LOCALS.

CALDWELL'S ADDITION.—Saturday last was the most lively day Eastonians have witnessed for some time past. It was the day set apart for the drawing of town lots in Caldwell's Addition. For the accommodation of those at a distance a special train was put on and about 12 o'clock the depot, hotels, &c., were alive with people. Great interest was taken in the drawing by the community generally and the short period is looked forward to with much pleasure, when those lots must be built up with dwellings and places of business. Every man, woman and child in the town should encourage such a spirit. If it cannot be done by money, let those who cannot do more, assist it by a word of encouragement. As there is a prospect of the road being carried to a point beyond Easton, in a very short time, it is to the interest of the people in this community to make this the attractive point.—Surround the depot with factories, shops and different kinds of business and the effect will soon be seen in all parts of the town. Let those who have drawn lots commence at once. The following are the names of the parties who drew the lots and the number of the lots drawn:

NATIONAL MEDICAL JOURNAL.—We have received the first number of a new medical journal published in Washington city, of which our quondant fellow-townsman Dr. C. C. Cox is the editor. We are pleased to be able to substantiate the commendatory remarks of the publishers, with reference to the skillful physician and accomplished writer whom they have placed in charge of their journal, and to say with them that they are fortunate in securing the services of a gentleman, as Editor, whose scientific as well as literary reputation is so favorably endorsed both in Europe and our own country, and whose well known medical attainments furnish the strongest guarantee of the success of the publication." We notice that Dr. Cox has been able to enlist the assistance of a very distinguished and able corps of contributors, whose communications must possess more than ordinary value to men of the medical profession. We feel ourselves quite incapable of appreciating most the contents of the present number, as the subjects of which they treat are out of the line of our reading and reflection, but there are some articles quite intelligible to the laity, and these we have read with satisfaction. The article on the "Vitality of American Women," gives us some startling revelations as to the effect of excessive mental exertion during the early years of the life of females, and indeed of males also. The conclusions to which the writer arrives are these:

1. A child should not enter the school room for the purposes of study before eight years of age,

2. From eight to twelve no studies involving close reasoning should be allowed. The hands, feet ears, eyes, and body generally should have careful instruction.

3. From twelve to fourteen, health should be the first object. All else subservient.

4. At fifteen, education should begin in earnest, to be completed generally at twenty, or professionally at twenty five.

Not less startling than the contents of this article is the simple fact that it was written by a professor of the Howard University, a school for young men of the African race, but it is not apparent that the writer is a colored man, though we believe he is not.

The article on Meteorology, seems a little out of place in a medical journal, yet we have no doubt atmospheric and climatic conditions and changes have a direct relation to health and disease. It affords us, however, an opportunity to mention that this article was read before a recently organized association styled "the American Union Academy of Science, Literature and Art," of one of the departments of which, viz: the Department of Archaeology, Geography and Civil History," our highly esteemed fellow townsman of past time, John Bozman Kerr, Esq., is the President, and the very capable President, as, we who are acquainted with him, well know.

Of the strictly professional articles it does not become us to speak who are so little capable of estimating them. They seem to be well and thoroughly conceived and clearly written. Some of them are illustrated with wood engravings and diagrams.

To gentlemen of the medical profession who would keep themselves well informed upon matters connected with their calling we take the liberty of commending this journal. There is no science nor art in which it is so necessary for its cultivators and practitioners to be informed of its most recent teachings and technics, as the science and art of medicine, for there is none in which the progress of discovery or what is presumed to be discovery, is so rapid, and changes if not improvements are so frequent. The physician who is not read up to the day, is antiquated in his opinions and practice.

The National Medical Journal is for the present published quarterly, in numbers of not less than 128 pages, at three dollars a year. It is beautifully printed on clear white paper, and its editorial management in connection with its list of distinguished collaborators, give assurance to its readers of its being one of the most able in the medical periodicals of the country.

TRAPPE ITEMS.

Some thief or thieves made a raid upon the Smoke House of Mr. S. S. Hopkins, one night last week. The lock was broken, but it is suppose the thieves were frightened away, as Mr. Hopkins did not miss any meat.

The Smoke House of Mr. David Kerr, Jr., was also broken open on Wednesday night, and several hundred pounds of meat stolen therefrom.

Mrs. Margaret Reed, wife of W. P. Reed, Esq., died on Saturday last, after a short illness.

On Monday night last, a lecture was delivered to the colored people, at their church, on the advantages of emigration

HELMBOLD'S COLUMN.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1868.

Allow me to call your attention to my

Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.

The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small portion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle,) leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist? In this, you have the knowledge of thy ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist, of 16 Years' Experience.

(From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World)

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise."

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

Is the great specific for Universal Lassitude, Prostration, &c.

The constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity ensues.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu,

In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, or the decline or change of life.

Helmbold's Fluid Fxtract of Buchu and Improved Rose Wash

Will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superceding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu

In all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant to taste and ordor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthing than any of the preparations of Bark and Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to effect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
