The Eastern Gazette,

Saturday Morning, June 25th, 1870.

The Gazette is published

EVERY SATURDAY MORNING

BY

WILLIAM H. COUNSELL,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE, or, TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the second month after the failure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

ADVERTISEMENTS

[illegible] and TWENTY-FIVE CENTS for each subsequent insertion. Longer notices in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements unmarked with the number of insertions desired will be published until forbid, and charged accordingly. Business and other notices in the Editorial columns, will be charged double rates. All communications not connected with the business of the office must be paid for. All orders addressed to the Editor will receive prompt attention.

LOCALS.

☞ Rev Barnum H. Nadal, [illegible] president, since the death of Dr. McClintock, of the Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison N. J., departed this life at 6 o'clock, Monday morning, last. His death was very sudden and entirely unexpected as letters were received by himself Saturday which contained no allusion to his illness. Dr. Nadal was an able minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a warm personal friend of Pres. Lincoln a ripe and finished scholar, and a superior educator. His death will be felt throughout the Church of his Choice. We understand that he opened a portion of his early life in this county, and that he has relatives still living among us.—He was fifty five years of age.

☞ The farmers are having most delightful weather for saving their wheat and hay. The weather has not only been clear since harvest commenced, but there has been several days of fine breeze and unusually pleasant. The main bulk of the wheat was cut down the previous week, in this section the wheat has ripened very materially from what that known among farmers, as the "scab." The parts of the wheat affected, turns a yellowish hue long before the perfect wheat gets ripe and on examination, the pods for holding the grain, prove to be empty and bearing a parched appearance. By this defect, there is no doubt the crop in this county will be much shortened.

TRIPPE FIRE.

Mr. Andrew Trippe died at his residence, in Bolingbroke, on Tuesday afternoon last, aged about 72 years.—His remains were taken to Baltimore on Thursday night, for interment. Capt. Flanaghan was for many years an extensive ship builder in Baltimore. About 3 years ago he purchased a farm of Mr. Hughlett, in Bolingbroke, where he resided until his death.

Mr. L. S. Seymour lost a valuable cow a few days ago, by death from eating clover.

There appears to be a great scarcity of hands now, which put the farmers to some trouble to save their wheat. The general harvest is about a week earlier this week than usual.

☞ Yesterday was the day for execution, at Dover, Del., of Edward Dutrel, the colored man convicted of the murder of Thomas Hughes, a pedler. Dutrel confessed to be trying to die, but while admitting his complicity in the murder persists in the assertion that William Loper who was tried and acquitted, struck the fatal blow.

Recovering.—We feel very much gratified to learn that Mr. Thos. J. Roberts, of Oxford neck, who came very near losing both of his legs last year, by a grass mower, is doing remarkable well and his physicians now feel very confident that both legs can be saved.

Celebration.—The colored people of Talbot county, intend to celebrate the passage of the 15th Amendment to the Constitution, about the 12th of August. They put it off thus late in order not to interfere with harvest operations. Able speakers will be present on the occasion.

☞ Major E. K. Fitzhugh, Special Agent of the Postoffice Department, on Thursday arrested Andrew Stafford, a clerk in the postal car service, between Washington and New York, on the charge of robbing the United States Mail. He was taken before Commissioner Rogers, plead guilty to the charge, and was committed to jail in default of $10,000 bail. This is the second arrest made by Mr. Fitzhugh during the week for the same crime.

Who Can Beat?—Mr. M. Avery left at our office, on Saturday last, one half stalk of a Rhubarb plant, which measured 41 feet in length and 24 feet around. This plant was raised by Mr. Avery's own hands, in his garden.

☞ Many suffer in their own pain, when medicine, and that is not to be mean, at, as the remedy is often close at hand, the disease. Relief from coughs, colds, influenza, and throat in Trippe's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Sold by all druggists. Dr. Trippe's Balsam of Wild Cherry is now in universal demand.

Dr. C. H. Emory, a practising physician died at his residence in Greenville, Queen Anne's county, on the last of [illegible] of typhoid fever. He was [illegible] years of age.

For the Gazette.

