

Courts of Record in Dublin in the said Offences which shall be committed... or any Part of them, on the other of his Majesty's Dominions or in this Kingdom shall be tried, and Forfeitures thereby incurred shall be recovered, in any Court of Admiralty or Territory on the Coast whereof be committed (which Court of Admiralty authorized, empowered and required... and determine, the same) or in any Court of Record in any County, City, Town or Village, or in any Court of Law or Equity, or in any Court of Record in any Part of Great-Britain for the like Offences of this Act may be, directed to be done.

to this Nation for the Maintenance of the French Prisoners... Commission, and it is said, will be stationed as per Commission.

Yesterday the Commissioners of the Navy contracted for... It is said Orders are sent to Portsmouth for equipping a Squadron with the utmost Expedition, which is thought is intended for the East-Indies, to watch the Movements of the Dutch, who are going to send a large Reinforcement to that Part of the Globe. It is said that Admiral George Pococke will soon have the Command of this Squadron.

They are very busy at the Admiralty and War Office getting ready a Number of new Commissions for signing. It is confidently reported, that some Advices of great importance were received on Saturday Night at St. James by way of Paris, which occasioned the summoning of the Cabinet Council on Sunday, which sat so long as to detain his Majesty near an Hour and Half from going to Chapel. We are assured that there are two Houses in London which remit Monthly, for the use of our English Nobility and Gentry at Paris, so cool.

We hear, that the French Fishermen and Ours, on the Banks of Newfoundland, are already beginning to quarrel about the Limits, in which they should follow their respective Occupations. Which we suppose is owing to the possibility of setting up Land-Marks in the Sea. We are credibly informed that the French have now thirty Ships of the Line building in different Ports in the Bahama's from 60 to 90 Guns each, which are by Contract to be completed before next May.

There are Letters in Town which mention, that a Conspiracy against the Emperors of Russia had been discovered at Petersburg. They give no Particulars, only that the conspirators are seized.

Private Letter from the Hague, August 9. They write from Amsterdam, that the Bankrupt Messrs. Neuville continued to make the more Noise, and Apprehensions of its being followed by some others had been raised but too true, no less than Eighteen Houses having failed since. It is whispered here, that the great Dutch Factory at Amsterdam, belonging to M. d. G. is on the Point of giving way, and is privately making Books; if this should happen it will occasion above more Bankruptcies, that being one of the most considerable Houses in Holland.

Our Letters by the last Post from Brandenburg say that the King of Prussia has resolved to assemble an Army in the Neighbourhood of Berlin, Rupin, Potsdam, and Spandow, which he will review in Person in the beginning of October. By an Express arrived from Holland on Saturday Evening we are informed, that Thirty-one Houses in Amsterdam and Fourteen at Hamburg, have failed; and it was expected many more would follow in Stockholm and other Cities on the Continent.

Part of a private Letter from the Hague, August 12. Since the bankruptcy of Neuville, and the report that Grilles would be forced to stop, Amsterdam has been in the greatest Consternation; every man distrusts his Neighbour, so much, that no Business is done on Change. Neuville's bankruptcy is so manifestly fraudulent, that the Safe-Count which he asked of the State, has been flatly refused.

NEW-YORK, October 13. From private Letters, by the Packet, we learn, That the national Discontent seemed rather to increase than abate; it was thought the Ministry would soon be changed; and the Armaments preparing by the Dutch, and several particulars of their Conduct, with the Circumstances of Affairs between us and them, give us great Reason to expect a rupture with them in a short Time, for which Preparations seem to be making. And if this should happen, that it will probably bring on a general War again. That it has been found necessary to keep up a considerable military Force, which had lately been augmented, and is likely to be more so.

