CITY INTELLIGENCE.

STATISTICS OF THE ORPHANS' COURT FOR BALTIMORE CITY.—The fiscal year of the Register of Wills for this Court closed on the 30th ult. During the term, letters testamentary and of administration were granted on the estates of 339 deceased persons. Guardians were appointed to 214 minor children. Isaac P. Cook, Esq., Register, has collected for the use of the State the following taxes:

On executors and administrators' commissions,	$23,137 90
On collateral inheritances,	11,953 31
Total,	$35,291 21

The value of the personal estates settled by the Court is estimated at three millions eight hundred thousand dollars. The real and personal estates subject to the collateral tax, amounted to four hundred and seventy-eight thousand dollars. The income of the State, from these sources, was lessened by the law authorizing executors and administrators, in certain cases, to renounce their commissions, in which event the State relinquishes any claim for taxes thereon. The fees of the office have been considerably reduced, owing to the inability of parties to close estates entrusted to their care. Numerous apprentice cases have also occupied the attention of the Court. The Court has recently adopted a rule requiring administrators, executors and guardians to invest surplus funds remaining in their custody, under certain conditions. The enforcement of this rule will give greater security to all interested parties. The Court will also hereafter enforce obedience to its citations, in conformity with the practice of other tribunals.

"NINA" ARRESTED.—Late advices from Richmond bring the information that the young woman who has already figured in the newspapers under the name of NINA, has been arrested in Richmond as a Federal spy. Conclusive evidence, it is said, has been obtained to show that her frequent visits to Virginia were not, as she pretended, for the benefit of the Southern Confederacy. The few letters which she carried with her were obtained from those who were ignorant of her true character at the time; the articles of contraband concealed about her person being carried by her merely as a blind.

ANOTHER FEMALE SPY.—Mrs. B*y alias Marshall, has been very sedulous of late in her visits to quite a number of families in this city. She represents herself to be an intense sympathiser with the South, and is indignant when those whom she addresses exhibit less warmth on the subject than herself. She is perfectly willing, and very anxious to take letters South addressed to any Marylanders or others, in the Confederate service, and has an especial desire to be made the medium of articles, contraband or non-contraband of war, intended for Virginia. She is very desirous, moreover, of eleciting the opinions of those with whom she seeks personal interviews, and has even ventured so far as to affect a wish to deposit a valuable collection of diamonds and jewelry with some of the foreign Consuls of this city, with a view to induce them to express themselves freely with regard to the war. She is plausible and pertinacious, and it were well for our citizens to know no North, no South, when she makes her appearance to solicit contributions for the Southern cause.

A MALE PRETENDER.—A man who appears to be well acquainted with the names of a large number of Marylanders in Virginia, and the points at which they are stationed, has also been visiting numerous families in this city recently. His statements are so plausible, and his statistics so nearly correct, as in many instances to thoroughly deceive those whom he has addressed. He has met, as might be expected, with considerable success in obtaining clothing, &c., on various pretences, and in one instance was hospitably entertained and lodged for twenty-four hours, receiving also on his departure a sum of money amounting, it is said, to twenty dollars.

A FIGHT BETWEEN SOLDIERS.—Yesterday about noon two soldiers met on Baltimore street at Centre Market Space, one of whom was a sergeant. They stopped, when some words passed between them, and the private used a very insulting epithet, when the Sergeant struck him a blow with his fist on the temple which knocked him to the pavement senseless. While in this condition, the Sergeant raised the man up some two feet and threw him violently to the pavement. His head struck the kerb, and a severe gash was inflicted. A citizen who was standing by remonstrated against the act, when the Sergeant drew a pistol and threatened to kill him. As the threat did not appear to intimidate the citizen, the Sergeant left without executing his threat.

MEETING OF THE BALTIMORE UNITED FIRE DEPARTMENT.—In pursuance of public notice, the delegates to the Baltimore United Fire Department assembled last evening at the old City Hall, Holliday street. The President, T. W. Levering, Esq., presided. The prominent feature of the proceedings was the introduction and adoption of a resolution to form a beneficial association, under a charter to be secured from the Legislature, for the relief of indigent and disabled firemen and the families of deceased firemen. A committee was then appointed, consisting of one delegate from each company, to confer in regard to the matter, and report at a subsequent meeting. The funds on hand amount to about $17,000. The meeting then adjourned.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—An attempt to enter the house of Mr. F. Deville, situated on Ross street extended, was made by two men on Saturday night last; but in consequence of a noise made by the burglars, Mr. Deville was aroused and they were frightened off. They were endeavoring to gain admission through the back door by the use of a pair of nippers, which were left behind in their flight. A hat was also dropped. Two negroes were subsequently arrested upon the charge of being concerned in it, but there being no evidence to implicate them they were discharged.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, as car No. 18 was passing over Gay street bridge, the bolt which fastens the tongue to the car broke, and the horses dashed off at a furious rate. When near the corner of High street the horses came in collision with a dray, driven by a negro man, and the dray-horse was knocked down and the driver thrown from his seat to the ground, by which he sustained slight injury. The collision had the effect of stopping the horses.

