SAMUEL DAVENANT, a Gardener by Trade, about 30 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high, speaks short, is well-set, of a good Complexion, mark'd with the Small-Pox, has black Eyes, and very dark Hair, tolerable long, which he wears tied: Had on, and took with him, a brown Cloth Jacket, and Breeches, Felt Hat, Two Osnabrig Shirts, One old Check ditto, Holland ditto, a Pair of old blue and white Yarn Stockings, Crocus Trowlers, and Country-made Shoes.

SAMUEL FLOOD, a Labourer, about 25 Years of Age, and near the same Height as the other, of a brown Complexion, has a smooth Face, dark Eyes, and short dark straight Hair, a down Look, speaks low, and very plain: Had on, when he went away, an old Felt Hat, old brown Kersey Jacket, Osnabrig Shirt, Crocus Trowlers, and a Pair of English Shoes, almost new.

Whoever brings home said Servants, shall receive a Reward of Ten Pounds for both, or Five Pounds for either. (6w) R. CROXALL. N. B. They had Collars and Leg-Irons on, when they went away. The Gardener sometimes went by the Name of Samuel Dryton, and may probably pass by that Name.

ANNAPOLIS, July 26, 1768. W A N T E D,

TWO good WORKMEN in the Goldsmith Way. Such will meet with Encouragement, by applying to (4w) THOMAS SPARROW. None but good Workmen need apply.

Kent-Island, July 5, 1768. THE Subscriber having declined keeping Ferry, from his House to Annapolis, he takes this Method of returning his sincere Thanks to those who have obliged him with their Favours; and begs Leave to acquaint the Public, that the Ferry is now kept at Broad-Creek, to where the Boats and Hands are removed, and the usual Attendance, by them, will be given.

JAMES HUTCHINGS. Broad-Creek, July 5, 1768.

THE Subscriber informs the Public, that she has opened a House of Entertainment, at Broad-Creek, where she sometime ago lived, and to where the Ferry (that was lately kept from Mr. James Hatchings's to Annapolis) is now removed: She will be much obliged to the Public for their Custom and Favours, as she will make it her peculiar Study to please and give Satisfaction to her Customers, and the best Attendance will be given with the Ferry-Boats, both here, and at Annapolis, for Passengers. (w4) SARAH FLYNN. The Ferry-men are to be spoke with, at Mr. James M'Mordie's, the Sign of the Blue-Ball, near the Dock.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of my late Husband, Charles Minskie, late of the City of Annapolis, deceased, are desired to pay their respective Balances, due to the said Estate, in order to enable the Subscriber to pay the several Creditors, as far as the said Estate will reach. MARY ANN MINSKIE, Executrix. N. B. The said Executrix, having Two excellent Workmen, carries on the Staymakers Business in all its Branches, to as great Perfection, and in as neat Fashions, as has been done in this Place: She makes all Sorts of Womens Apparel, also Gowns, Cloaks, Slips, and quilts Womens Petticoats to a very great Nicety: As also makes Mens wearing Apparel, both coarse and fine: She would be very much obliged, and esteem it as a Favour, that Ladies and Gentlemen would please to make Trial of their humble Servant, who should be proud to serve and oblige them, in any of the above Branches. M. A. MINSKIE.

WANTS EMPLOYMENT, A YOUNG Gentleman, lately arrived from England, who has been accustomed to Business, and will serve as a Clerk, upon moderate Terms. Apply to Alexander Lawson, near Baltimore-Town.

Annapolis, July 28, 1768. WHEREAS my late Master, Mr. ANDREW BUCHANAN, has generously declined his Business, of BARBER and PERUKE-MAKER, in Favour of the Subscriber, who has removed next Door to Mr. Robert Cauden's, where he has supplied himself with a fresh Assortment of Hair, and other Materials, for carrying on his Business, and hopes for the Encouragement of all Gentlemen, Ladies, and others, as they may depend on being served honestly, with every Article, in his Way, and after the newest Fashions.

(tf) JAMES REID. Baltimore County, July 23, 1768.

RAN away last Night, from the Subscriber, living at My Lady's Manor, near the Chapel, a Convict Servant Man, named WILLIAM OAK, of a middle Stature, and wears his own short brown Hair, which curls; he is a pretty good Scholar, a cunning artful Fellow, and will endeavour to forge a Pass, has lately had a Hurt over his left Eye, which is now fore, and has an old Scar on his left Ankle: Had on, when he went away, a large Iron Collar, with Two Rivets in each End, an old Felt Hat, a lappelled chequer'd Saddle-Cloth Jacket, a Country Linen Shirt, a Pair of Hempen-Roll Trowlers, a Pair of old Stockings, but no Shoes.

It is supposed he will endeavour to get his Collar off, before he travels, also furnish himself with other Cloaths, and then either steal a Horse to go off, or get a Reaping-hook, and pass for a Reaper, as he is a very good one. Whoever takes up, and secures said Servant, so as his Master may have him again, shall receive, if taken within 20 Miles, Three Pounds, and if 40 Miles, Five Pounds, with reasonable Charges, paid by

(w4) THOMAS TALBOTT. July 22, 1768.

