LOCALS.

Narrow Escape.—On day last week Mr. A. H. Robinson, residing at Cordova, on the Md. & Del. Railroad, purchased a lot of quinine and a lot of arsenic. On arriving at his store at Cordova, he put the two parcels in his desk, as a safe place of deposit until he needed it. He afterwards thought he would mix the quinine, it being in powder, and reached into his desk and took out, as he supposed, the package of quinine, for the purpose of giving some to his children. After getting it mixed he felt as though he needed a dose himself, and took, as he supposed, the quantity of about thirty grains. After drinking it, he found from the taste, that there must be some mistake, and on picking up the label, which had been thrown upon the floor and examining the package remaining in his desk, he ascertained that he had taken some thirty grains of arsenic instead of quinine. He being a man of considerable nerve and firmness, he proceeded at once to take such doses as he thought would nuetralize the poison or cause him to vomit it up,—among other things some four ounces of sweet oil. As speedily as possible Dr. Keets was sent for and rendered medical aid, and the numerous friends of Mr. Robinson will be pleased to learn that he has almost entirely recovered. He was in Easton on Tuesday last, and moved about with his usual quickness of step and looking none the worse except a little pale. He informed us that the only inconvenience he experienced in his feelings was, in his head and a burning sensation in his flesh, and that the poison was then working off through his skin, causing it to very much resemble the measles. Persons buying poisons cannot be too cautious in their use.

Miss Olive Logan.—It will be seen by advertisement in another column, that Miss Olive Logan will lecture in the Town Hall, in Easton, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. Miss Logan ranks among the first lecturers of the country, and sometimes has engagements for as many as eight weeks in succession. Wherever she has lectured the press has spoken of her in the most complimentary terms, and Miss Anna Dickinson, whose fame is world wide, once spoke in Chicago, just a few days before Miss Logan did and volunteered the following notice of her:

"On Wednesday evening, Miss Olive Logan is going to talk about the girls at Parwell Hall. I want everybody who can enjoy a brilliant, witty, piquant and sensible discourse, from the lips of a very brilliant, genial, kind and lovely woman to be there. Olive Logan is peculiarly well qualified to talk on this peculiarly interesting subject, and those who have not yet learned all they want to learn about the girls, especially the young men, will be sure to go and hear this lecture."

But the subject of her lecture in Easton, will be "Nice Young Men," and we have no doubt she is as peculiarly qualified to talk upon that subject as Miss Dickinson says she is to talk upon the subject of "girls."

An able writer in the New York Review says of Miss Logan:

"No person of so few years can know the world better; no person was ever less corrupted by that knowledge."

We bespeak for Miss Logan a crowded house.

☞ The St. Michaels Comet and Easton Journal seem determined to have it appear before the public that H. Clay Dodson, one of the Republican nominees for County Commissioner, has declined the nomination. We have the authority for saying that there is not a word of truth in it. It is very true, Mr. Dodson did not seek the nomination, as he would be the looser and the county would profit by his election, but in a letter to a friend in Easton, dated the 5th, he uses this language:

"I have concluded to yield to the desire of friends here and elsewhere, so my name can remain on the ticket."

The Star of Tuesday, did Mr. Dodson the justice to deny the report, and we hope the other two papers, so active in circulating the famous "we learn," will extend him a like courtesy.

☞ On Tuesday last, the Star painted one of its old pictures, of negro school teachers teaching white children, negro magistrates taking the place of white ones, negro constables serving writs, the mixing white children and black children in the same school, &c., but omitted to say anything about their acting in the capacity of Clerk to the Commissioners. Try your hand again, Mr. Star, Your picture will not be complete until the picture of the present incumbent, in taking his leave and some colored man (we leave the choice of who he shall be to yourself) marching in to take his place, is inserted.

Change of Route.—The steamer Highland Light, has changed her route to Denton so as to run but one trip a week to that poin, leaving Baltimore every Saturday night at 9½ o'clock.—On Tuesdays and Thursdays she leaves Baltimore at the same hour, for Hog Island, touching at all the intermediate landings, as on Saturdays.

New Boots and Shoes.—Jesse Hughes has just returned from Baltimore and he desires us to say that his supply is full and complete of as fine stock as his shelves ever contained. His new assortment is now open and the public are invited to examine them.

☞ We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. H. Thompson in another column. He has just arrived with new boots and shoes.

☞ The handsomest stock of shawls we have ever seen in this market is being offered for sale by Thompson & Kersey. They have every variety, the grave and the gay, the plain and the fancy, the fine and coarse; indeed they have all qualities and styles, and we really think it would richly repay any lady who may be in need of any such article of apparel to call and see them.

