LOCALS.

REUNION.—The District Convention of the M. E. Church South has been holding its session at Hillsborough commencing on Wednesday last.

SALE OF FURNITURE, &c.—Our readers will bear in mind the sale which is to take place on Tuesday the 7th inst., by L. H. Delahay, Esq., as Trustee. It is all of excellent quality.

THANKSGIVING.—President Grant has set apart Thursday, the 30th instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer throughout the United States, on account of the innumerable blessings we have received at the hand of our Creator.

HARDWARE.—J. H. Ford, Esq., of the firm of Ford & Dawson, has purchased all the right of A. H. Dawson, in the hardware business. Mr. Ford will now conduct the business, and invites the public to give him a call.

NEW FIRM.—Messrs. M. G. Fedderman and N. C. Fitzjarrell have purchased the stock of material and fixtures in the feed store of Mr. J A Parker, on Dover street They intend to keep constantly on hand a full supply of meal, flour, feed-stuff, hay and all other things necessary to complete a first class feed store.

ANOTHER OLD CITIZEN GONE.—On Wednesday evening last Mrs C. M. Plater died at her residence near Easton, after a lingering sickness. She possessed a fine estate and has always shown a business capacity rarely found in one of her sex. Her remains were followed to the place of interment on yesterday, by a large number of friends.

☞ The Wilmington Preacher's Association met at St. Paul's Church on Monday last. The attendance of Ministry was large. The question in reference to the utility of periodical revival efforts being the order of the day, was ably discussed by Rev. Messrs. Watson, Sanderson, Gray, Lightbourn, J. Todd, Shilling.

Such was the interest manifested in the question, on the part of both ministers and laymen present, that the discussion will be resumed on Monday next.

VOTERS ATTENTION.—It is an admitted fact that the Republican ticket is composed of some of the very best men in the county. They are men of tried honesty, extensive business experience, courteous in all their dealings, and if selected, will fill the various positions with credit to themselves and benefit to the county—in fact; they are of the people and from among the people. They are plain, practical men. Men of enterprise, industry and the very kind to develope the resources of our county and State. Let past prejudices be forgotten and old, dead issues be buried. The true Democracy in all the progressive States are leaving behind them the things of the past and taking hold of the things of the present. Then why not the Democracy of Talbot, cut loose from the dead carcasses of ages gone by and take hold of the ticket of progress. Party names have become as sounding brass and a tinkling symbol. The man now, who clings to party for the sake of its name, is looked upon as an ignoramus and lacking of independence. Pure men, practical men, accommodating men, every-day men, men who thoroughly understand the masses of the people and mingle among them, and men of enterprise, are the true spirits for the times. If our ticket can claim all these virtues, and why should not the affairs of the people be safe in the hands of such men?

☞ The Star of Tuesday makes a tremendous effort to reconstruct those of its party who have been dissatisfied with the course which has been pursued by some of its leaders. They are hagged and pawed and called "noble hearted Democracy" and then makes use of one of its amusing and classic phrases, to put them in a good humor, such as the radical's "shirt tails are too short" &c. Who knows but the editor of the Star may wear one of these short shirt tails, about the time the next clerk to the Commissioners is appointed.

The negro bug a boo, which has been used so long by the Star, but has lost its power to frighten any one, is also brought to work upon the prejudices of of the people.

The Star says:

"We never believed that the old Chapel vote for, or connive at, the appointment of negro magistrates, negro supervisors, negro constable, or negro Lincoln."

As for colored voters being on the jury they could not be if they wished it, for the Judges have the exclusive control of drawing the jury—nor have we heard a single instance where a colored man in the county desired or expected an office of any kind. On the other hand we have heard of some of the Democracy in the lower districts bidding for the colored vote, by promising them the office of constable, but the colored men indignantly refused such a proffer.

"If you don't personally like the men on the ticket, fold it up and vote it as soon as possible, and be done with it," says the Star.

It here speaks of some portion of the ticket as though it was like taking a dose of salts or quinine to vote it. This may be the way some have of doing business, but we think it very doubtful that those Democrats who have had the manliness and pluck to openly repudiate such things as they conceived to be wrong, will swallow any such bitter doses as the Star prescribes.