The M. P. Sunday School, Easton.—The excursion of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School, under the superintendence of E. B. Bates, Esq., came off as published, on Wednesday last, and was a complete success. The weather was delightful, and the entire affair was so well conducted that all who had the privilege of going, could not fail to be gratified. It is supposed that about 600 persons made up the interesting company on the occasion. The Steamer, with about one third of the passengers transported at the Grove, while the rest passed on to Smyrna and Clayton. Those of us who remained at Goldsborough Point recovered not only with a pleasant shady retreat, but after we had dined, the school, under the lead of their capacious and talented Superintendent, gave us several pieces of choice and delightful music, which not only made the Grove ring with sweet melody, but made our hearts to throb with emotions of pleasure. After this the Rev. Mr. Shipley, of the M. E. Church, South, delivered an very thrilling speech, which was followed by one from Rev. Mr. Tyler, of the M. P. Church, in his usual energetic and peculiar style. Shortly after 5 o'clock the whistle of our confiding dove was heard and we hastened to our [illegible] again we united with them on our return to Easton, which we reached about 5 o'clock P. M. This proved one of the most pleasant days we have ever experienced. In conclusion we would say that we were pleased to see the Rev. Mr. Shipley and Rev. Mr. Tyler, of the M. E. Church, South, and the Rev. Mr. Hutton, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, with many of their respective charges.

The following resolution was passed in reference to gentlemanly kindness of the Railroad Company.

EDITOR.

Easton, June 23d, 1870.

Immediately upon the return of the Excursion on Wednesday last, a meeting of the gentlemen on the train was called, and Gen. Richard Thomas elected Chairman, and E. B. Bates, Sec'y.

Dr. Hardcastle then offered the following resolutions, which were seconded and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to the Superintendent of the Md. & Del. R. R., for a delightful excursion, and to the officers and employees of the train for their courtesy and attention.

Resolved, That the newspapers of Easton be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

Many remarks were then made commendatory of the accommodating spirit shown by all concerned in the Excursion, after which on motion adjourned.

RICHARD THOMAS, Chairman.

E. B. Bates, Sec'y.

[Correspondence of the Gazette.]

Baltimore, June 22, 1870.

Dear Gazette:—The weekly visits of the Gazette are highly appreciated by your friend and correspondent, and I am glad to see from its columns that its long continued prosperity—the best reward of true merit and fidelity to principle.—Though our views may differ on political matters, yet this affords no reason why we should not wish each other well and now and then do what we can to keep each other along. The Christian minister, philanthropist and friend will always find in the Gazette a strong advocate and I am sure that tyranny, dissipation, villany and crime will like wise meet with the rebuke they deserve.—And though 'comparison may be odious' especially to those who think and feel but the impressionable negro in all things, yet lay on the hammer, for all good and right thinking people will sustain you, no matter of what party, in your efforts to preserve the morals of our race and elevate the tone of society. Now that the negro has the ballot, whether right or wrong, I shall not here attempt to argue—it seems to be the concern and interest of all classes to see that he is properly instructed in these matters, which will make up the good citizen, and I am sure I thought that morality in the schools of the true character, I have no doubt but that the instruction would be received and he be profited by it.

I am glad to learn that during this hot spell of weather, you seem to be enjoying yourself, and while joy and happiness reign in your household, the blessing is not confined alone to you and yours, but that it is the common property of all in Easton. Easton is certainly a delightful spot and if one can enjoy life anywhere it seems to me it should be done there. You have all the facilities of news you want, (except telegraph which you greatly need) all the avenues of travel you desire; all the privileges you wish to enjoy; all the luxuries and abundance of life assured you to make you truly a great and happy people.—And if you are not all content it is certainly not the fault of the Dispenser of these blessings, but of you, if you neglect to use them as intended. Now that the farmers are in their harvest I hope a bountiful crop will be reaped to refresh the hearts of the oppressed and children who have long looked of the crop as the means of escape from poverty and ruin. I will own with anxiety and interest the result of the harvest with great hope that all anticipations may be realized.

Yours, Acme.

Manhood: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure, (without medicine,) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Emissions, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the startling consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of 6 cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's Marriage Guide, price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
