The Star of Peace

Saturday Morning, Jan. 1, 1870.

[illegible]

A Happy New Year.—The Democrat wishes its [illegible] every one of the house with a happy new year to all. We hope business will take a new start, social circles will be more widely extended brotherly love be extended from one to another and bickering and strife of all kinds be cast behind among the things that were. We hope the young men among us will take up new courage, buckle on the armor of faith and enter into life with a determination to live uprightly, and be guided by a spirit of justice to all men.—This with these virtues for their determined to succeed in whatever they may undertake.—Every [illegible] should have a laudable ambition to be respected of all good people [illegible], and a determined spirit to push through difficulties. The surmounting of one obstacle will doubly renew the strength to overcome the next. A youngman cannot be too careful in his self dependence too early, for as habits are formed in the child, so they are formed in the young man, and nothing produces more bad habits, terribly wicked habits, than idleness. There are more men that rust out from idleness than there are worn out from use,—then let the young men in the year 1870 think for themselves—try to excell in energy and make find the Editor their mother.

Opening of the "Brick."—On Tuesday night last, Mr. J. C. Norris, celebrated the re-opening of the "Brick Hotel," by giving a supper, at which a large number of guests were invited. His table was loaded with terripins, oysters, and all the delicacies of the season, and liquors of the best brands, and those present—some forty in number—from this and other countiesand from Delaware, can attest to the splendid style in which Norris attends to the wants of his guests. This Hotel is now in complete order and in the first ro, the Shore. After the cloth was cleared a number of toasts were drank, which were responded to by Messrs. Col. Hambleton, Surgeon Pinkney, Dr. W. G. G. Wilson, I. C. W. Powell, C. H. Gibson, A. A. Towasend, Dr. James H. Anderson, D. B. Griffith and David Knotts. The entertainment passed off pleasantly. Other distinguished gentlemen were invited. Among them was Mayor Banks, of Baltimore city, like a number of others, owing to a press of business was unable to attend, but extended to Mr. N., his best wishes for success as the following letter will show:

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
CITY HALL,
Baltimore, Dec. 24, 1869.

Mr. Jas. C. Norris—Dear Sir:—Your kind invitation of the 22d is before me, and regret that official engagements will prevent my attendance.

Wishing you a brilliant opening with all the success you can possibly desire, I am,
Very truly, your friend,
ROBERT H. BANKS.

☞ Have you seen the simple, cheap, durable and very substantial contrivance for a fence now on exhibition opposite the Brick Hotel?—If not, it will pay you well to examine its many advantages for a fence, and you will be better paid by purchasing the right to make and use the said invention if you have land or territory to sell to others. Some of its principal advantages—

First—it needs no posts; second, it costs only a little more than half the price of a post and board fence; third, it can be built under cover in stormy weather, and put up at pleasure.—When made two men can put up or take down, without injury, forty or fifty pannels in one hour; fourth, by using this kind of fence a farmer does away with most of his inside fence.—He only needs them where he pastures and this kind of fence is so readily and easily moved it can be quickly shifted for that purpose; fifth, it is all made of inch lumber, and in separate pannels, and when made, the same pannels without alteration, will make a straight, worm, zigzag, square, or circular fence.

The Fire Cracker Nuisance.—Those who are in a kind but firm argument against the introduction of the Chinese immigration to this country will find the in the probable increase, by such addition to our population, of the importation and use of fire crackers and other cheap explosives. The holidays, in the towns at least, are made almost intolerable by having our ears harassed by reports of small paper artillery, and rattle of lilliputian musketry, the manufacture of that ingenious people. We begin to dread the very approach of our national or religious fire days. A kind of nervousness possesses us several days in advance of each fourth of July or Christmas, anticipatory of the actual suffering in store for us. What will be our condition when our Confusian and Buddhistic brethren add their days of celebration to ours—when ten packs of crackers will explode where one does now? Our ante then will be one of absolute distraction. We shall fly to the woods and the waters for relief.