LECTURE AT THE INSTITUTE.—To-night the first of the Maryland Institute lectures will be delivered by Rev. Dr. J. McKendree Reiley, pastor of the Exeter street Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Reiley's reputation as a pulpit orator and his known ability will no doubt attract a large audience. His subject will be "An Evening with American Statesmen."

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was well calculated to drive all thought of winter away. It was as pleasant as an early June day. The ladies took advantage of it, and the streets were crowded with the beauty and fashion of the city. It was a little too warm for an exhibition of the winter styles, but the display of the late fall fashions was elegant.

COMMITTED FOR COURT.—Yesterday afternoon a man named Frederick Schenck was arrested on the charge of cruelly beating a woman named Josephine Green without any provocation. He was taken before Justice Whalen, who committed him to jail for court.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Simon Cameron, Secretary of War, passed through this city yesterday en route for Washington. He travelled in a special car from Harrisburg to Washington. He dined at the Washington House, corner of Eutaw and Camden streets.

ARREST OF AN INSANE MAN.—Joseph Crouse, an insane man, was yesterday arrested upon the charge of beating his sister. He was taken before Justice McGowan, who committed him to jail to answer at Court.

BEATING HIS WIFE.—John Frank was yesterday before Justice McGowan, upon the charge of assaulting and beating his wife. He was committed to jail, in default of bail to answer the charge at Court.

ASSAULT.—Aquilla Webster, colored, was yesterday taken into custody for assaulting A. J. Healey. Justice McGowan committed him to jail for Court.

Amusements.

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—The same attractive bill which drew such a crowded audience on Miss Western's benefit will, by request, be repeated to-night, viz: the new drama of the Rebel's Daughter and Shakespeare's comedy of Taming the Shrew. The beautiful and gifted actress, Miss Lucille, sustaining the character of the Rebel's Daughter, and Katharine, supported by that excellent actor, Mr. Tilton, and the entire company. A full house will be the result.

BALTIMORE MUSEUM.—This spacious and favorite opera house was crowded last evening by an audience refined and appreciative. The entertainment was select and much admired by the audience in attendance. "The Forty Thieves," "Three Jolly Sports," and the laughable Ethiopian pantomime of the "Shoemaker" will be repeated tonight for the last time. All who desire an evening's real enjoyment cannot do better than attend the Museum.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

CITY CRIMINAL COURT—JUDGE BOND.

Archibald Stirling, Jr., State's Attorney, prosecuting:

The following named parties were yesterday arraigned and pleaded not guilty:

Samuel Wheeler, colored, for the larceny of 100 lbs. sugar.

James Hooper, colored, for the larceny of an overcoat.

Rose Sterling, for the larceny of two hams.

Matilda McLane, for the larceny of a gold watch.

The case of William Remington and wife vs. the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, an appeal for damages resulting from the proposed closing of Conway street, was then taken up. The question of jurisdiction in the matter was briefly argued on both sides, when the Court stated that he would prefer to have a little time to consider the subject before rendering a decision. He thought he would be prepared to give his decision this morning.

Court then adjourned till this morning.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE KEENE.

Rachel J. Glenn vs. Samuel Glenn. Decree passed divorcing complainant from defendant a vinculo matrimonii.

Fitzpatrick vs. Hackett. The Court yesterday heard the exceptions by defendant to the sufficiency of the injunction bond, pending which the complainant filed a petition praying that the cause might be removed to the Superior Court. This petition, presenting an interesting question of practice, was also argued and held under curia. V. McLaughlin for complainant, W. B. Perine and J. P. Poe, for defendant.

SUPERIOR COURT—JUDGE MARTIN.

Susan Webb vs. The Park Insurance Company. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,250.

The Bank of Commerce in New York vs. The Merchants' Bank of Baltimore. On trial.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE GILES.

United States vs. schooner King Fisher. Before reported. On trial.

