LOCALS.

THE CHURCH REPAIRS.—The repairs on the M. P. Church are progressing finely. All the workmen have completed their parts except the Frescoers and Painters. The Frescoeing will be done in about a week, when the whole interior of the Church will undergo a thorough painting. The present size of the room is 40 by 62 feet, has 14 windows, a very neat recess pulpit, with marble front, 58 benches capable of seating 400 persons. The front windows which are to be of stained glass—and the marble pulpit, were made presents by young men residing in Baltimore city, but natives of Easton. It is supposed as the work will be completed and the painting sufficiently hardeded to rededicate the Church on the first or second Sunday in February. When completed it will favorably compare with any Church in the county as to proportion, neatness and comfort.

This great improvement is due to the unceasing efforts of the ladies of the Church, for the prospect was a very gloomy one until they came to the rescue and inscribed upon their banner "no such thing as fail," thereby infusing life into the sleepy, drowsy efforts that had before been made by the male members, and the result shows for itself—a beautiful Church edifice.

The brick work was done by Mr Edward Leonard, the carpenters work by W. D. Robert, the frescoing by E. Dryer, Esq., under the superintendence of his foreman, Mr. August Ocan, of Baltimore city. The painting by R. H. T. Co[illegible]uncell, Esq.

NUBBLERS.—Grocery Merchants every where are pestered with nubblers. They are a species of a two legged [illegible] g arms like an ape, which some [illegible] call men and women. A nibbler enters a grocery store, runs his fingers in every sugar barrel and takes a couple of ounces, then goes to the cheese and cuts off a slice, just to taste; then as a matter of course, he must have a few crackers and perhaps before he makes up his mind to purchase a quarter dollar's worth, he has eaten the profits on two dollars worth of groceries. Nibblers may occasionally be found in our "well regulated community."

AUCTION ROOM.—Wm K. Rathell, Auctioneer, has rented a room in the market building up stairs—and to day he will commence sales by offering a lot of fine Chrismas goods of various kinds—such as China Vases, Cups and Saucers, toys, notions, &c. The public and the ladies in particular, are invited to attend, as will be seen by handbills in circulation.

Mr. Rathell intends to make this arrangement a permanent one and will sell at auction any articles that parties may wish to dispose of. Our citizens will find this a great convenience.

CHANGE OF ROUTE.—On and after Wednesday, the 28th inst., the steamer Champion will make regular day trips from Baltimore to Easton Point every Wednesday and Saturday—returning on Thursdays and Mondays. On Tuesdays and Fridays to St. Michaels and Miles River Ferry.

The steamer Highland Light will discontinue her trips for the present.

MANY SUFFER, rather than take nauseous medicines. All who suffer from coughs, colds, irritation of the bronchial tubes or tendency to consumption, will find in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease—The Balsam is a pleasant remedy; it is a safe remedy; it is a powerful remedy; it is a speedy remedy; it is a remedy that cures.

DROWNED.—On Saturday night last, a colored man by the name of Clem Benson, was drowned at the causeway near Oxford. His body was discovered on Sunday morning last and an inquest was held by Esquire Edward S. Harrison.—It is supposed that he was beastly drunk when he was drowned, as the water in which his body was found, was only a bout a foot deep.

SABBATH SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—On Wednesday evening next the Methodist Protestant Sabbath School will have an exhibition in the M. E. Church at Oxford. It will consist of dialogues, addresses, singing &c. There will also be a feast given to the School of fruits, confectionery, and all the other dainties that can be had. On the same evening the M. P. Sabbath School of Easton, intend to have a feast in the lecture room of the Church. Occasions of this kind are seasons of joy and profit to the little bright faces boys and girls that none others can feel.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—H. A. Bateman, Esq., of the firm of Bateman & Trippe, has negotiated for the stock of goods at the store room recently occupied by Messrs. Grace & Co., and will take possession on the first of January, when he will replenish that centrally located and neatly fitted up store room with a new stock of dry goods, groceries, &c.

R. Trippe, Esq., will continue to conduct the drug store.

HARD TO BEAT.—Mr. Edward Woods all slaughtered a pen of ten hogs a few days ago, which weighed 3110—averaging 311 a piece. The heaviest were but 16 months old and of the real Chester stock.

Mr. Thos. J. Clark also slaughtered six hogs from his pen in town, which weighed 216—averaging 36¼ a piece.

SNOW.—On Thursday night last, there was a sufficient fall of snow to cover the ground—the heaviest of the season. On Friday morning however, the sun shone clear and beautiful and its genial rays soon caused mother earth to show its peaks and points through her pure white covering.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS.—W. F. Reed, of the Talbot House; requests us to say that his Restaurant is now in operation and those wishing meals, Steak and Coffee, Oysters or any of the delicacies of the season, their wants can be supplied. He has attentive and accommodating waiters and satisfaction is guaranteed.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. C. H. Harden has sold out his confectionery and baking establishment to W. H. Collier, Esq.—Mr. Harden, we learn, intends to remove to the Trappe.

MARRIED.

HARRISS—McGEE.—On the 22d inst., by Dr. Reese, Andrew Harriss to Louisa McGee.

HOBSON—CLOUGH.—In Trappe, on 24th ult., by Rev. Wm. C. Maloy, James S. Hobson, of Kent county, Delaware, and Miss Martina L. Clough, of Trappe, Talbot co., Md.
