CITY INTELLIGENCE.

RUNAWAY SOLDIERS.—The soldiers in the various camps in the vicinity of the city are having what is called a "jolly time." Until recently most of them have been short of funds, but within a few days the Government has distributed quite a number of $5 and $10 Treasury notes among them, and they are expending them with a perfect looseness. Not an hour passes but a guard may be seen visiting drinking saloons, and other places, in search of truants from the regiments. Many procured passes which require them to return to camp at a certain hour. With many of the soldiers to secure the pass is everything, to obey it is nothing. To indulge in what is termed "a good drunk" is what they desire, and if the time granted by the pass is not sufficient to enable them to gratify this propensity, they take it. The consequence is at roll-call they are not present to answer, and a guard is despatched in search of them. Others do not go to the trouble of procuring a pass, but by strategem pass the sentinel and escape beyond the lines. Strange as it may appear, cases are not at all rare where soldiers succeed in avoiding the guard for several weeks.

The city is full of stragglers, and frequently when the guard comes upon them, they resist its authority. On Thursday night an incident of this kind occurred. The guard came upon a truant on Frederick street, and when they attempted to arrest him, he showed fight, and the guard, instead of using their bayonets, dropped their guns and went into a fist fight, and quite a scene ensued. Finally the deserter was overcome, but before they could get him along he had to be bucked and gagged.

EXHIBITION OF THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE.—There was a very good attendance of visitors at the Institute last night, and the occasion was enlivened by the spirit-stirring music of the Independent Blues' Band. Each day there have been new deposits of articles, rendering the exhibition additionally attractive. The best order is preserved under the management of Messrs. Thomas Gorman and F. McKinley.

Among the articles displayed, which are particularly deserving of notice from visitors, and more so at this season of the year, is the array of stoves, &c., deposited by Messrs. Bibb & Co., of the Baltimore Stove House. These gentlemen are the inventors and manufacturers of a stove denominated "The Gem," which stands without a rival in point of utility and economy. As it behooves everybody to study economy in these "hard times," this stove will no doubt attract attention.

Mr. D. Preston Parr exhibits a fine assortment of china and glassware from his establishment, No. 210 Baltimore street, near Charles.

Messrs. E. Whitman & Co. have on exhibition a lot of agricultural machinery.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the semi annual meeting of the Young Catholic Friends' Society of this city, the following gentlemen were elected officers to serve for the ensuing six months: President, Alex. J. Brand; Vice-President, Francis X. Lipp; Corresponding Secretary, Joseph Victory; Recording Secretary, Sylvester Kuhn; Treasurer, H. Sylvester Fink; Book Keeper, John P. Mullan. Trustees: Dr. E. Delougery, John T. Piquett, Jos. S. Adams, H. C. Brennan, Lindsay Sturgeon, Charles Whettle, Thomas J. Campbell, C. E. J. Gebhard, Henry W. Jenkins, C. R. Heulsler, M. A. Daiger, J. Carter Mahoney, M. Wellinger, and A. Ostendorf. Steward, Jas. Lipp.

FIGHT IN THE STATION HOUSE.—On Thursday night a number of soldiers congregated in a house of ill-repute on Eastern avenue, kept by a woman named Mary Whittingham, and after drinking freely of bad whiskey, finally got into a fight. The police entered the house, and some seven or eight of them were conducted to the Eastern district station house, where they were confined. Shortly after they were placed there, the fight was renewed, and one of them drew a pistol, which, it is said, was accidentally discharged, and the ball passed throug the hand of a man named Daniel Scanalin, inflicting quite a severe wound. Dr. Dwinelle rendered surgical attention.

ROBBING THE GOVERNMENT.—A negro named Jas. Bromwell was yesterday morning arrested upon the charge of stealing a barrel of flour, which was the property of the United States Government. He was arraigned before Justice McKinley, who sent him to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury. After the negro stole the flour, he took it to the house of Henry Heinberg, who was also arrested upon the charge of receiving the flour, knowing it to be stolen property. He was committed by Justice McKinley, but subsequently released by Judge Band, upon producing bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance.

LAUNCH.—The bark Cricket, built under the superintendence of Capt. Thomas T. Wingate, (who will command her,) for Messrs. Hugh Jenkins & Co., will be launched this afternoon at 3½ o'clock, from the ship yard of the builder, Capt. John A. Robb, corner of Wolf and Thames streets. Her dimensions are: 130 feet in length; 28 feet breadth of beam, and 14½ feet depth of hold. She is intended to join the Rio fleet of Messrs. H. Jenkins & Co., and it is predicted that she will be the swiftest of them all.

RELIGIOUS.—The last number of the Catholic Mirror has the following:—On the 9th instant, at the Visitation Convent in Park street, Sister Mary Francis de Sales Gahahan, and Sister Mary Agatha Scott, were admitted to the solemn religious profession by the Most Rev. Archbishop, who also preached on the occasion. He was assisted by the Rev. Father Wissel, C. SS. R., of St. Alphonsus, and the Rev. Father Jacobs, C. SS. R., of Annapolis.

GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS.—In addition to the National Hotel and the Adams House, the Government is now occupying as hospitals for invalid troops two large houses on the north side, and one on the south side of Camden street, between Sharp and Howard. The number of inmates appears to have increased recently.

INDICTMENT FOR TREASON.—Mr. Jerome A. Fendergast yesterday appeared in the United States District Court and gave bail before Judge Giles in the sum of $40,000 to appear at the November term of the United States Circuit Court to answer the charge of treason which had been found against him by the Grand Jury.

BOY SENT TO JAIL.—David Russell, a schoolboy, was yesterday taken into custody upon the charge of assaulting Curtis Thompson, choking him and tearing his cravat from his neck. Upon being arraigned before Justice Reid, he was committed to jail in default of security to answer the charge at court.

ROBBERY.—The house of Mr. George Stuart, on Biddle street near Eutaw, was entered on Thursday night and robbed of about thirty dollars' worth of silver ware and a gold watch. From the peculiar circumstances of the robbery, it is believed that the perpetrator was a party well acquainted with the house.

PERSONAL.—Major General Dix and staff, accompanied by a young lady, mounted on fine horses, appeared in the city last evening, and attracted considerable attention in their passage through the streets.

THEFT.—Yesterday afternoon a man named Geo. Thompson was walking along Harrison street, and as he passed the store of Mr. G. Cohen, he stole from a bench a pair of boots. An officer followed and arrested him and Justice Hiss committed him to jail for Court.

ASSAULT.—George Rotz was yesterday before Justice Showacre, upon the charge of assaulting and beating Charles E. Hillen. He was committed for court.

Amusements.

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—A good programme is announced for this evening, consisting of a new drama entitled "O'Neil, the Rebel," and the Indian play of the "Lion of the Forest," Mr. Joseph Proctor appearing in both pieces, supported by the clever actress, Mrs. Phillips, and the entire company.

KUNKEL'S OPERA HOUSE—The Museum.—This afternoon there will be a gala entertainment especially for ladies and children, on which occasion the price of admission for the little ones will be but 10 cents. This evening a fine programme is provided, the amusing entertainment being freely interspersed with fragments of sentiment by Rainer, Kunkel, Frazier and Lewis. Messrs. Floyd, Charles, Colton and Boyd will also appear both afternoon and evening in their entertaining dances.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.