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

DECEMBER TERM, 1861.

ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—No. 154. George Cramer vs. Edward A. Shriner. Appeal from the Circuit Court for Frederick county. This case was argued by Oliver Miller for the appellant, and by J. M. Palmer for the appellee.

Monetary and Commercial Events.

BALTIMORE, December 9, 1861.

The Stock market was more active to-day than on Saturday, and the feeling in it was considerably stronger. Maryland 6's advanced ½ per cent. Sales of $6,000 coupon 1870's were made at 91½, and this figure was bid at the close for more. Baltimore City 6's were also better. A sale of $1,500 1875's was made at 81½, which is an advance of 1¼ per cent on Saturday's price, and they closed firm at 81½ bid. For 1886's and 1890's 85½ was bid, but there were no sellers at this figure. Railroad bonds were generally firm, and in Northern Central 1885's we notice a further advance of ¼. We note sales of $1,500 Baltimore and Ohio 1885's at 69¾, and $3,000 Northern Central 1885's at 61@61¼. Baltimore and Ohio bonds closed at 47 bid, 48½ asked for 1925's (the extra dividend bonds); 73 bid for 1880's; 60 bid for 1885's; and Northern Central 1885's left off at 61 bid. In Railroad shares there was nothing done to-day. For Baltimore and Ohio $50 was asked, but only $47 was bid, and Northern Central closed steady at $17 bid, $17½ asked regular way. Bank stocks are generally firm, but there has been no movement in them for two or three days past. Some Mining stocks were offered to-day but no sales were made. Guilford closed at 35 cts. bid, 40 cts. asked, and Springfield at $1.70 bid, $1 80 asked regular way.

In New York to-day stocks generally were much better. Missouri 6's advanced 1½ per cent; Tennessees 1¼; Virginias ¾; Erie $1¾; New York Central $1¾, and Reading ¼. North Carolina 6's, Canton Co. and Treasury notes left off at the same figures as on Saturday, and the market closed firm.

EXPORTS OF SPECIE.

	1859.	1860.	1861.
For the week	$675,697	44,623	none.
Previously reported	62,630,233	42,493,714	3,256,885
Since January 1	$63,305,930	42,565,737	3,256,885

The Herald says:

Our exports continue to amount to nearly double our imports, and it is well understood by Congress that a moderate revision of the tariff, with a view to the peremptory exclusion of all articles of foreign manufacture not absolutely needed by the people of this country, would meet with public favor. The specie movement continues inward, though there is so little employment for money here that many of the bankers prefer to leave their funds on the other side instead of embarrassing their foreign correspondents by importing gold. Our importation of dry goods is very light, and it is evident that the manufacturers who produce staple articles this season will be able to sell them at a handsome profit next spring. Of groceries our imports are about the usual average, and no considerable advance in prices is looked for.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

COFFEE.—The market for Coffee continues buoyant and very strong. There is a brisk demand for it, and we note sales to-day of 250 bags Rio at 17¼ cts. net, and 240 bags do. at 17¾ cts. net. There is no Rio Coffee now to be had under 17 cts., and most of the lots on the market held at 17¾@18 cts. We quote Laguayra nominal at 20@21 cts., and Java at 27@24 cts. per lb. The stock of Rio here is about 19,000 bags.

FLOUR.—There was a better inquiry for Flour to-day than for some days past, and the market generally was rather firmer in tone than it has been. We notice sales of 200 bbls. Howard Street Super at $5.62½, some small lots do. cut Extra at $5.75, 600 bbls. Ohio Extra at $6, and 600 bbls. do. on private terms, but understood to be at a fraction under this figure. For City Mills Super there was considerable inquiry, and $4.25 per bbl. was offered and refused for several lots. A sale was made on Saturday of 200 bbls. at $5.37½ per bbl., and it was generally held to-day at this figure. Ohio Super closed steady at $5.50, and Howard Street do. at $5.62½ per bbl. for good brands. Extras may be quoted as closing at $6 for Ohio and Howard Street, and $6@6.25 per bbl. for shipping brands City Mills.

FAMILY FLOUR.—Family Flour is still selling by the dray load to the trade at $8.25 for the best brands Baltimore, $8.50@7 for Ohio and Howard Street, and Baltimore high grade Extra is bringing $7.75 per bbl.

RYE FLOUR AND CORN MEAL.—Rye Flour is firm at $4.37½@4.50, and we quote Corn Meal steady $3.20@3.25 per bbl. for both Baltimore and Brandywine.