RAN away last Night, from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore-Town, an indentured French Servant Lad, named LERAY THEODORE, about 19 Years of Age, 5 Feet 5 or 6 Inches high, he is well set, has light coloured Hair, tied behind, grey Eyes, and walks very wide; he is by Trade a Barber, and was lately imported in the William and Thomas, Capt. Cook: Had on, and took with him, a dark mix'd Cloth Coat, and Waistcoat, black Cloth Breeches, a Pair of old Shoes, dirty strip'd Linen Trowlers, strip'd Linen Shirt, white Thread Stockings, and coarse Country-made Shoes, White-Metal Buckles, an old Castor Hat, much greased as he has other Cloaths in Town; he has stole Two dark coloured Wigs, the one tall'd, and the other a Two curled Bob, with Two Cases of Razors, one contains Four, and the other Two.

Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him, so that his Master may have him again, shall have, if taken in Town, Twenty Shillings, if Twenty Miles from Town, Forty Shillings, and if out of the Province, Three Pounds Reward, and reasonable Charges, if brought home, paid by (w3) WILLIAM ADAMS. N. B. All Masters of Vessels are desired not to harbour said Lad on board, or carry him off at their Peril.

JAMES DICK & STEWART, Have opened Store, in Baltimore-Town, under the Management of Mr. John Galloway, in the Store-House next Door to Mr. Adair's, lately occupied by Mr. Thomas Richardson, deceased.

WHERE they have for Sale, a general Assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, to be sold cheap, for ready Money only. Likewise Sail-Duck, and Ship Chandlery, and Newington Cordage of all Sizes. And, as they propose keeping a constant Supply of Cordage, at said Store, and have a daily Communication between Baltimore-Town and Annapolis, they can furnish any Quantity of Rigging, from Newington Rope-Walk, on a very short Notice, by Orders being lodged with Mr. Galloway. (4w)

ALL Persons indebted to Mr. Thomas Richardson, deceased, on his own proper Account, are desired to settle their Accounts immediately; and such who have Claims against him, are requested to bring in their Accounts, that they may be paid, by

(4w) ANTHONY STEWART, Administrator. THE Death of my late Partner, Mr. Thomas Richardson, makes it necessary, that the Affairs of the Partnership, of Stewart & Richardson, should be speedily closed: I therefore hope all Persons indebted to said Company, will, without Delay, settle and discharge their respective Balances. And those who have it not in their Power to pay immediately, will, I hope, see the Necessity of settling their open Accounts, by Bond or Note, which will particularly oblige

Their humble Servant, ANTHONY STEWART. (4w)

BASIL FRANCIS, WATCHMAKER, from LONDON, Near the MARKET, in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

MAKES and sells all kinds of WATCHES: The Success he hath had, to give Satisfaction to those Gentlemen that have already employed him to repair their Watches, gives him great Hopes of the Continuance of their Favours; and it being his chiefest Study, as well as Interest, to merit the Approbation of the Public, he flatters himself, he shall still meet with Encouragement, as he doth engage, that Watches repaired by him, shall perform their Office for the Space of Six Years, and keeps them in Order during that Time, (Accidents excepted) at the small Expence of Cleaning annually; and, as it is the general Complaint, that high Charges are made by most of the Callings, and being desirous to do all in his Power to render Content to his Employers, he is determined to work at as low Rates as possible, and will let them know the Charge of any Piece of Work; before he performs it, if required; by which Method, they are not only enabled to know whether they chuse to go to the Expence, or not; but also be sure of meeting with no Imposition. (tf)

Mouth of Patuxent River, June 23, 1768. THE FULLING-MILL, formerly advertised in this Gazette, is now completed in her Works; and has a good Fuller, with every Material for carrying on the Business; in all its Branches. Those who send their Cloth, are desired to be particular in their Instructions, which they may depend shall be duly observed, and their Work done in the best Manner, with Dispatch. (w7) WILLIAM DUVALL. Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchases I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleston, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, a Keep-Trade Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time will have Preference given them.

(3w) JOHN SEMPLE. THE Subscriber having taken out Letters of Administration on the Estate of her late Husband, the Reverend Mr. Thomas Bacon, deceased, requests the Indulgence of the several Creditors, until she can ascertain the Amount of the whole Debts; which she begs the several Creditors to make known to Mr. Thomas Bowler, of Frederick-Town, their several Claims, particularly distinguished, whether on Bonds, Notes, or open Accounts, so that Preference may be given to those Creditors the Law directs, as she is determined to complete the Administration, within the Time limited by Law. ELIZABETH BACON, Administrator of THOMAS BACON.

Those Gentlemen who have Books belonging to the Estate, are requested to send them to Mr. Thomas Bowler, in Annapolis, or, if more convenient, to Elizabeth Bacon, in Frederick-Town.
