ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Mrs. Hannah Benson, late of Anne-Arundel County, who deceased in the Year 1752, are desired to make immediate Payments: And those who have any just Demands against the said Estate, are desired to bring in their Accounts, that they may be adjusted, by Henry Griffith, Administrator.

RAN away from the Subscriber, the 20th of November last, living on Patuxent River, near Upper Marlborough, in Prince George's County, a dark Mulatto Man, named Sam, about 5 Feet 9 or 10 Inches high, about 30 Years of Age, a Carpenter by Trade, has a down Look, and low Voice. Had on when he went away, a new Cotton Jacket and Breeches, and Osnabrigs Shirt; he is supposed to have taken with him, one Cotton Coat lined with blue, one red Waistcoat and Breeches, one blue Silk Coat, one light Cloth Coat, some fine Shirts, and one or two good Hats. He is supposed to be lurking in Charles County, near Bryan Town, where a Mulatto Woman lives, whom he has for some Time called his Wife; but as he is an artful Fellow, and can read and write, it is probable he may endeavour to make his Escape out of the Province.

Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and secures him so as his Master may get him again, shall have, if taken out of this Province, Three Pounds; and if within this Province, Forty Shillings, besides what the Law allows, paid by William Digges, Junior.

FINE SALT, just imported from Liverpool, in the Ship Unity, Captain Birch, to be sold cheap for Paper Money or Bill of Exchange, at Oxford, by Wholesale.

Henry Callister.

RAN away on Monday the 10th of this Instant February, a likely, young, dark, Mulatto Fellow, named Peter: Had on when he went away, a Felt Hat, a Country Cloth Waistcoat and Breeches striped, a Pair of Leather Breeches and white Yarn Stockings.

Whoever takes up the said Fellow, and secures him so that his Master may have him again, shall be rewarded with One Pistole, besides what the Law allows, 2 Henry Gassaway.

TWENTY-FOUR PISTOLES REWARD.
To all Sheriffs, Constables, and other Officers, where this Hue and Cry shall come.

KNOW ye, That you are hereby authorized and commanded, to raise sufficient Assistance, and make diligent Search for, seize, and apprehend, the following Felons and Robbers, that is, Edward Pryce, Servant of William Ringgold, near Chester Town, a likely, well-set, lusty, smooth-faced Fellow, with grey Eyes, a Blacksmith by Trade, is an Englishman, dressed in a new Snuff-colour'd Coat of good Broad Cloth, lined with white Tammy, red Plush Breeches, a grey cut Wig, and is well dressed every other Way.

Thomas —, Servant of John Gwavis, a lusty, well set, smooth-faced Fellow, with grey Eyes, and thick Lips, well dressed, a Miller by Trade, and a West-Country Man.

And John Roberts, Servant of Capt. Nathaniel Marsh, of Chester Town, a tall slim Fellow, pitted with the Small Pox, and has a very large black Beard, and stoops a little in the Shoulders.

These Fellows, last Night, broke open the Store of Capt. Marsh, in Chester Town, and took away all his Wearing Apparel of all Kinds, and sundry small Articles of Goods, as Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Stockings, and many other Things. The Coat, Breeches, Wig, and other Cloaths, on Edward Pryce, belong to the said Capt. Marsh. As they had Variety of Cloaths with them, all their Dresses cannot be so well described. They attempted several other Robberies and Felonies the same Night, and resisted an Attempt to take them, and went off. This Hue and Cry, therefore, is directed to go from Constable to Constable, from Hundred to Hundred, and from County to County, and all People are hereby required and commanded to take, seize, and to Justice bring, the said Felons and Robbers: And it is further declared, for Encouragement, that the said Masters will give Two Pistoles Reward for each of the said Servants, if taken and secured in any Goal, so that they may be got back, and brought to Justice. Given under the Hands of us the Subscribers, two of his Lordship's Justices of the Peace for Kent County, in the Province of Maryland, this 9th Day of February, 1755.

B. Hands,
John Williamson.

And the said Nathaniel Marsh, being the greatest Sufferer, promises Two Pistoles extraordinary.

The Fellows are all Convicts.
A Subscription is also made up by some Gentlemen of Chester Town of Sixteen Pistoles more, which will be paid to the Apprehenders of those Villains, by Virtue of this Advertisement, by Thomas Ringgold.

They stole a Canoe, and went across the Bay to Baltimore, and 'tis thought will make for the Obis. The Officers on that Expedition are desired to have them apprehended, if they come to enlist.
