NEWS ITEMS.

Three locomotives and five cars "jumped the track" near Cleveland, Ohio, Tuesday, and ran into a couple of saloons, demolishing themselves and the lower portions of the houses, and making the sleepers above jump out of bed as if the end of the world had come. A brakesman on one of the cars had his back broken and died.

It is stated as a fact, known to but few, perhaps, beyond his own family, that Mr. Peabody has just given fifteen hundred thousand dollars to be divided among his relatives, in sums varying from fifty to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; thus being his own executor while living, instead of his leaving a legacy of law suits to his friends after his decease.

A colored man, named Thompsen, was choked to death in New York on Sunday by a piece of meat lodging in his throat while eating supper at the house of a friend.

A Connecticut Yankee has cleared his house of rats by catching one and dipping him in red paint. He then let him loose, and other rats not liking his looks, left immediately.

The latest "swindling" dodge in New York is to leave a dozen bottles of mineral water at a private house, as if they had been ordered, and collect four dollars on them, said dozen bottles being worth only one dollar and seventy five cents.

A Chicago dispatch of Friday to the Cincinnati Times says: "A telegram was this morning received from John Morrisey, authorizing a draft of $200 for the relief of his sister, who is starving here."

A partial census of Mississippi reveals a decrease of two and a half per cent, in the white population and thirteen per cent. in the black.

The Meadville (Penn.) Republican denies the statement that there is but one soldier of the Revolution living, and says that there is in Sandusky, Cattaraugus county, New York, an old Revolution soldier, Mathias Bakeman by name who draws a pension from the Government.—He was born in 1755, and is therefore 111 years old. His wife, who was one year younger than himself, died about three years ago; and his daughter, fourscore years and more, keeps house for him. The old man enjoys remarkable good health for one of such advanced years, and walks to the village, half a mile from his residence, every two or three days. On each Fourth of July he takes his old fowling piece and goes out into the woods where he blazes away a salute in honor of Independence Day.

On Friday of last week a band of seven or eight men raided upon McLeed's Station, about twenty miles beyond Bowling Green, on the Memphis branch road, and plundered the store of Mr. Watson. In retracing their way a young lady was grasped by one of them and threatened with instant death if she did not tell them where they could find the balance of Watson's money. Though last in the grip of the ruffian and a pistol at her head, she steadily refused to disclose the secret. The robber was so abashed by her firm deportment that he relinquished his hold and passed on. The girl at the time held in her dress-sleeve $200 or $300 of the coveted money. The rogues were white men disguised as negroes.

The Cincinnati Gazette says: "It has been stated that the Hon. John Bingham in several speeches made during the campaign pledged himself to move the impeachment of the President at the approaching session of Congress.—This is not correct. What Mr. Bingham did say was, that while the President in his opinion deserved impeachment, he would only make the motion for impeachment if Mr. Johnson should officially assert what he he had unofficially proclaimed that Congress was an illegal body, unlawfully assuming the functions of legislation."

CHANGED HANDS.—We see by the Easton Journal of Thursday, that A. Brown, its former proprietor, has disposed of his interest in that paper to Messrs. Lewis A. Leonard and Alpheus Townsend, two young lawyers of our town. In their introductory remarks, their readers are assured that the Journal shall always avoid "personalities in controversy and endeavor to preserve a becoming courtesy to our cotemporaries of all parties." This is very gratifying, for such a principle has heretofore been a stranger to the Journal. We hope our young friends will meet with much pecuniary success, and find their task an easy one.

MAIL FAILURES.—On Monday and Tuesday nights, the mail due here from Federalsburg did not arrive. The community was kept in suspense until Wednesday night when the back mails, with that of Wednesday's arrived. This failure is said to have been caused by Dover Bridge being impassable. We presume the Department will very soon have the matter investigated.

DEATH OF AN ESTEEMED CITIZEN.—Mr. John Talbott, a citizen of Baltimore, died in that city on Wednesday last. Mr. Talbott has been a resident of this town for a number of years up to a few weeks ago, when he moved to the city.—Mr. Talbott was much esteemed as a good citizen and for his honesty of purpose.

SOLON ROBINSON'S NOVEL.—Solon Robinson, the veteran Agricultural Editor, has written a novel for the New York Weekly Tribune. The publication will commence on the fifth of December.

PERSONAL.—During the past three months, our health has been so feeble that it has been with difficulty at times, for us to walk and frequently confined to the bed, as we have the misfortune to be at present. This affliction has prevented us from giving strict attention to business, but we hope soon to be so far recovered as to again be at our post.