That therefore the Taxes were continued very high, and paid unwillingly: That the Ministry are greatly embarrased by the Indian War, which engages the publick Attention at present more than any other Object. That Mr. Mikes was gone to France, which his Enemies represented as a Flight; but that he was soon expected back, and that, was thought, he would gain his Cause against the Ministry. That the Demolition of the Fort and Harbour of Dunkirk, which, it was said, had been done so effectually, that it could not be made serviceable in many Years, is really executed in a Manner, that it may be reinitiated in three Weeks or a Month.

On Monday last arrived the Sardine Sloop of War, Capt. Parker, in 9 Weeks and three Days from Falmouth, reported to be stationed here for three Years. The Hornet Sloop of War, Capt. Montgomery, was lying at Plymouth, likewise bound to this Place. On Saturday last Captain Seymour, in a Sloop, a Schooner, from Newbern, in North Carolina, arrived here.

PHILADELPHIA, October 20. Extract of a Letter from Virginia, October 12. The Captains Moffat and Phillips, posted on Jackson's River, in Augusta County, were surprised, with Sixty Men, a Number of Indians, and totally routed, on the Thirtieth of last Month; tho', notwithstanding this Stroke, the Indians, in general, have met with great Loss on the Front of Virginia. Captain Field, with about 100 Volunteers, of my Department, joins Major Campbell in escorting the way to Fort Pitt.

Extract of a Letter from Lancaster, October 13. The Paxton Volunteers are returned. They went as far as the Great Island, but met with no Indians. They destroyed all the Houses, and above 300 Acres of fine Corn. Colonel Armstrong, and his Party, proceeded Twenty Miles farther, and are not yet returned. Yesterday a Gentleman arrived here Express from Northampton County, who brought Advice, that on Saturday last, at Noon, the New-England Settlement at Wyoming, was attacked by a Body of Indians (supposed to be the Wyalusing) and, we hear, Thirty-two People were killed or carried off by the Enemy. This Account was brought to Fort-Penn, Northampton County, by seven of the People that belonged to the said Settlement, and made their Escape.

NEW-LONDON, October 7. Monday Morning last departed this Life, after a short Illness with a violent Fever, in the Sixtieth Year of his Age, Mr. TIMOTHY GREEN, Merchant; who formerly carried on that Business in Boston, with Mr. SAMUEL KNEELAND; but upon the Decease of his Father, in 1757, he Removed to this Town, where he followed the Business of a Merchant: He was of an affable and courteous Behaviour, and of a kind, compassionate, and very benevolent Disposition, ever ready to assist those who stood in Need: His Acquaintance was very extensive, and as he was beloved by all who knew him, so his Death is as greatly lamented.

ANNAPOLIS, October 27. We hear that a Bill has Pass'd both Houses of Assembly, for allowing Fifty Pounds for every enemy Indian's Scalp or Prisoner taken in, or by the Inhabitants of, this Province. On the 4th Instant, Mr. JOHN JOHNSON, Merchant at St. Leonard's Creek Warehouse, in Annapolis County, having cross'd the Creek in a canoe, in order to Breakfast at his own Dwelling, being in perfect Health, on his Return was seized with an Apoplectic Fit, as is supposed, just as he was going into the Canoe, being found dead, with his Head at the Edge of the Water. He was a Bachelor of 34 Years of Age, of a most honest Character.

ROBERT WILSON, Merchant of Dorchester County, intending to leave this Province in the Spring, desires all Persons who have Claims on him to bring them in, that they may be Paid: And all those who are indebted to him must settle and pay their Accounts before that Time, or else they must expect Trouble. ROBERT WILSON.

ALL Persons Indebted to the Estate of Messrs. William Chapman, senior, and William Chapman, junior, are requested to make immediate Payment to my Brother Thomas Gassaway: And all those who have any Claims against the Estate of the said William Chapman, junior, are desired to send in their Accounts, legally proved, to the said Thomas Gassaway, who is fully empowered to manage and settle all my Affairs; and I do hereby declare, that all Business which shall be transacted by him, on my Account, shall be as good and as firm as if done by myself.
