. Mr. Beck introduced bills for the removal of all political disabilities under the fourteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States, and for the repeal of the act of July, 1862, imposing what is generally known as the iron-clad oath. Mr. Edmunds offered a preamble and resolution having in view the limitation of the business of the extra session of Congress to the purpose for which it was called; objection being made, the resolution went over. Mr. Wallace offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for detailed statement of expenses of marshals in the elections in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, and Maryland in 1878; this also went over. The President's message was then read, the standing committees announced, and the Senate adjourned.

In the House, the resolution to swear in Mr. Hull, democrat, from the second district of Florida was adopted by a vote of 140 to 136, the republicans and greenbackers with one exception, voting into the negative. Mr. Bisbee, republican will contest the seat. After the reading of the President's message the House adjourned.

FRIDAY.

The proceedings of Congress yesterday were devoid of interest. The Senate, after the reading of the journal, adjourned until to-day. In the House, the petition of certain democratic voters of Cincinnati in regard to the election of Benjamin Butterworth and Thos. L. Young, Congressman from that city, was referred to the committee on elections, with an amendment from the republican side to have the workings of the supervisors' law in Cincinnati inquired into. The House then adjourned.

The funeral of Gen. Thos. W. Sherman, United States army, was solemnized from Trinity Episcopal Church, at Newport, R. I., yesterday. The forces from Fort Adams and Newport Artillery, the latter escorting Gov. Van Zandt and staff, formed near the church, Gen. Coogen R. H. Jackson, United States army, being in command of the line. The casket enclosing the remains was borne by six sergeants from Fort Adams to and from the church. The church was filled, when the usual Episcopal service was read, but no remarks were made. The funeral cortege then marched to the cemetery, while minute guns were fired from the fort. Three volleys of musketry were fired over the grave.

Jules Ferry education bill, which is directed against the Jesuits, is the pending political question in France. An Italian paper, denouncing the bill, says the republic has become the negation of liberty, and it has therefore no reason any longer to exist.

Bismark's protective tariff policy is gaining ground in German parliamentary circles.

A Roumelian mob was lately suppressed by Cossacks and Bulgarian militia.

The fair of the Washington County Agricultural Society is to be held Oct. 21, 22, 23 and 24.
