LOCALS.

AN INTERESTING RE-UNION.—Wednesday night, was celebrated the anniversary of the Easton Lyceum. Academical halls let drop the mantel of musty lore, and put on the youthful garb of mirthful jolification. Wit sparkled in brilliant, corruscating rays; knowledge measured weapons with knowledge; oratory displayed its most winning smile and every air was heavy with the breath of good spirits. The worthy president of the association being unavoidably absent from "Ku Klux" fears, or deterred by spiritual manifestations, or unwilling to blunt his brilliant, pointed lance in fencing witty onslaughts, anticipated from so prolific soil—his place was temporarily supplied by the selection of H. A. Bateman, Esq., as chairman. The busy hum of voices being hushed by the gavel the toasts began:

"Woman" was responded to by J. Frank Turner, Esq. Beautifully elaborated upon, she was shown to be man's Paradise lost and man's Paradise regained. "Man" was philosophically discanted upon by A. Chaplain, Esq., in his most felicitous and happy style. The "Bar" was handsomely defended and liberally patronized by Mr. Harrington. "Maryland and Virginia," in the hands of Prof. Miller, found an accomplished and skilled champion. The "Press" was ably represented and its potency for good or evil lucidly dilated by T. K. Robson, Esq. "Education" was responded to by Mr. Nelson, and after his remarks the most obtuse could not fail to acknowledge that "knowledge is power." "Our Sweethearts," all many a lass would have blushed for joy to have heard her influence and beauty so vividly portrayed by Mr. Chas. Bateman. The "Lost Cause" was astutely defined and chivalrously defended by Mr. Jas. P. Hambleton. "Agriculture" received the attention of a competent exponent in the person of Oswold Tilghman, Esq. "Our Authors" were brilliantly encomiumed by Mr. Saml. Townsend, "The Metropolis of Maryland, Baltimore and her Merchants," was responded to by J. M. Sifterfield, of Baltimore; who was present by invitation.

Upon the conclusion of the last named gentleman's remarks, the dial indicated the approach of the "witching time of night when grave-yards yawn," and a sudden remembrance of the approaching morrow with its multiferous duties seemed to dawn upon the happy association. We must part, reluctantly assumed supremacy over all other questions; many bosoms heaved a sigh for spirits already departed, and choosing a beautiful star to guide them, the speakers and admirers commingling in happy unison, wended their steady steps homeward.—Glorious re-union. Requiescat in pace.

☞ We have been requested by the Rev. W. J. Parker, pastor of the Asbury M. E. Church, for the benefit of the colored people, to say that the protracted meeting which has been in progress for nearly seven weeks, closed on the 17th inst., and that during the meeting over forty persons professed religion—forty-eight of whom joined that Church. The pastor will preach to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at 11 o'clock, and administer the Sacrament of the Lords' Supper. In the evening Rev. W. H. Smith, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, will preach from the same pulpit. The congregations of both Churches are invited to attend.

RESUMPTION OF TRIPS.—It is supposed that the steamer Highland Light will resume her trips some time during the coming week, as Capt. E. T. Leonard has been ordered on duty at Baltimore, and left for that city on Friday. The Highland Light has been thoroughly overhauled and when she appears upon our waters again no doubt our citizens will feel doubly proud that they have such a steamer at their command.

☞ We are indebted to I. C. W. Powell, Esq., who is on a visit to Florida, for a neat book containing 128 pages—containing a description of its climate, soil and productions, with a sketch of its history, natural features and social condition. Also reliable information concerning the province of the State, and the advantages to settlers, prepared by the Immigrant Aid Improvement Company.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS.—The Maryland Steamboat Company elected their President and Directors for the present year, one day the last week.

HORSES FRIGHTENED.—They are well managed.—On Thursday morning last, the large hack of Mr. F. G. Wright's took on board a number of the theatricals who have been at Easton and St. Michaels, for several days past—including Miss Jennie Morton and Miss Agnes Proctor, for the purpose of taking the steamer for Cambridge—where arrangements have been made for them to play. The hack arrived safely at the boat and the driver, Mr. McCarty, alighted to assist the passengers, when the boat's whistle gave a sudden shrill blast, frightening the horses terribly. As quick as a flash, McCarty grasped one of the horses by the bit and Michael McCale, who went down as a passenger, being on the other side, took the opposite horse by the bit. The horses surging and pitching, there was no time for conjecturing—prompt, quick action, was the word, for only a few steps forward and the whole party would have been precipitated into the river, but these fellows held on like heroes, and in the twinkling of an eye they whirled the team around from the river and were brought up all astanding into Dixon's lumber yard. It is rather a singular thing that horses driven to the cars almost every day and to the steamboat several times during the week and appear perfectly quiet, should, all of a sudden become so unruly. This should be a warning to those who have to attend the cars and steamboats to keep particular watch over their horses, let them be ever so steady. Messrs. McCarty and McCale deserve much credit for the manner in which they acted in rescuing the party from the perilous condition they were in and shows McCarty to be an active and trustworthy driver.

HEAVY WIND.—On Saturday morning last, this section was visited by a very heavy wind and rain storm. About half past nine o'clock the wind sprang up a fresh, after lulling a while, earlier in the morning, and the rain came down almost in torrents. During the storm one of the small spires that surround the base of the main spire of the M. E. Church was blown off upon the roof, which broke several pieces of the slating. A number of trees were also blown down, and as Mr. Ed. Woodall was going out of town in his carriage, the trap door of the Masonic Hall blew off just as he turned into Dover street from Washington, and it fell immediately in front of his horse, with tremendous force. Had he proceeded a few steps further before the door fell, either himself or horse might have been killed. A great many weak fences were also flattened to the ground.