☞ We would suggest to the proper authorities, business men, and others interested whether any more laudable enterprise could be attempted than the improvement of the streets and sidewalks of Easton. During the past week our streets and most of our sidewalks have been literally covered with mud to the detriment and annoyance of all foot passengers. The crossings are just as bad and it appears that no person thought nothing should be done. Why, for instance, could not front street be shelled from the Point road? We feel sure that shells could be obtained for little or nothing, and many of our citizens would cheerfully give teams for hauling free of expense. We should thus be relieved from mud in winter and dust in summer, besides the annoyance of wet feet, colds and other ailments. This might be done by subscribing if not otherwise, and it would pay.

☞ We understand our friend Henry T. Maloney, Esq., late of this county, has received the appointment of Court Clerk in the office of the City Court of Baltimore. This is a high and responsible position and is unmeasurably in the county will be highly gratified to learn of his promotion to a station he is so well qualified to fill. We wish for a number of years in the Circuit office of this county, and gratify the wishes of all by the accuracy, promptness and efficiency continually displayed by him in the performance of his duties.

What has become of the projected town clock?

☞ We have received the Courier, of this morning, [illegible] subscribers. Those not wishing its continuance need have no hesitancy in notifying the publisher of the fact, though we do say desirable on his part to extend its circulation to double its present number. We are unable to say just [illegible] the Courier will be enlarged very soon [illegible] arrange it that it shall contain as much reading matter as some of the larger papers and to pay strict attention to its mechanical appearance, and local interest. We hope our friends will give us a helping hand in the prosecution of this work, for we intend to spare neither time nor pains.

A Union Protracted Meeting

Will commence on Sabbath evening, January 9th, in the Methodist Protestant Church, in Easton, in which the pastors and members of the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, South, and Methodist Protestant Churches, will unite in prayers and labors for the salvation of the perishing among us.

These meetings will be held in the Methodist Churches alternately—continuing one week in each, during which services will be suspended in the other churches, that all may with "one heart and one soul," come "to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

A union meeting for special prayer will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday evening, the 7th inst., to which we affectionately urge the members of our respective charges to be present, to join with united hearts in prayer for the divine blessings upon our coming efforts.

W. Kennedy, Pastor M. E. Church,
D. Evans Rehse, Pas. M. P. Church,
J. L. Shipley, Pas. M. E. Ch. South.

Fine Oxen.—Among the stock sent off over the rail road on Thursday morning last, by Messrs. Hardaway & Fooks, were two oxen, purchased of Mr. Wm. B. Dulin, which weighed 3520 lbs. One of them was a very fine sized animal and had he been fat would no doubt have weighed 2500. The way cattle, hogs, poultry, &c., are leaving us at present we shall soon have a very great scarcity and we think farmers would do well to give more of their attention to the raising of stock, poultry, etc., for the city markets.

Five other very fine oxen with the cattle, sheep, &c., were sent to the city market by these gentlemen on the same day, and the seven weighed 10310—averaging nearly 1500 a piece.

Arrested for Horsestealing.—On Wednesday last a man by the name of Joe Deaver was arrested by Constable Larrimore, on the charge of stealing a horse and mule from Anne Arundel county. The horse was stolen last April from a gentleman by the name of David T. Thomas, on the Washington Branch Rail Road, and the mule from a colored man in the same neighborhood. Both the horse and mule have been identified and restored to their owners. Deaver had a hearing on Wednesday before Esquire Stewart and was committed to jail. Deaver is originally from Anne Arundle county, but has been residing in this county for the last two or three years. Both the horse and mule had been sold to different parties when identified.

New Firm.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that Jas. H. Grace and John T. Rathell, Esqrs., have formed a co-partnership. Mr Grace is one of our oldest merchants, and Mr. Rathell has been in his employ as clerk for about 11 years. He is a young man thoroughly and favorably known in this community for his amiable and accommodating disposition, and strict business habits. We bespeak for the new firm a very liberal patronage as they express themselves determined to please.

