Republican Meeting.

The Republicans of Talbot county are requested to meet at the Court House, in Easton, on TUESDAY, the 19th of Oct. inst.,

at 2 o'clock, to consider the expediency of nominating a County ticket for the approaching election.

C. R. MULLIKIN,
C. H. MANSFIELD,
S. T. HOPKINS,
Central Com. for Talbot county.

LOCALS.

☞ A very large number of the ladies of the city of Baltimore have published an appeal to the ladies of the different counties of the State, soliciting their aid in inaugurating, some where in Maryland, an asylum for the inebriate of our State, known as the "Maryland Inebriate Asylum." To bring this matter squarely before the ladies of Talbot and to give all a chance to take their part in the noble undertaking, and which none other can engage in with the feeling of an earnest love for their fellow-beings, equal to woman, they are requested to meet at the Court House, on Saturday, the 16th inst., and we have no doubt many a sad heart will ere long be made glad when their mission of charity shall have been accomplished, and thousands who are now vagabonds and pests to society shall have been restored to the bosom of their families and made useful members of society. We gave the ladies who waited upon us the assurance that the address should appear in the Gazette this week, but we afterwards found it impossible, which we very much regret.—The ladies of Talbot are earnestly and affectionately appealed to to solicit pecuniary aid, and the meeting on the 16th, is intended to organize a system whereby the most effectual means can be used to secure the greatest amount of funds. We hope a large number will be in attendance.

ACCIDENT.—A little son of L. J. Catron, Esq., met with a serious accident while at school yesterday. It seems the little fellow during recess in the afternoon climbed up on a ladder that stood against the school house, and in attempting to jump down, fell and broke his arm. He was at once taken home, and we hope to hear of his rapid recovery.—Journal of Thursday.

At the time the accident occurred all the physicians of the town happened to be off on professional duty, but at night on their visiting the patient it was found necessary to amputate the arm just above the elbow. There was a fracture near the wrist and the wrist joint dislocated. At the elbow the joint was severed and the ends of the bones protruded through the flesh. The amputation was performed by Drs. Anderson, Willson, Chamberlaine and Earle. The little fellow is about nine years of age and fortunately, it was his left arm that was injured. On Thursday he was doing well.

INDEPENDENT TICKET IN CAROLINE.—We see by the Denton Union of Thursday that there is a ticket in Caroline county called the "Independent Citizen's Ticket," composed of Republicans and Democrats, as follows:

For Sheriff—Alexander Stewart. For the Senate—R. J. Jump. For the House—John Nicols, George B. Bryant. County Commissioners—Jos. Mobley, Bennet Todd, Wm. B. Massey, Sulverel Mathew J. Clark. This is said to be a strong ticket, and a portion of it at least, will no doubt be elected.

☞ In our notice of the tournament last week, we omitted to say that the Trappe Band was employed for the occasion. In performance gave much life and cheer to the large assemblage. The Trappe Band is unsurpassed by any on the Shore and its members deserve much credit for keeping up the association.

☞ The trial of Wm. H. Potter, white, of Cecil county, for the shooting of Wm. Fisher, colored, for leaving while at service in his white field, has been thought to a close, and Potter set at liberty. There was no evidence except colored, consequently the murderer was turned loose unpunished amid the pleading and congratulations of his friends in the court room.

☞ Owing to the press of advertising this week, our quantity of reading matter is very limited. Several articles which we desired to publish have been excluded for want of space.

WITHDRAWN.—Two of the nominees on the Democratic ticket of Caroline county have declined to serve.

COUNTY MEETING.—It will be seen by notice in another column, that the Republicans of the Republican extra Committee of the various districts of the Republicans of the county, will meet at the Court House in Easton on Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock, to determine upon nominating a County ticket. Every Republican in the county ought to be present in order that a free expression of opinion can be had upon the subject.—It is to be hoped that every district in the county will be fairly represented.

NEW MILLINERY GOODS.—Mrs. E. A. Lynch, corner of Front and Dover streets, has just returned from the city with the largest assortment of all sorts of Millinery goods ever before kept by her. In the selection of her stock great care was used as to neatness and durability, and she invites her customers and the ladies generally to give her a call.

NEW GOODS! Just received at

Cheezum & Coe',

Grace,

Powell & Weighter,

Thompson & Kersey.

☞ THE Democratic Convention, which met on Thursday, nominated on the third ballot Col. Levin Woodford, of Somerset county, as their candidate for State Comptroller. Col. Woodford is at present the clerk of the Circuit Court of Somerset county.