Trustee's Sale.—It will be seen by advertisement in to-day's paper that A. A. Townsend, Trustee, will offer at public sale the large stock of groceries, boots and shoes, notions, &c., in the store room formerly occupied by Thos. Shuck, Esq., on the 21st of the present month.

☞ Steadman R. Tilghman, Esq. who studied law in the office of Mr. C H. Gibson, and passed the bar at the last session of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, has taken up his residence in Texas, where he intends to practice his profession.

New Law Office.—A. A. Townsend Esq., is having a law office erected on Dover street, one door West of the building formerly used as the Journal office, and one door East of Messrs. Elliott & Rathell's boot and shoe store.

Election of Colored School Commissioners.—An election was held on Wednesday night last, at the colored School house, in Easton, for three school commissioners, to conduct the school for the next twelve months. Edmond Green C. H. Murray and Lloyd H. Jordan, were chosen.

☞ Our merchants are still stirring.—Messrs. Powell & Wright have just received their fall stock of cassimeres, cloths, and goods of all kinds suited to the season. But in order to more fully understand, they desire the public to call and examine for themselves.

Jno. W. Cheezum, Esq., has been making heavy purchases in all the various kinds of goods usually kept by him, and assures the ladies and gentlemen of this vicinity that his supply of goods is now complete: He asks an inspection of his stock.

Those persons who are looking about for cheap goods are invited to call and see Covington & Mason, for they have a large stock.

AYER'S
Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its original Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.—Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application.—Instead of soiling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous.—Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume. Prepared by

Hair, Lime and Gelatine FERTILIZER.

A MATTER OF INTEREST TO EVERY AGRICULTURIST IN THE STATES.

The Cheapest Article Offered to the People—The Reason Why.

BECAUSE it contains more Ammonia, Potash and Bone Phosphate of Lime combined, for the money, than any other.—These ingredients are necessary to the growth of vegetation, and the intrinsic value of any Fertiliser is in proportion to the amount of these articles which it contains.

The estimated intrinsic value of Absolute

Ammonia is	35	cents per lb
Of Potential Ammonia	15	" "
Of Potash	8	" "
Of Bone Phosphate of Lime	5½	" "

Taking the above prices as correct, (using the same for calculating the value of all other manure's) it gives a reliable result of the intrinsic and comparative value of this Fertilizer with other; and upon this basil of value for the commercial and essentia fertiliming articles, we will estimate the intrinsic worth of this Fertilizer to the agriculturists, from the result of the analysis made by Prof. C. P Williams, of Newark, State Chemist of Delaware, to wit:

	Per-centage.
Moisture expelled, at 212° Fah.,	8.47
Organic matter	38.37
(Yielding Nitrogen, 2.09.)
Bone Phosphate of Lime,	3.69
Sulphate of Lime,	.91
Lime,	13.03
Sand and Clay	13.52
Chloride of Potassium,	5.80
Carbonic Acid, Magnesia, Oxide of Iron and Loss,,	16 21
	100·00
	Weight

The above shows 2,09 per cent. of Nitrogen or 2·54 per cent. of Ammonia, equals 57.-90 lbs. at 15c. $8.53

5.80 per cent. of Chloride of Potassium, equal to 82.53 lbs. of Potash. at 8c., 6·60

5.69 per cent. of Bone Phosphate of Lime, equals 82.69 lbs. at 5¾ 4.75

Making the intrinsic value $19.88 per ton $19.88

This Fertiliser is sold only pure and unadulterated, which I will guarantee, and furthermore, any person desirous of purchasing has the privilege of having it analized by any reliable chemist, and paying or it at its intrinsic worth.

The above fertilizer is the Refuse of Glue factory—one of the largest in the world. Experience has proved that there is no better Manure than the Refuse of a Glue factory. Solon Robinson in his facts for Farmers says: "Of the value of hair for manure, we can say that we have used a good many loads of the refuse of a glue manufactory, composed mostly of hair and found it a most valuable manure. The waste of glue-makers, tanners, and all other trades, where hair or wool forms the bulk of the waste, is worth ten times as much as stable manure." Weight—75 to 80 lbs. to the bushel. Sold 33 bushels to ton, measured when delivered. Delivered by water at the following prices, viz:

Ten to 15 tons	$15.00 per ton.
Fifteen to 40 tons	$14.00 " "
Forty to 100 tons	$13.00 " "
100 tons and over	$12.00 " "