ITEMS FROM WASHINGTON.—The dailies give items of interest from Washington, which run up to Wednesday night, from which we take the following extracts:

"Not over thirty members of Congress have as yet arrived. The Republican caucus will be held on Friday night. Enough has been developed to show that no steps toward the impeachment of the President will be made for some time, but the first action will be to press the law limiting the Executive power of removal from office; requiring all appointments made during the recess of Congress to be sent to the Senate within ten days after the passage of the bill. The Senate can then reject such as are obnoxous In the meantime the Committees of Investigation will examine into the New Orleans riot, &c. to see exactly what can be proved.

The President's Message will not be really to be sent out before Sunday. Advance copies of all other reports will go North and West on Sunday.

Secretary McCulloch's report was sent to the printers to-day.

The Secretary of the Navy's, General Grant's and the Secretary of War's are in tipe.

The Postmaster-General's and the Secretary of the Interior's will be in tipe on Friday.

It was remarked by Chief Justice Chase in regard to his late interview with President Johnson, that they discussed politics for some time, each one trying to convince the other that he was wrong, neither succeeding, and the President showing no disposition to retrace, change, or modify his steps.

STEALING ON A LARGE SCALE.—For several weeks past many of the farmers of this county have been loosing cattle, sheep, hogs, &c., and all efforts to detect the robbers have hitherto failed. Dr. T. G. Wroth, near Worton Heights, lost about two weeks since, some half a dozen cattle, including a yoke of steers, and others in the same neighborhood have suffered to a less extent. But the boldest and most extensive undertaking of the kind that has come to our knowledge, was the attempt on Sunday night last, to steal from Mr. David Clements, near Centreville, a flock of some thirty sheep. Mr. C. missed the sheep early Monday morning and tracking them through the gate into the public road, followed on in pursuit, and overtook the flock with two boys driving it, near Shallcross' wharf, on Sassafras river, some five or six miles from Mr. Clements' residence. The boys are aged respectively about fourteen and sixteen years, and sons of Isaac Snitcher, well known in this community, and now said to be residing at Crumpton. The boys state that their father drove the sheep out of Mr. Clements field about two o'clock Monday morning, and told them to take them to Shallcross' landing and ship them on the steamer Commerce for Philadelphia, he taking another route for that city.—The boys were arrested but afterwards released on security. A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of Snitcher, but he has not yet been apprehended. The fact the steamer touching at Shallcross wharf about mid-day, makes this one of the most glaring cases of thieving that has ever occurred in this county.—Kent News.

Extensive Capture of Stolen Goods—Over $400 Worth of Dry Goods Recovered.

For a long time past our leading merchants on Baltimore street have suffered seriously by the peculation of a class of thieves known as "shoplifters," whose operations have been so shrewdly managed as in most cases do defy detection. Prominent among the numerous sufferers has been Mr. George H. C. Neal, the extensive dry goods dealer at 97 W. Baltimore street, whose losses have been so extensive that he found it necessary to set a watch upon those entering the premises, for the purpose if possible of breaking up the system of thievery. On Saturday morning last the party "on watch" noticed a German woman enter the store, who inquired for silk velvet, and whilst the clerk was searching for the article, he discovered the woman secreting a balmoral skirt, valued at $5, beneath her shawl. He immediately accosted her, and having recovered the stolen property, turned her over to the custody of policeman Burnett, who, having discovered her place of residence, determined to search her house. A search warrant was procured, and Sergeant Richard Pryor was detailed, with officer Burnett, to prosecute the search. They proceeded to the house of the woman, who gives the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Bearlepp, at No. 217 E. Fayette street, and having searched the premises, succeeded in finding an immense stock of small articles of dry goods, valued in all at over $400, all of which had doubtless been stolen at different times. Upon summoning a clerk from Mr. Neal's establishment, the following goods were identified as having been stolen from that store: One skirt valued at $5; 13 yards of calico, at $5.16; 14 yards poplein, value $12.60; 5 yards silk, value $17.88; 16 yards blue silk, value $24; 14 yards plaid silk, value $17.50; 6 yards skirting, value $8.13; 7½ yards organdie, value $13.75; and other similar articles amounting in value to $105.70.

Other articles valued at $7.50 were also identified by Royston & Co., corner Tripelett's alley and Baltimore street, and returned.

In addition to the above there were found 187 yards of silk, muslins, calicoes, cloths, the velvets, and innumerable small articles, such as slippers, gaiters, shawls, handkerchiefs, ribbons, gimps, laces, and, in fact, almost everything known to the trade, all of which are held to await identification at Marshal Carmichel's office. They are valued at about $300. The accused, after an examination, was released upon $5,000 bail for the grand jury.—Baltimore Commercial.