GRAIN.—Wheat was rather firmer to-day than on Saturday, and for red prices were higher. There were about 5,000 bushels red, and 3,000 bushels white at market, and red sold at 120@130 cts. for good to prime, the latter figure, which is an advance of 1 to 5 cts., being paid for a lot of 1,000 bushels. White sold at 100@105 cts. for common, 125@132 cts. for medium, 135@140 cts. for fair, and 145@155 cts. for good to prime. Corn was in good supply the receipts amounting to nearly 20,000 bushels. New white was lower, the sales being made at 58@60 cts., closing dull at 58 cts. for lots suitable for shipment, but old white sold at 70@73 cts., the latter figure being an advance. Yellow sold at 58@62 cts. for new, and 65@66 cts. for old. A lot of 100 bushels Maryland Rye sold to-day at 70 cts., and we note a sale of 200 bushels Pennsylvania do. at 76 cts. Oats were active and very firm. There were nearly 20,000 bushels at market and they were mostly sold at 41@43 cts. for Maryland, and 44@46 cts. for New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

MOLASSES.—We are without transactions to note in Molasses, but we still quote as follows, viz: Cuba at 25@33 cts. for clayed, and 35@35 cts. for Muscovado; Porto Rico at 35@45 cts.; and New Orleans at 50@56 cts. per gallon.

PROVISIONS.—There is very little doing in Provisions, and for all articles under this head the market is heavy as well as dull. Bacon is dull and very unsettled. Shoulders are selling at 4¾@4¾ cts., Sides at 5¼@5¾ cts., and Hams at from 6 to 10 cts. per lb. There is no Bulk Meat selling and we can give no quotations for it. The new crop will soon be in market. Lard may be quoted at 8¾@9 cts. for City and Western, but there is nothing doing in it. Baltimore packed Beef is selling at $12@12.50 for No. 1, and $10 per bbl. for Mess, and we quote Western Mess at $11@12 per bbl. Mess Pork ranges in price at from $12 to $13.50 per bbl., as in quality, and we quote Prime do. at $10@11, and Rump do. at $8@9 per bbl.

RICE.—There is a little Rice here, and it is held firmly at 7¾ cts. net. There is however very little demand for it.

SALT.—Liverpool Salt is in fair demand, and steady at the following rates, viz: 105@110 cts. for Ground Alum, and 155@160 cts. per sack for Marshall's, Worthington's and Jeffrey & Darcy's fine. Turks Island do. is still selling from store at 25 cts. per bushel.

SEEDS.—No sales of Seeds were reported this morning, but we quote Clover steady and firm at $4.62½@4.75 per bushel for good to prime. Timothy Seed may be quoted at $2.12½@2.25, and Flaxseed at $1.60@1.70 per bushel.

SUGARS.—There is a good demand for Sugars, but there are comparatively few offering, and the transactions are consequently limited. We note sales to-day of 11 hhds. Cuba, and 10 hhds. Porto Rico both at 6¾ cts. The market is very firm in tone, but we still quote as follows, viz: Cuba at 5¾@6.25 for refining, and $8.50@9 for grocery grades; Porto Rico and New Orleans at $8.50@9.50; and Manilla and Pernambuco at $8@8.25.

REFINED SUGARS.—For Refined Sugars the rates are still as follows, viz: 11¼@11¾ cts. for loaf, 10¾@11¼ cts. for crushed, powdered and granulated; 10¾@10¾ cts. for soft crushed white; and 9¾@10 cts. per lb. for C yellow.

WHISKEY.—Whiskey is in better demand to-day than it has been for some days past, and the market for it is firmer. We note sales of 200 bbls. Ohio at 20¾ cts., and we quote Ohio as closing at 20¾@21 cts., the latter figure being asked by some holders. City is held to-day at 20¾ cts.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Cotton is firm—sales of 1,000 bales at 31 cts. Flour is quiet—sales of 19,000 bbls.; State $5.40@5.55; Ohio $5.90@5.95; Southern $5.50@6. Wheat has advanced 1 ct—sales of 265,000 bushels; Chicago spring $1.20@1.26; Milwaukie club $1.29@1.30; red Western $1.30@1.39. Corn is firm—sales of 113,000 bushels, at 61 closed firm—sales at 59¾@60¼ cts. Sugar is firm—Muscovado 7¾@8¾ cts. Coffee firm—Rio 17@17¾ cts. Rosin is firm—sales of 500 bbls. at $5.75. Freights are unsettled.