NEARLY A SAD ACCIDENT.—Messrs. Jas. M. Leonard and R. W. Meads, while gunning at Howell's point, on the 22d of February, (being in a bush blind on the look out for wild ducks,) Mr. Meads seeing some ducks on the wing, attempted to bring his gun to a firing position, when the hammer caught in the bushes of the blind and caused the charge to explode. The load passed through his overcoat and undercoat, tearing the sleeve of his overboat in a frightful manner and somewhat injuring his undercoat, but in no way harming the wearer. A more scared couple was never seen. Mr. Meads thought he had shot Mr. Leonard, and Mr. Leonard did not know what was the matter until he saw Mr. Mead's coat sleeve on fire. Having enough gunning for one day, they immediately started for home.

☞ "CLEANSING THE BLOOD," upon which charlatans have harped so much, is not a mere catch-word and delusion. The microscope shows that some diseases exist like parastic growths upon the globules of the blood, and it is further known that some subtle substance destroy or expel them. These substances have been combined to make Ayer's Sarsparilla which does effectually expel the disorders that breed and wrangle in the blood to rot out as it were the machinery of life. Mercer (Pa.) Whigh.

BEAUTIFUL CARRIAGE.—We observed sitting in front of Mr. Wm. Mason's carriage shop a few days ago, a very elegantly put up carriage. It was of the phaeton style, and built to the order of Dr. J. E. M. Chamberlaine. The work was done neat and substantial, the appearance of the structure was graceful and the interior looked as soft as a pillow The padding is moveable for summer use.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—On Tuesday night last, some one attempted to enter an upper story window of the residence of Mr. Saml. Norris, on Harrison street, by getting upon a shed that is in the rear of the house. In getting upon the shed and attempting to open the window, the mother of Mr. Norris wife was awoken and gave the alarm, when the burglar fled.

We all consider Iron the embodiment of strength and power, but how few are aware that it is this same element in the system, that gives us strength and vigor, and that an insufficiency of it causes weakness and debility. The Peruvian Syrup a protoxide of Iron, is prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element.

NEAT SIGNS.—Mr. S. Patchett has a very neat and showy sign suspended in front of his furniture wareroom, painted by A. W. Fountain, Esq. H. A. Bateman, Esq., also has one on each side of his store door, of an oval shape, which adds much to the appearance of the front.

WHITE BARBER.—A white barber has refitted the shaving saloon under the Brick Hotel, formerly occupied by Phil. Floyd, where he conducts the barbering business in all its branches.

THE 22D.—The 22d of February was celebrated in Easton, by a general suspension of business through the day and a military parade in the afternoon, by Capt. Robert's company, and at night by a ball in the town hall—given by the military. Here the mazy dance was indulged in until about 4 o'clock next morning.

☞ REV. WM. T. JOHNSTON, the Minister recently called by the Vestry of St. Poter's parish, visited Easton last week, and preached at Christ Church on Sunday morning and evening.

THE COLLECTOR.—We would say for the benefit of our readers, that Mr. N. Willis, Collector of county taxes, can be found at the Gazette office every Friday as well as Tuesday.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—Jos. H. Thompson, Esq., opposite the Postoffice, requests us to say that he has a stock of boots and shoes suited to the present season. He invites an inspection of his stock.

MARRIED.

QUINBY—FOREMAN.—On Thursday evening the 23rd inst., by Rev. Mr. Slaughter, Thos. P. Quinby and Miss Sarah E. Foremen.

MULLIKIN—MULLIKIN.—At the residence of the bride's father, at Trappe, by Rev. Mr. Davis, F. C. Mullikin and Miss Maggie E. Mullikin, both of Trappe District.

GRIFFITH—WILLSON.—At St. Joseph's Church, in this county, on the 21st inst., by Rev. Father Meurer, Wm. F. Griffith, of Delaware, and Miss Marianna Willson, daughter of Wm. H. Willson, Esq., of Easton, Md.

DIED.

SETH.—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. S. W. Orem, near St. Michaels, on the 17th inst., Mrs. Sarah Seth, in the 87th year of her age.

The death of this venerable christian lady deserves more than a passing notice. Over three-score years of her life were given to the service of God in communion with the M. E. Church. In former years, her house was a preacher's home," where the toil-worn itenerant could always find rest and refreshment. She lived an exemplary christian and as the result of a life of faith, died in holy peace and triumph—another proof that 'God will honor those who honor him.'

The close of a life so full of years, and of useful labor, so tranquil, in its repose upon the Divine promise, amid the gloom of the "valley and shadow of death," speaks with eloquent tongue to the living—that, in life or death, it is "well with the righteous."

SETH.—On the 15th inst., at Indianapolis, Ind., of injuries received on the railroad, William D. Seth, in the 25th year of his age, son of Deruthea G., and the late Wm. D. Seth.

CHAMBERLAINE.—Suddenly, on the evening of the 14th inst., at the Church Home, in Baltimore, James Lloyd Chamberlaine, Jr., in the 16th year of his age.

BATEMAN.—In Baltimore, on Thursday morning, 16th inst., Caroline M., daughter of the late Thomas Harrison, and beloved wife of Wm. L. Bateman.

☞ The quality of this coal is the best; it is clean and in good order; and will be sold at 2240 lbs. to the ton.

Persons would do well to send in their orders while the price of coal is down.
