CONFERENCE.—The Conference of the M. E. Church commences in Wilmington, Delaware, on the 25th inst.

APPOINTED.—Julius A. Johnson, Esq., formerly of Easton, but a few months a resident of Baltimore, has been appointed Book Keeper, in the City Collector's Office, under Wm. T. Valliant, at a salary of $1000.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—The Secretary of the Navy has ordered the steamers Niagara and Mississippi to be equipped with dispatch, to assist in laying down the Atlantic telegraph.

ADDITION TO THE CENSUS.—Mrs. Russell, Simpson county, Kentukey, recently gave birth to three boys, the least of which weighed four pounds. The father and mother were of adverse political sentiments, so the boys were named Henry Clay, Daniel Webster and Lewis Cass.

DUEL BETWEEN WOMEN.—The Louisville Democrat says a duel between two ladies is on the tapis in that city. A formal challenge is known to have been passed and accepted, though the weapons and distance have not been named. As will be readily imagined, a "gentleman" is at the bottom of the quarrel.

FARMS FOR SALE.—Read the advertisement of R. H. Spencer, Esq., in another column. His farm is delightfully located, and offers superior inducements to purchasers.

Also, read that of Mr. James Parrott.—His farms are eligibly located and in fine condition.

STEALING PAPERS.—We consider it no better than down right stealing in a person to take a paper from the door of the subscriber, and keep or appropriate it to his own use. We have heard of several of our town subscribers who lose their paper in this way. We will give a handsome reward to the person who will inform us of the thief, should such a thing occur again. The State's prison should be his doom.

THE AMERICAN PARTY.—In all parts of the State, we observe that the true spirit of Americanism is alive, and that the party is preparing for a vigorous and successful campaign. The State Council meets in Baltimore on the first day of April next, in which it is to be hoped all the counties of the State will be fully and well represented. We are informed this convention decides the place and time of meeting of the Convention which nominates the candidates for Governor and State officers.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS.—On our first page will be found the Inaugural Address of Mr. Buchanan. He points out in it the course he intends pursuing, and distinctly avows his intention not to become a candidate for re-election. For this reason, he says he will use his own judgment in the management of affairs and not cater to the feelings and prejudices of the people—a tacit admission that his predecessors have been influenced more or less by this sort of feeling, in order to promote their prospects for future and more extended honors.

WILD HUNT AFTER OFFICE.—The Administration has signified that the principle of rotation in office will be carried out, especially in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and all the large cities. In consequence thereof a general wild hunt after the "spoils" is made. And those who were most bitterly opposed to the nomination of Mr. Buchanan are now the first to fawn around him and plead for mercy and for office. This democratic party is indeed a wonderful institution: and passing strange that people will not see its duplicity and hypocricy.

JOHN G. BRESLIN—PASS HIM AROUND.—A correspondent in the Centrevill Sentinel, from Tiffin, Ohio, holds up the above gentleman as of rather a notorious character. Mr. Breslin is the Cashier of the Bank at Greensborough, or is in some way connected with said Bank. He was the late Treasurer of Ohio. At the time of the expiration of his official term the records of the State exhibited a deficit in the Treasury of over $200,000, which has not been accounted for, but for the recovery of which the Attorney General is about to institute suit on his official bond. We always regarded the Greensborough Bank as a bogus and rotten concern and this convinces us more that it is nothing but a swindling institution whose operators and financiers are little better than a Huntingdon or Edwards.

DEMOCRATIC ASPIRANTS FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP.—The aspirants on this side of the fence are becoming quite numerous.—Did they but know the inevitable doom that awaits their party in the State next fall, they would not, we opine, suffer their names to go down to posterity with such an unheard of defeat.

THE DRED SCOTT CASE.—The Supreme Court of the United States have decided that the Missouri Compromise was unconstitutional, and that a colored man cannot be a citizen of the United States. All the Judges concurred in this decision except Judges McLean and Curtis, whose opinions are directly to the reverse. We hope now that the agitation of the slavery question may be set at rest by this decision. It is, we have no doubt, the death knell of the democratic party, as that party has for several years past lived upon and kept together by the agitation of this question. Now, since the vital spark of its existence has been extinguished, it has no means of getting up an excitement and therefore must wither and die.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN THE MAILS.—We understand that the Post Office department has determind to establish a mail from the Delaware Rail Road to this place in connection with the evening train in addition to the one now running in connection with the morning train; by this means the mails from Baltimore will reach here several hours sooner than by Elkton, and the delay of a whole day at Wilmington, to which letters sent by that route from Baltimore are now subjected, will be avoided.—The mails will now all come by Wilmington and the other by Elkton.

