

To be LET, for a Term not under Seven, nor exceeding Twenty Years, and to be Entered on immediately,

THE MILLS belonging to the Subscriber, at the Falls of Rappabannock River, in Virginia; and, together with them, a good commodious Dwelling-House, with necessary Out-Houses, and Twenty Acres of as good Land as any in the Colony, on which the Mills and Houses stand. The Stream is not only sufficient for the present Works, which are in good Repair, and consist of two Pair of large Cogwheel Stones, with Tub Wheels under one Roof, and one Pair same Sort of Stones with double Gear'd Work, quite new, in an exceeding good large framed House, but also for a Forge Wheel, or any other kind of Water Work; and there is no Danger from Floods in the Winter, nor was there ever known a Scarcity of Water in the greatest Droughts, at which Times the Toll Custom extends many Miles in a thick settled Country. The Convenience to good Navigation for Sea Vessels, to the Town of Fredericksburg, distant one Mile, to the Town of Falmouth, which stands on the North Side of the River, opposite to the Mills, and a good Fording Place between them, and to a fertile Back Country, where large Quantities of Grain may be purchased, are Advantages very obvious, and afford a Prospect for carrying on the Flour and Baking Trades to great Extent and Profit, especially the latter, as most of the Ships in Rappabannock River have Occasion to send to the above Towns for Tobacco, Iron, &c. As I live on the Premises, shall at all Times be ready to make known my Terms, to those who incline to treat with
