LOCALS.

BIGELER'S NATURAL HISTORY.—Mr. Geo. H. Mullikin, of Trappe District, has taken the Agency and is now canvassing for the sale of this useful, and no doubt is destined to be, the most popular book of the kind in the country. It will be printed on good white paper, made expressly for the purpose. It will contain 1040 large octavo pages and 1000 illustrations, which will be furnished by the Agent at the following prices:

In fine English Cloth, Sprinkled Edges, $4.50
In best American Morocco, Marbled, 5.50

Every family, where there are children should not fail to secure a copy of it, and let them freely peruse its pages.

To avoid delaying the agent, whose time is valuable, subscribers are respectfully requested to be prepared to take the book promptly at the time set for the delivery.

REGISTRATION.—In accordance with the requirements of law, the officer of Registration will be opened on Monday the 19th of September, and kept open until Wednesday evening, allowing but three days for persons to be registered. We have alluded on a former occasion to the importance of those who contemplate registering to do so as far as they can on the first day of the session of the Board.

As some few minutes will be necessarily involved in registering each applicant, there should be no delay on the part of those who intend applying for registration. The Register has to ascertain from the applicant, first—his name; then administer to him the oath by law; third—his age, fourth—the place of his birth; fifth his residence; sixth—the time he has resided in the county; seventh—if naturalized; eight—if disqualified by nonage, non-residence, non compos mentis, bribery or conviction of crime.

The length of time given to register is entirely too short and we cannot see how all the applicants can receive proper attention in that length of time. But to avoid as much delay as possible, every applicant should—when there is the least doubt of age or citizenship, have the proof ready to bring forward. The notices of the various registers in the county will be found in another column. The books will be open at the Court House in Easton, in St. Michaels, Trappe, at Mr. Robinson's, at Cordova, and for Bay Hundred, in the village near the M. E. Church.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The Gas Company are enclosing the gas house lot by a good and substantial broad palling fence. When it is completed and the ditch filled with gas tar, which is such an eyesore to the citizens in that section of the town, is either covered over or otherwise concealed, West street will have received a great improvement. The Company has a fine building lot on the South side of the premises and it is to be hoped that they will lose no time in erecting what our town so much needs—a neat and substantial dwelling.

Mr. John A. Murray, is fitting up the two story frame building on Market Space, near West street, as a harness and saddle shop

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday last, some portion of the pile driver at Peach Blossom Creek, gave way just as a pile was about to be driven, and while the hammer, which weighs 2000 lbs., was elevated—and came very near being a serious accident. When the machinery broke both the hammer and pile fell to the ground, but all the men engaged succeeded in getting beyond their reach except one, and in making the effort, his foot slipped and he fell flat of his back. The pile fell immediately across his stomach but fortunately there was a stump about this feet high which caught the force of the pile and saved his life.

THE ARMORY.—The main building of the old arsenal at Easton, has just undergone a thorough repair and books put up for 400 stand of arms. The building has been empty and in a very dilapidated condition since Col. Smith paid his respects to it at the beginning of the war, until very recently, but it now contains 1500 stand of arms. Whether it is expected that they will come into use before or after the election, we have not understood. Mr. Chas. Gattin did the carpenter's work and Messrs. Hull & Mullikin did the painting. There is an old shed attached to the main building which should be either torn down or repaired, as it is dangerous in its present condition.

DEATH OF COL. PACE.—Col. Wm. Pace, of "Wye Hall," Queen Anne's county, died at his residence, on Thursday last. His disease was bilious dysentery—followed by paralysis. Col. Pace was in the 70th year of his age—at one time took a great interest in politics—was spoken of for Governor of the State, and was a man of great wealth,

MILTON ACADEMY.—We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this Institution, at Philopolis, Baltimore county, Md., which may be found in another column, of to-day's paper. It is a school for the instruction of young men and boys in English, the classics, Mathematics, Vocal and Instrumental Music. Expenses per annum $180.

☞ We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. A. Frank Neal, Esq., of Skipton. He has on hand 50 tons of Baugh Ammoniated Bone Super Phosphate of Lime. Now is the time to secure your fertilizer.

A TRUE BALSAM.—Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is truly a balsam.—It contains the balsamic principle of the Wild Cherry, the balsamic properties of tar and of pine. Its ingredients are all balsamic. Coughs, Colds, Sore, Throat, Bronchitis, and Consumption speedily disappear under its balsamic influence.

CHANGE OF ROUTE.—The steamer Massachusetts, which has been running on the Choptank during the peach season, has been with raun from that route and the steamer Champion takes her place. The Champion will run as a day boat and will make her trips from Baltimore to Denton leaving Baltimore on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and return on Mondays and Thursdays.

☞ Rev. T. D. Valliant, for many years a citizen of Easton, passed through town, in company with his lady, on Friday last. They are both looking well. They were on their return home from the Royal Oak camp.

DEDICATION.—The Masonic Hall at St. Michael's was dedicated on Friday (yesterday.) There was a large crowd in attendance.

MARRIED.

ROBSON—RIGGS—On August 4th, at Glens Falls, New York, by Rev. Thomas Riggs, Wm. Oliver Robson, Esq., assistant Editor of the New Haven Palladium and Miss Ellen Riggs, only daughter of the officiating Minister.

DIED.

It is well with the child's and they answered it is well;

Dead unto sin, and born
Unto righteousness anew—
Its leaves, all bright, in the morn,
With the drops of babtismal dew.

Out of the shadow and night,
Out of the darkness and gloom,
Into the beauty and light
Of an immortal bloom.