This arrangement has been effected, without diminishing the number of mails heretofore received at any office, by simply discontinuing the stage from Easton to Wye Mills, where the travel had ceased since the opening of the Delaware Rail Road and extending the Smyrna route from Hillsborough to Easton, where the travel is constantly increasing. The mail from Trappe to Cambridge was discontinued some time since for the same reason. Under the new arrangement the stage will leave Smyrna at 7 P. M. instead of 12 M. Thus connecting with the trains which leave Baltimore at 11 A. M., and Philadelphia at 1 P. M.

The hour of starting from Easton will be 7 P. M. instead of 7 A. M., reaching Philadelphia the next morning at 11 A. M.

Passengers will thus be able to go to Philadelphia and return with the loss of only one entire day, instead of three as at present. There will also be a saving of one day in the time required to visit Baltimore, which will be still farther reduced when the connection is made between the middletown Rail Road and Elkton direct.

The daily mail will also be extended to Oxford, thus affording an opportunity for passing and repassing along the entire line of the Maryland and Delaware Rail Road, by which the construction of the road will be greatly facilitated. As soon as this road is opened to Greensborough, which we understand will certainly be effected during the present season, we shall be able to go to Philadelphia and return the same day, and to leave Easton for Baltimore at 3 P. M. and reach there the same night. We understand that Mr. Wm. H. Dundas, whose efficiency as 2d assistant P. M. General has long been known to the whole country has been engaged in remodelling the routes on this peninsula to conform to the trains on the Md. and Del. Rail Road, and we hail this as a foretaste of still greater benefits which we shall derive from the introduction of Rail Roads.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

BURGLARY.—Some unknown villain entered the Grist Mill of Henry M. Nicols, Esq., in the Chapel District, on Sunday night last, and stole therefrom a bag of meal.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The members of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Trappe have determined to remodel their church building, and add to it a basement story, with class rooms, &c.

We also, understand, that the members of the Methodist Protestant Church, at St. Michaels, intend tearing down or selling their old church and building a new one in its stead.

HANDSOME PRESENT.—The Ladies of Easton, a few days since, presented Mrs. J. Brisbane with a beautiful silver castor.

UNION AGAINST WALKER.—According to a correspondent of the New York Times, it is proposed now to form a union between Southern Nicaragua and Costa Rica against filibusterism. The inhabitants of the former State have consented to the plan. The South Pacific States, it is said, give it every encouragement and if it proves successful the transit route will then be altogether under Costa Rican control.

HORRIBLE DISASTER.—The residence of Mr. J. B. Peters, at Beemerville, Sussex county, N. J., was destroyed by fire on last Monday night, and three children were burned to death. The farther was awakened by the smell of the burning timber, and made every effort to save his children. The charred remains of one, a boy 17 years old, were found the next day. The fire originated from a spark from the chimney.

MYSTERY ABOUT TO BE SOLVED.—A paper published in Florence, Italy, states that manuscripts have been found within the walls of the fortress of Pianeral, where the "Man of the Iron Mask" was for eleven years a prisoner, which will solve the problem of his identity.

New York Correspondence.

NEW YORK, March 6, 1857.

After a blessed oasis of almost summer weather, we have a miry, howling wilderness of a week. It began with a heavy fall of snow, which turned on Monday into a blinding storm, and has ever since been melting away, little by little, filling the air raw exhalations. Meriam is up at Albany, and the clerk of the weather is as bewildered and helpless as a ship without a rudder. He changes his mind every day, and gives us instalments of winter, spring and summer, almost in the same breath.

The week has been rather a dull one here as Washington is just now the magnetic point, both for business men and pleasure seekers. The wholesale business generally has been very quiet, though there has been considerable animation in that peculiar food of the Gentile, by Turk and Israelite alike abhorred. Sausage meats, however, have fallen considerably, as the damp weather has driven a vast number of rats from their hiding places in the wharves, which animals are slaughtered in great numbers by small boys. The new tariff is the principal subject of discussion at present among parties interested in the manufacture of dry goods. It seems to give very little satisfaction, except indeed to the manufacturers of carpets and low woolens generally. It is not generally thought that the reduction on cotton and woolen fabrics is sufficient to stimulate importation to any great extent.