Fire.—The Fodder house of Mr. Jno. Wiman, in Bay Side, in this county, was consumed by fire on Saturday night last, and entirely destroying all his blades, corn caps, &c.

The fire broke out about 6 o'clock, and is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.—Judging from the position of the fire when it was discovered it is believed to have been set on fire on the inside and it was only by the energy and perseverance of the neighbors that his carriage &c., was saved. Loss about $100.

Accident from Powder.—On Tuesday last, while a small boy, son of Edward Floyd, was amusing himself by pouring powder out of a bottle, said to contain about one and half lbs., the stream of fire, like electricity, flashed up into the bottle, exploding it with a tremendous crash, terribly burning and mutilating the boy's person. He is still living, but is not expected to recover. Persons having powder or firearms about their premises cannot be too careful with them.

☞ Some persons strangely advocate specie payment, others as strangely oppose it and insist on our present greenback and National bank currency. On this subject we are disposed to take the broadest and most liberal view, and we would therefore say to those who are indebted to us that we will thankfully take greenbacks, bank notes or even specie itself.

Accident.—On Tuesday last Mr. Charles Van Winkle was precipitated about 16 feet by the falling off a scaffold, at the depot building now in the course of erection at this place. It is fortunate that he escaped with his life or without serious injury as he fell on his head. One of his arms received the greatest injury and gave him great pain.

Right of Way.—We notice a paragraph in the Baltimore Sun which states that the land owners on the line of the Baltimore and Potomac Rail Road have given the right of way through their lands, free of charge, to the Company.—This course is indicative of a due appreciation of such public improvements on the part of the people of the Western Shore.

Masonic.—At the communication of Coat's Lodge, No. 162, A. F. and A. M., held on the 29th ult., at their Lodge room in Easton, the following officers were elected for the present term: [illegible] A. W. Hopkins, S. W. Warden; [illegible] Warden; R. Thomas, Treasurer; [illegible] J. Tilghman, Secretary.

Death of Mrs. McCullough.—Mrs. Rebecca B. McCullough, [illegible] of the Clayton Herald, at Milford, Del., died at the residence of her father, Rev. J. B. Ayres, Germantown, P. She was a lady of remarkable energy, intelligence and self-reliance, and had an extensive reputation as an editress.

☞ A [illegible] boy got a solitary three cent Bunker bill, now there are seven stores, a [illegible] establishment, besides a [illegible] elected within the [illegible]

☞ Office of the [illegible] of Saturday, Jan. 1st, [illegible] will be closed.

Death of Mr. Stanton.—Since our last issue intelligence of the death of another of the great men of the country has been received. Edward M. Stanton is no more. He died in Washington on Friday of last week very suddenly.—There was no one during the war that did more [illegible] in the support of the Government than Mr. Stanton.

☞ The enterprising contractor of the Md. & Del. R. R. Company, contemplates establishing a telegraph line between this place and Clayton, Del. Let our citizens by all means encourage the movement.

QUESUIONS

ASKED AND ANSWERED.

WHY do the people rush to M. M. HIGGINS' of late and buy his SUGAR, COFFEE, &c.?

Because he is selling them CHEAPER than they can elsewhere be purchased.

Why is HIGGINS selling so much BACON, LARD, FISH, CHEESE, FLOUR, (by the barrel as well as by retail,) Salt, Tobacco, Crackers, &c.?

Simply because he has proven his ability an intention of selling them a little mite lower than any one else.

Why is it that Higgins is obliged to keep twice as large an assortment of as last year; and also be constantly replenishing his stock?

Only because the public are finding it to their advantage (hugely) to buy of him, where they may without party, be positive that they are saving from 25 to 50 cts. on each pair of Shoes or Boots they buy of him.

How is it that "Higgins" can afford to sell cheaper than others, his goods being purchased, perhaps, of the same houses?

Because his store expenses are very light and he aims to be as economical as possible.

Are the above questions answered? If so, let everybody call and see if they are answered truly, and if truly, then let all so convinced benefit themselves thereby.

He can be found at his old stand,
