Nottingham, on Patuxent, 8th July, 1762.

THE Subscriber having lately received positive Instructions from Messieurs SHORTRIDGE, GORDON, and Company, of Glasgow, his Employers, to call in all the Debts due to them in this Province, either for Dealings with Mr. Henry Tubman at Benedict, or the Subscriber at Nottingham, gives this Public Notice, that all concerned may speedily come in, and give such Satisfaction as is in their Power. As the Subscriber intends to Great-Britain, after staying a reasonable Time for the Settlement of his Affairs in this Province, he hopes that every one who hath Dealings unsettled with him, either for himself or his said Employers, and are unable to make immediate Payment, will, for their own Sakes, come and settle with the Subscriber, as it may be a Means of preventing Disputes; that otherwise may hereafter rise in settling these old Dealings with his Successor, in the Management of the said Gentlemen's Affairs. Altho' I am strongly enjoined to make a very considerable Remittance out of Debts by this Summer Shipping, yet I am willing to indulge such of my Customers as are really unable to pay this Summer, with a little longer Time, provided they will come and settle their Accounts, and give Security, if required: And I flatter myself, that they will all prefer such easy Terms to Suits at Law, which will certainly be the Consequence of their standing off.

THOMAS CAMPBELL.
