LONDON, April 30.
By AUTHORITY, we can assure the Public, That Belleisle is actually taken; and that immediately on the Arrival of the Reinforcements, Colonel Crawford, in Conjunction with the Gentlemen abovementioned, made a brisk Attack upon the Citadel, on which the French surrendered.

We hear that two Persons of Distinction are named to be reciprocally sent by the British and French Courts, to facilitate the Negotiations for accomplishing the great and salutary Work of PEACE.

The principal Matters to be insisted on by our Plenipotentiaries, it is said, are these; that Guadaloupe, with America, be ceded to us; that no Satisfaction be given to the French for any Ships taken previous to the Declaration of War; that no Suspension of Arms shall take Place during the Sitting of the Congress; that the giving up the Island of Minorca shall not be looked upon or taken as an Equivalent for the Islands of Senegal and Goree; and that this Congress may continue three Calendar Months, from the Day of their first Meeting.

Three Negroes were lately Condemned in Calvert County, for murdering Mrs. Smith, their Mistress, by Poison, some Years ago; but by some Mistake in the Jury Proceedings, it seems they are to have another Trial.
