CITY INTELLIGENCE.

INDUCING SOLDIERS TO DESERT.—For some time past a man named Thos. Hyer, who keeps a boarding house on Thames street, has been suspected of being guilty of tampering with soldiers, offering them inducements to desert, and ship as sailors on merchant vessels. On Tuesday night several of the police paid a visit to his house, and, on entering, a soldier wearing the uniform of the First Maryland regiment fled from the house, and succeeded in secreting himself in a wood yard on the wharf, where he was afterwards found. The police took Hyer into custody and sent him and the soldier to camp Creager, where the Colonel of the regiment ordered them into confinement.

RETURNED FROM FORT WARREN.—Michael J. Grady, who was confined at Fort Warren, has been released, and has arrived at his home in this city. He was arrested with some twenty others at the North Point House, on the charge of endeavoring to get into Virginia, for the purpose of joining the Confederate army. He has been released after stipulating that he would not visit any of the rebellious States, nor in any way give aid or comfort to the enemies of the Federal Government.

PROPERTY SALES.—Yesterday Col. S. H. Gover, auctioneer, sold at the Merchants' Exchange salesrooms, eight lots of ground situated on the South west corner of Hollins and Carey streets. Each lot has 17 feet front on Hollins street, and the first five a depth of 85 and the remainder a depth of 131 feet. On each lot there is an annual ground rent of $35. Purchased by John S. Donnell, for $800 each.

MISS WESTERN—Holliday Street Theatre.—It has been a subject of general remark among members of the dramatic profession that it is difficult to please a Baltimore audience. While this is no doubt true, there is another fact equally so, and that is that, once pleased, a feeling of admiration is elicited for the favorite which scarcely has any bounds. This latter truth has been strikingly illustrated in the success which has attended the engagement of Miss Western. She appeared on the boards a stranger. A patient and indulgent, though not large, audience was present on the first night of her engagement, and with a discrimination which subsequent events have proved just, she was received with marked favor. Every night thereafter she increased in popularity, and weeks have since passed, and to-night, as on last night and every preceding night, the theatre will be crowded to its utmost capacity by her admirers, of both sexes. Seldom indeed, and in fact not for many years, has it been the fortune of an actress to make as decided an impression as Miss Western has done, and strong as it is, it is not beyond what she justly deserves. In every range of character, tragedy or comedy, she has been alike successful in her personations. In many of those in which she has appeared her conceptions have been at complete variance with those of other actresses who have presented them to our public. It is no easy matter to remove an opinion of a character which has been impressed upon the mind by its presentation by an able artist, yet Miss Western's conceptions and execution are so in harmony with the character represented, her audiences have yielded gracefully to the innovation, and accepted her delineations with enthusiasm. From present appearances her engagement bids fair to surpass in length that of any favorite who has appeared in our city for years.

BALTIMORE MUSEUM.—A very large and intelligent audience was in attendance last evening at the Museum. To-night there will be a total change of programme, introducing a number of new and laughable features, amongst which are the "Sons of Malta, or the Uninitiated;" "Scenes of Toomey's" and the "Slushaddingdi Brothers"—There will be lots of fun at the Museum to-night. On Saturday afternoon there will be a special day entertainment for ladies and children.