"THE Camp, the Battle-field and the Hospital" or Lights and Shadows of the Great Rebellion, is the title of a handsome volume, just issued by the National Publishing Company, 507 Minor Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The Author Dr. L. P. Brockett, has delved most industriously among the masses of curious incidents which have marked the late war, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout is vouac, siege and battle field adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work like literary art.

It is just such a volume as will find numerous purchasers, and just such a one as persons seeking to act as book agents should add to their list.

The President's Duty.

The Richmond Whig says, in an article on the situation:

What Mr. Johnson will do, we do not know. The fact is, we do not see what he can do. His role is a difficult one. He appealed to the people, and the people—of the North, at least—repudiated him and his policy. We use plain language, and call things by their right names, for there is no use in attempting to gloss them over. Should this rejection of Mr. Johnson and his policy be final, and should he "cave in," the South will, in all probability, be no more the looser than she would be if he adhered to his present policy. It would be a mere mental adhesion, for he would be without the power to enforce it.

Suit Against General Butler.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A suit has been commenced before the Supreme Court by John H. Lester against General Butler, charging him with false imprisonment (damages laid at $10,000), and with fraudulent conversation of property (damages $50,000). Lester received a free pass from Secretary Stanton, during the war, to bring his family North. General Butler disregarded the permit, and imprisoned him. Notices of the suit were served.

The Proposed Annexation of Canada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A special to the Herald from Toronto, says that the Rev. J. A Altan preached last evening in the Episcapal Cathedral at Kingston, to a large audience in favor of annexation to the United States; and also, that a meeting be called in Montreal to discuss this project. The people of the Lower Provinces greatly desire it.

BLACK AS A CROW,

a few years since, was many a splendid head that is now gray or grizzled. Why not restore to the yet unwrinkled brow its raven honors? Five minutes effects the splendid transformation. In less time than a rifleman would take load and fire three times, the grayest head may be made darker than the Raven's Wings. No matter of what undesirable tint the hair or whiskers or beard may be, the change to a superb and perfectly natural black or brown is accomplished by one application of Christadoro's Hair Dye, without staining the skin or injuring the filaments. Manufactured by J. Cristadoro, 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. [nov 17-1m]

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion.—By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadel every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. SCHENCK'S Principal Offic, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A HUMBUG.—How often we hear this expression from persons reading advertisements of Patent Medicines, and in nine cases out of ten they may be right. It is over 19 years since I introduced my medicine, the Venetian Liniment, to the public. I had no money to advertise it, so I left it for sale with a few druggists and storekeepers through a small section of the country, many taking it with great reluctance but I told them to let any one have it, and if it did not do all I stated on my pamphlet, no one need pay for it. In some stores two or three bottles were taken on trial by persons present. I was, by many, thought crazy, and that would be the last they would see of me. But I knew my medicine was no humbug. In about two months I began to receive orders for more Liniment, some calling it my valuable Liniment, who had refused to sign a receipt when I left it at their store. Now my sales are millions of bottles yearly, and all for cash. I warrant it superior to any other medicine for the cure of Croup, Diairhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Vomiting Spasms, and, sea sickness, as an internal remedy. It is perfectly innocent, take internally, see oath accompanying each bottle and externally for Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Mumps, Frosted Feet, Bruises, Sprains, Old Sores, Swellings, Sore Throats, &c., &c. Sold by all the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. oct 6-1y

DISTRIBUTIONS.

We would call attention to the opinion of one of the leading papers of Canada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read some of the numerous advertisements of Gift Enterprises, Gift Concerts, &c., which appear from time to time in the public prints, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them. In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few respectable firms who do business in this manner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money. From such firms, it is true handsome and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more important, no one is ever cheated. Every person gets good value for his dollar; because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business.

We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by Sherman, Watson & Company, of Nassau Street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost. But this is only one of the exceptions of this rule, for as a general thing the parties engaged in this business are nothing but clever swindlers.

AGENTS WANTED
FOR THE MOST POPULAR
And best Selling Subscription Book Published.

WE are the most extensive publishers in the United States, (having six houses,) and therefore can afford to sell books cheaper and pay agents a more liberal commission than any other company.

Our books do not pass through the hands of General Agents, (as nearly all other subscription books do,) therefore we are enabled to give our canvassers the extra per cent, which is usually allowed to General Agents. Experienced canvassers will see the advantages of dealing directly with the publishers.

Our series embraces the most popular work on all subjects of importance; and is selling rapidly both North and South.

Old agents, and all others, who want the best paying agencies, will please send for circulars and see our terms, and compare them and the character of our works with those of other publishers. Address,