We have nothing exciting on the docket now, in the criminal way. Rev. Uriah Morvine, the clergyman who married Mrs. Cunningham and another party, seems now to be struck with a decided conviction that the other party was Dr. Burdell himself, and not Eckel. He says the latter idea was "preached into him" when he came to testify before the Coroner's jury. Mrs. Cunningham has now a fair chance of obtaining the widow's portion of Dr. Burdell's estate, and the chances are that she will so soon enjoy it in freedom and with a vindicated character. She may be guilty, but who has a right to judge her on the testimony now offered. Coroner Connery has gone up to Albany to see about the attempt which has been made to procure his removal.

RIVINGTON.

THE NEW CABINET.—The Cabinet is composed of the following gentlemen, to wit:

Secretary of State, Lewis Cass, of Michigan.
Secretary of Treasury, Howell Cobb, of Ga.
Secretary of War, John B. Floyd, of Va.
Secretary of Navy, Isaac Toucey, of Conn.
Secretary of Interion, J. Thompson, of Miss.
Postmaster-General, A. V. Brown, of Tenn.
Attorney-General, Jere. S. Black, of Pa.

The Attorney General-ship was tendered to Charles O'Conner of New York, but he positively declined.

THE NEW SENATE.—The following is a list of the members who will constitute the United States Senate for the next two years, and to whom the appointments of the new President are to be submitted for confirmation:

APPROPRIATIONS BY CONGRESS.—It has heretofore been stated that the civil and diplomatic bill, which passed Congress at its late session, appropriated $1,000,000 to the Washington aqueduct, and $500,000 for the new dome to the aqueduct. Among other items embraced in that bill are the following:

Capitol extension $900,000; extension of the general post-office, $200 000; erection north front of patent office, $200,000; agricultural department and distribution of seeds, $75,000; preparing saloon for reception of models, &c., $50,000; flooring basement, repairs, &c., patent office, $8,000; drawings report commissioner of patents, $6,000; casual repairs of patent office, $3,000; insane of District of Columbia, $20,000; improvement of grounds of asylum in do., $5,000; Washington infirmary, $3,000; manure for public grounds, $1,000; carts on public grounds, $1,000; tools used in public ground, $500; trees and treeboxes, $5,000; for information respecting the consumption of cotton, $3,500; annual repairs of the capitol, $6,000; annual repairs of the President's house $6,000; fuel for President's house, $1,800; lighting President's house, $27,000; books for library at executive mansion, $250; repairs of bridges, $6,000; reparing of Pennsylvania avenue, $3,000; public reservation No. 2, and Lafayette square, $3,000; ground south of the President's house $3,000; circle at intersection of P. and N. H. avenues, and P. and Twenty-third streed, $1,500; shoveling snow, $500; repairs of water pipes, $500; improvement of Judiciary square, $5,000; improvement of the botanic garden, $1,000; grading and planting unimproved portion of the mall, $10,000; repairs of furnaces, $500.

The naval bill contains the following appropriations.—For the Washington navy yard, $119,018; for the magazine, $4 800; United States observatory, $8,000; wages of employees in do., $3,160; naval academy at Annapolis, $42,307.

THE DEATH OF SHEPARD IN KANSAS.—The body of W. T. Shepard, who was killed lately at Lecompton, reached St. Louis, on Monday last, on its way to Virginia.—The following card appears in the St. Louis papers:

ST. LOUIS, Mar. 2, 1857.—The under-signed request a suspension of public opinion relative to the affray in Kansas, resulting in the death of William T. Shepard, Esq.—A full statement will be published, and upon it we confidently appeal to a generous public.

One of us is an old college friend of Mr. Shepard, another has kown him for years in Missouri, the other two are near kinsmen. In common with his family in Virginia, we had rather see him now, a corpse, than to know that he lived branded with dishonor. And, as his reputation is all that is left, we will take care of it.

Respectfully, WM. M. COOKE,
JOHN M. SHEPARD,
JAS. W. SINGLETON.

