

ce, and the Negotiation with France is entirely ken off.
The Sincerity of my Disposition to effectuate good Work has been manifested in the Pros of it; and I have the Consolation to reflect, the Continuance of the War, and the farther usion of Christian Blood, to which it was the ire of my Heart to put a Stop, cannot with-ice be imputed to me.
Our military Operations have been in no Degree ended or delayed; and it has pleased GOD grant us farther important Successes, by the quests of the Islands of Belleisle and Dominica; by the Reduction of Pondicherry, which hath Manner annihilated the French Power in the Indies. In other Parts, where the Enemy's nbers were greatly superior, their principal Deand Projects have been generally disappointby a Conduct which does the highest Honour e distinguished Capacity of my General Prince inand of Brunswick, and by the Valour of Troops. The Magnanimity and Ability of King of Prussia have eminently appeared, in ing such numerous Armies, and surmounting eat Difficulties.
this Situation, I am glad to have an Oppor-ty of receiving the truest Information of the e of my People, by a new Choice of their Re-ntatives. I am fully persuaded you will agree me in Opinion, that the steady Exertion of most vigorous Efforts, in every Part where the ay may still be attacked with Advantage, is nly Means that can be productive of such a e, as may with Reason be expected from our ffes. It is therefore my fixed Resolution, your Concurrence and Support, to carry on ar in the most effectual Manner for the Inand Advantage of my Kingdoms; and to ain, to the utmost of my Power, the good and Honour of my Crown, by adhering to the Engagements entered into with my
e. In this I will persevere, until my Enemy moved by their own Losses and Distresses, uched with the Miseries of so many Nations, ield to the equitable Conditions of an hole Peace; in which Case, as well as in the ution of the War, I do assure you, no Con-on whatever shall make me depart from the terests of my Kingdoms, and the Hond Dignity of my Crown. ntlemen of the House of Commons, heartily sorry, that the Necessity of large s appears so clearly from what has already entioned. The proper Estimates for the Ser-e the ensuing Year shall be laid before you; esire you to grant me such Supplies, as may me to prosecute the War with Vigour, and own Welfare and Security, in the present Conjuncture, require; that we may hapthe last Hand to this great Work. What-ou give, shall be duly and faithfully applied.
I say your affectionate Regard for me, and en, makes you go before me in what I am ention; and the making an adequate and ble Provision for her Support in Case she urvive me. This is what not only her ignity, but her own Merit calls for; and y I recommend it to your Consideration.
Lords, and Gentlemen, such a Confidence in the Zeal and good s of this Parliament, that I think it quite us to use any Exhortations to excite you t Conduct. I will only add, that there s a Situation in which Unanimity, Firm-Dispatch, were more necessary for the onour, and true Interest of Great-Britain.