☞ THE communication of "Tyre" was not handed in until Friday morning, which was too late to give it room this week.

MANHOOD.

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is called of and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much confined to give rest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Society, and nothing their more dread, for fear of discovery, so Reserved of manner, so timorous, so Sensitive, that a sharper transition from one question to another

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

MAXIMS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

When a business man reaches the point where he thinks he can not afford to stop long enough to examine sources of financial and commercial information, he may safely conclude that his business is not well managed.

When a business man finds himself in a financial situation so embarrassing that he cannot afford to possess every publication that will throw some light upon his business relationship, he should not delay an hour, but arrange at once with an Agent or be close out his stock to the highest bidder.

The above Maxims are taken from the columns of THE NEW YORK MERCANTILE JOURNAL which is the best as well as one of the largest mercantile newspapers published in the United States. Its market reviews are carefully revised lists of Jobber's prices, embracing almost every saleable article of merchandise, together with 101 judicious editorials, all more than thirty-five (35) appearing every week. W. T. VALENTINE,

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred in two patients; reason had for a time left them, and oth died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Should any say that these excesses are not frequently followed by these direful diseases Insanity and consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or griefover visits it. Should a sound of the voice come, it is rarely articulate.

"With mouldering mourners was Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguile."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

OBER.—On the 1st inst. near St. Michaels, Mr. Nicholas Orem, aged 70 years.

The deceased was converted in his seventeenth year, and united with the M. E. Church, of which he was a devoted and useful member until God took him to his glorious reward. Realizing both the presence and power of his divine Master, he was always engaged in the cause of his own dear home, hallowed communion with heaven, and though a great sufferer, he was always cheerful and resigned to the will of his heavenly Father. He was one of those quiet christians that talked very little, having a poor opinion of himself, but he was strong in faith, giving glory to God. He was deep and unfaltering. He was a useful citizen, especially tried in the poor and needy. In his death the church and community have lost a valuable member, and the light of a precious family has been extinguished. He was a devoted husband and affectionate father. He delighted in making his family happy, he prayed for and expected the conversion of his children and lived the sweet joy of knowing they were all gathered in the church of Christ before he left them. The last and dying chamber was truly the house of God, and the gate of Heaven. He died in the triumph, and so sweet and impressive the exemplars he left behind, that it was delightful and profitable to be present with him. The last day he labored on the Sacred writing, as he said, for home, with ever live in the memory of the writer. In the morning of his precious family (although about that in said to his companion, my dear wife, I am almost home; farewell my dear, till we meet in heaven; then taking each one of his dear children by the hand he affectionately committed them into the hands of God, saying children, my God, children, farewell; praying your affections to Jesus, who is in heaven. To each member of his family he gave an affectionate farewell. Give my love to all my friends. Tell will a heavenly inheritance, that we never will be forgotten by the [illegible] who will [illegible] and farewell; farewell to the christians. Pray be with me. During the day though suffering greatly, with a heavenly smile he would say, "sweet peace," frequently "farewell till we meet again," "Glory to the Lamb," "Thy will be done," and when the stroke of death deprived him of his sight, his mind still active, he said to the writer, "I cannot see you, but I know your voice, "I see Jesus." Death was his glorious triumph, until early evening, when raising his right hand in token of victory, without a struggle, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, leaving a widow and five children to mourn their great loss who purpose to meet him in Heaven. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. T. E. B.

QUESTIONS ASKED AND ANSWERED.

—OR—

WHY do the people flock to M. M. HIGGINS' of late and buy his SUGAR, COFFEE, &c.?

Because he is selling them CHEAPER than they can elsewhere be purchased.

WHY is HIGGINS selling so much BACON, LARD, FISH, CHEESE, FLOUR, (by the barrel as well as by retail,) Salt, Tobacco, Crackers, &c.?

Simply because he has proven his ability and intention of selling them a little later lower than any one else.

Why is it that Higgins is obliged to keep twice as large an assortment of

BOOTS AND SHOES

as last year; and also be constantly replenishing his stock?

Only because the public are finding it to their advantage hugely to buy of him, where they may without parly, be positive that they are saving from 25 to 50 cts. on each pair of Shoes or Boots they buy of him.

How is it that Higgins can afford to sell cheaper than others, his goods being purchased, perhaps, of the same houses?

Because his store expenses are very light and he aims to be as economical as possible.

Are the above questions answered? If so, let every body call and see if they are answered truly, and if truly, then let all so convinced benefit themselves thereby.

He can be found at his old stand, Cor. Washington & Dover Streets.