HOW LAGER BEER ORIGINATED.—Many years ago, a shoemaker, in a small town near Bamberg, Germany, sent his boy to get a bottle of Bamberg beer, (small beer,) which was sold in that place, but the boy not knowing this, went to the city itself. On returning he met an acquaintance of his, who told him when he would come home his "boss" would whip him for staying out so long. The poor boy, who was frightened at this, thought it better not go home at all, but took his bottle, buried it under a tree, and ran away. He then went among the soldiers, where he distinguished himself, so that in a short time he became an officer.—When one day his regiment was quartered in this small town, the officer thought it proper to pay a visit to his old boss, with the bottle of beer which he had buried some years ago under the tree. When he entered, he said, "Well, sir, here I bring you the bottle of Bamberg beer, that you sent me for." The shoemaker, not knowing what this meant, was told by the officer all about it. The bottle was then opened, and the beer found to be of a superior quality.—When this fact was known, some of the brewers built deep vaults, where they put theirs in, and called this, after it had lain there sometime, lager, which means nothing more than lying. The officer afterwards married the daughter of the shoemaker, and drank a good deal of lager beer, receiving in that occupation the assistance of his father-in-law.

THE CHINA WAR.

A Steamer Attacked by Junks—An Englishman Kidnapped—Position of Americans—Threatened Destruction of Whampoa, &c.—One of the small postal steamers was attacked between Canton and the Bogue by a large fleet of mandarin junks, and had a narrow escape from capture. The pilot and one of the crew were killed and two others wounded.

Mr. Cowper, Sr., a British subject, father of the enterprising owner of the Whampoa docks, has been kidnapped and no trace of him has yet been obtained. Some attempts have been made to injure the ships of war by sending down on them boats filled with gunpowder; but no harm has yet been done. Some rebel bands have lately taken possession of a large village near Whampoa, which was their head-quarters in 1854. Although calling themselves rebels they are mere banditti, and their object is plunder. They have been warned against interfering.

At Hong Kong there have been no disturbances, and measures have been taken for the public safety.

WASHINGTON, March 8.

The Collins Line—Probable Fate of the Dallas Treaty.—Nothing was done at the late session of Congress with regard to the ocean mail contract of the Collins line of steamers, and the object will therefore go over to the next session. It is understood that the line will continue its trips during the summer at least at the reduced rate of $19,252 per trip. The steamers, however, will run slower, and thus make up in a measure for the loss of government pay.

The Dallas-Clarendon treaty is generally believed in reliable quarters to be dead.—Mr. Buchanan, it is known, is opposed to it in its present shape, and it is semi-officially whispered will discountenance any treaty that may be proposed with reference to Central America.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 7.

Duel at Mobile.—A duel took place today at Mobile, between Mr. Nixon, the editor of the Crescent, and Mr. Breckinridge, of the Courier. At the second shot Breckinridge received a ball in his left thigh, which was broken. Nixon was unhurt.

WASHINGTON, March 6

Duel at Washington.—Thomas J. Munday and Mr. Bredford, both of New York, in consequence of an affray at one of the principal hotels of this city on Saturday, fought a duel yesterday afternoon. Shots were exchanged but neither was hurt, and the difficulty was then amicably adjusted.

NEW YORK, March 8.

Interview between Lord Napier and New York Merchants.—A deputation of the Chamber of Commerce of this city waited upon Lord Napier, the new English minister, yesterday, extending a warm welcome to him. Lord Napier replied feliciously, after which he was introduced to many of our prominent citizens.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS—EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ERYSIPELAS.—MRS. Emma Rowecroft, aged 42, of St Paul's, Minnesota Territory, suffered severely from periodical attacks of erysipelas in the face, to which she appeared to have a constitutional predisposition. In July last she had a return of the complaint, with unusually violence and dangerous symptoms, and under the advice of a friend from New York, obtained a lot of Holloway's Ointment, and applied it according to the directions. The result astonished as delighted the unfortunate sufferer and her family. The inflammatory symptoms subsided; the redness faded in the course of a few days to a yellowish hue, and the cuticle or scurf skin, on the parts affected, came off in the form of a whitish scurf. A second box completed the cure, leaving neither scar nor blemish on the face. The Pills are as efficacious in subduing internal disease, as the Ointment is in removing all external disorders.

WHITE TEETH, PERFUMED BREATH AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION—can be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed

THE EASTON FOUNDRY IN FULL BLAST.

THE Farmers of Talbot and adjoining counties are respectfully informed that my FOUNDRY on the front street, at the lower end of the town, on the road leading to Trappe, Easton, is now in full operation, where all kinds of casting for the farmers can be done at the shortest notice, and in the most satisfactory manner.

I have on hand, and intend keeping a full supply of the following articles:

Plows and Plow Castings of all kinds; Harrows, Cultivators, &c., which will be sold at Baltimore prices for Cash.

I have been at great expense to fit up a Country Foundry, I hope the farmers will give me a liberal patronage, and spend their money at home instead of sending it abroad. Nothing will be undone to give entire satisfaction.
