TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A SMALL FARM AND WOOD LOT.

By virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Howard County, in Equity, I will offer at Public Sale on Tuesday, December 30, 1879,

at 12 o'clock M., on the premises, all the estate of which the late Nicholas Hammond died seized, being the farm on which he resided at the time of his death, situated 2½ miles from Ellicott City, on the Public Road from the Ellicott City Depot to Savage, containing about 90 acres, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to said Nicholas Hammond by Dorsey Dorsey and wife by deed dated March 1st, 1869, and recorded among the land records of Howard County, in Liber W. S. No. 40, folio 72, &c., which Mortgage was duly assigned to the undersigned trustee. Will offer at Public Sale on the premises, at the time and place above mentioned, the following described property:

Saturday, January 3, 1880, at 12 o'clock M., all that property described in said Mortgage and situated in the village of Savage in Howard County, bounded on the east leading from the Washington Pike into Savage and adjoining the property of Mrs. Ann Dorsey, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed by said Dorsey and wife by deed dated March 1st, 1869, and recorded among the land records of Howard County, in Liber W. S. No. 40, folio 74, &c., which Mortgage was duly assigned to the undersigned trustee. Will offer at Public Sale on the premises, at the time and place above mentioned, the following described property:

The World for [illegible]

Democrats everywhere should address themselves earnestly to the work of their party throughout the country, now in its first year of their Republican failure to do this in 1876 contributed to the loss by the Democracy of the Victory fairly won at the polls.

The year 1880 promises to be one of most interesting and important years in our country's history. A Presidential election which will establish the Government of the United States on the principles of its constitution, or in permanently changing the form of the States to the Federal Union, will take place. The World, the English newspaper, described in New York, which has been the most editorial journal in the world, will do this in a manner it will not be forgotten easily by the people. The World, being the cheapest and most complete and reliable newspaper, will be read by the millions of people in this country and the world. It will be as heretofore, at a cost, the best of all that it publishes. No man, however, shall ever be permitted to say that he has been unjustly dealt with in the columns of The World. No interest, however powerful, shall ever be permitted to silence the fair voice of The World.

During the past year The World has its daily circulation trebled and its weekly circulation pushed far beyond that of any other newspaper in the country. This increase has been won, as The World believes, by truthfulness, enterprise, activity in collecting news and a loyalty to itself and to its readers, with the questions of the day. It will be our endeavor that the record of 1880 may be written in addition and the support of many thousands of new readers in all parts of the Union of the United States.

THE BALTIMORE GAZETTE
FOR 1880.

It would hardly be fair to repeat again alarming information that a Crisis is approaching in Political affairs but we honestly believe that the next Presidential contest in this country will determine the question of popular Government. It is to be pure and simple a struggle between centralization on one side and Constitutional Government on the other.

The Republican party has started out with the assumption that this is a Nation of Imperial forces and that the war determined that the States are merely geographical conveniences. In this platform they threaten to nominate a candidate for President whose tendencies are undemocratic and whose instincts are not on the side of simple, Republican rule.

THE GAZETTE believes that the war settled the question that a majority of the people are opposed to any dissolution of the Union; that the right to local self-government is as distinct and as clearly defined as it was before the war; that the Union created by the Fathers was not changed by the war, and that our system should remain unchanged. THE GAZETTE proposes to take an active part in the next Presidential Campaign. It will battle for Democratic principles and for the candidates who may be nominated on a sound Democratic platform.

THE GAZETTE is a plain-speaking newspaper, always marked by the courage of its convictions. Its views on public questions and public men are always understood by those who have a fair knowledge of the English language.

THE DAILY GAZETTE is a daily epitome of passing events. All news of a local and general character is gathered from far and near and given place according to its value and the interest which attaches. Condensation and condition in force is the motto in the make up of THE DAILY GAZETTE. In the matter of telegraphic news and correspondence THE GAZETTE is always fresh, alert and comprehensive. During the year improvements and changes will be made which will afford greater facilities for serving our patrons.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is a folio sheet, of the size and make-up similar to the New York containing a large amount of reading matter especially written and prepared for it. As in the case of the daily the weekly will be largely devoted during 1880 to the discussion of the questions so vitally interesting to the people.

It is the duty of every citizen to keep himself in the [illegible] through the medium of the press [illegible] city of every good Democrat to [illegible] newspapers which maintain sound principles—newspapers which have a certain voice and no lack of earnestness.

Terms of subscription: DAILY GAZETTE: 50 cents [illegible] months; $3 for six months, postage prepaid. WEEKLY GAZETTE: 50 cents for two months; $1 for twelve months, postage prepaid. Address

By Universal Accord,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use, by Physicians in their practice and in all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative Pill that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other Pill can be compared with them, and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain it in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effectual, they are specially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the safest physic to employ, and the most efficacious [illegible]
